This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The Assembly adjourned.

MONDAY MORNING, May 19.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Commissions reported as an additional Commissioner, Henry Wynkoop, Ruling Elder, from the Presbytery of Raritan.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Assembly being informed that the Commissioner from the Presbytery of Sidney had been robbed on his way of the money intended by the Presbytery for the Contingent Fund, it was on motion,

Resolved, That the printed Minutes be sent to the members of said Presbytery without charge.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported a Memorial from Fort Wayne Presbytery, on the transfer of the Board of Domestic Missions to the West, which was referred to the Committee to be appointed on that subject. They also reported an overture from the Synod of South Carolina, on the subject of a division into two Synods, which arrived too late to be acted on, the matter being already decided.

Overture No. 8 was placed on the docket.

Overture No. 13, a communication from the Presbyteries in Northern India, stating that they had failed to constitute a Synod, and requesting further time; also requesting indulgence in varying in certain points from the constitutional discipline of the church. It was referred to Messrs. Potts, Hendren, and Watkins.

Overture No. 14, was placed on the docket.

Overture No. 15. A communication from the General Association of New Hampshire, on Slavery, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Overture No. 16. A communication from the Welsh Calvinistic Methodists, inviting correspondence. It was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Overtures Nos. 17, 18, and 19, were placed on the docket.

The unfinished business was resumed, and considered until the order of the day arrived, viz. the Report of the Board of Education, when said report was presented and read by the Secretary of the Board. Two resolutions were then offered by Dr. Junkin, which with the report, were referred to Drs. McGill, Junkin, and Edgar, and Ruling Elders McNairy and Baldwin.

The second order of the day, viz. the Marriage Question, was, on motion, postponed, to resume the unfinished business.

Pending the discussion, the Assembly adjourned.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the Rev. Stephen Thurston had presented credentials as a delegate from the General Conference of Maine; and as an additional Commissioner, James D. Davis, Ruling Elder, from the Presbytery of Baltimore.

The minutes were read and approved.

Reports on Synodical Records were called up, being the order of the day. The Records of the Synods of New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Wheeling, Ohio, Indiana, Northern Indiana, Illinois, Virginia, North Carolina, West Tennessee, South Carolina and Georgia, and Mississippi, were approved.

The committee on the Records of the Synod of Albany reported, recommending that the records be approved, with the following exceptions, viz.— 1. The paging is all wrong after p. 184. 2. The Synod which met at Troy, October 10, 1843, was not opened with a sermon as our book directs, (Form of Government, c. xi. § 5.) 3. The minutes of the proceedings of any stated meeting of the Synod seem not to be corrected till the following stated meeting. 4. In general, the records are not kept with sufficient fulness and care; words are improperly abridged, or repeated, or effaced with pencil mark, &c. The report was accepted and adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Cincinnati reported, recommending that the records be approved, with the following exceptions, viz.: 1. Frequent abbreviations—e. g.: "Pby." for "Presbytery"; "rec'd" for "received." 2. The hand-writing is careless, and, in some instances, blotted. 3. No margin is left, and in some instances the writing is carried below the line, and down the margin, and will soon be worn away by the turning of the leaves. The report was accepted and approved.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri reported, recommending approval, with the following exceptions, viz.: 1. A defectiveness in the record on p. 102, consisting in the omission of the names of the absent members. This is at variance with their practice in former years, except in 1843; is contrary to the general usage of ecclesiastical bodies, and renders inconvenient the work of calling these absentees to account. 2. Verbal inaccuracies on pages 119, 130. On p. 119, the word "plains" is used for city "on the plains and in the wilderness." The intended antithesis is destroyed. On p. 130, it is recorded "that the last stated meeting of the Presbytery of Potosi having failed." The two parts of the sentence are antagonistical. On p. 130, also, the Temporary Clerk signs his name as Stated Clerk. 3. A wrong decision of the Synod in the case of the Presbytery of Palmyra. The Synod severely censured the Presbytery for expunging a part of their minutes, when it seems that the minutes referred to were not a part of the Presbyterial record. The Committee think the Synod correct in the principle which they laid down, but erred in its application. As a matter of taste and neatness, it would have been better to have left the minutes unobliterated, but the Presbytery had the right to expunge it, provided it affected not the integrity of the record. The report was accepted and approved.

The Committees on the records of the Synods of Buffalo, Kentucky, and Alabama, reported that the records had not been put into their hands, and were discharged; and these Synods were enjoined to send up their records next year.

The unfinished business was resumed, and continued until the hour of adjournment, when the Assembly adjourned until this evening at 8 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

The Thirty-third Annual Report of the Directors of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, and the Twentieth Report of the Trustees of the same Seminary, were presented, read, and referred to Messrs. Belville, Samuel Wilson, White, and Davis.

The unfinished business was resumed, and continued, until the order of the day arrived, when the Report of the Board of Missions was presented and read by their Corresponding Secretary, together with a Report from the Committee on Church Extension; which last report was read in part, when the further reading was on motion postponed. The whole was referred to Messrs. Sampson, MacMaster, Harrison, Potts, Montfort, John Dickenson, and Bailey.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the Corresponding Secretary be further heard agreeably to his own request in behalf of the Board, when the Committee shall bring in their report.

The unfinished business was resumed; and after discussion, the previous question was moved and sustained. And the yeas and nays being demanded, were recorded and are as follows, viz.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Commissions reported as an additional Commissioner, James M. Preston, Ruling Elder from the Presbytery of Ebenezer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported No. 20 and No. 21, which were placed on the docket.

The Committee on the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, reported in part, nominating individuals to fill vacancies in the Board, and recommending that the election be made the order of the day for to-morrow, at half-past nine, A. M. The recommendation was adopted.

The Committee on the Report of the Directors of Princeton Theological Seminary, and the report of the Trustees of the same, reported, recommending that said reports be approved, and printed in the Appendix. The recommendation was adopted.

The Committee to nominate Directors of Princeton Theological Seminary, reported certain nominations, and recommended that the election be made the order of the day for to-morrow, at half-past three, P. M. The recommendation was adopted.

The Committee on the Eighteenth Annual Report of the Western Theological Seminary reported, recommending that said report be approved and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes; and that the act of incorporation, together with the supplement, be recognized and approved by the Assembly. They further reported nominations, and recommended that the election be made the order of the day immediately after the election of Directors for Princeton Seminary. The recommendations were adopted.

The unfinished business of the morning was taken up, viz., a motion to appoint a Committee to draw up a minute expressive of the views of the Assembly, upon the subject decided in the morning, viz., the invalidity of baptism in the Church of Rome. The motion was carried, and Messrs. Hamilton, Thornwell, and Junkin, were appointed that Committee.

The order of the day, namely, the Marriage Question, was postponed, and made the third order of the day for to-morrow afternoon.

The Committee on Overture No. 3, presented a report, which was read, and is as follows, viz.:

The Committee, to whom were referred the memorials on the subject of Slavery, beg leave to submit the following report:

The memorialists may be divided into three classes, viz.:

1. Those which represent the system of Slavery, as it exists in these United States, as a great evil, and pray this General Assembly to adopt measures for the amelioration of the condition of the slaves.

2. Those which ask the Assembly to receive memorials on the subject of Slavery, to allow a full discussion of it, and to enjoin upon the members of our church, residing in States, whose laws forbid the slaves being taught to read, to seek by all lawful means the repeal of those laws.

3. Those which represent Slavery as a moral evil, a heinous sin in the sight of God, calculated to bring upon the church the curse of God, and calling for the exercise of discipline in the case of those who persist in maintaining or justifying the relation of master to slaves.

The question which is now unhappily agitating and dividing other branches of the church, and which is pressed upon the attention of the Assembly by one of the three classes of memorialists just named, is, whether the holding of slaves is, under all circumstances, a heinous sin, calling for the discipline of the church.

The church of Christ is a spiritual body, whose jurisdiction extends only to the religious faith, and moral conduct of her members. She cannot legislate where Christ has not legislated, nor make terms of membership which he has not made. The question, therefore, which this Assembly is called upon to decide, is this: Do the Scriptures teach that the holding of slaves, without regard to circumstances, is a sin, the renunciation of which should be made a condition of membership in the church of Christ?

It is impossible to answer this question in the affirmative, without contradicting some of the plainest declarations of the word of God. That slavery existed in the days of Christ and his Apostles is an admitted fact. That they did not denounce the relation itself as sinful, as inconsistent with Christianity; that slaveholders were admitted to membership in the churches organized by the Apostles; that whilst they were required to treat their slaves with kindness, and as rational, accountable, immortal beings, and if Christians, as brethren in the Lord, they were not commanded to emancipate them; that slaves were required to be "obedient to their masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, with singleness of heart as unto Christ," are facts which meet the eye of every reader of the New Testament. This Assembly cannot, therefore, denounce the holding of slaves as necessarily a heinous and scandalous sin, calculated to bring upon the Church the curse of God, without charging the Apostles of Christ with conniving at such sin, introducing into the Church such sinners, and thus bringing upon them the curse of the Almighty.

In so saying, however, the Assembly are not to be understood as denying that there is evil connected with slavery. Much less do they approve those defective and oppressive laws by which, in some of the States, it is regulated. Nor would they by any means countenance the traffic in slaves for the sake of gain; the separation of husbands and wives, parents and children, for the sake of "filthy lucre" or for the convenience of the master; or cruel treatment of slaves in any respect. Every Christian and philanthropist certainly should seek by all peaceable and lawful means the repeal of unjust and oppressive laws, and the amendment of such as are defective, so as to protect the slaves from cruel treatment by wicked men, and secure to them the right to receive religious instruction.

Nor is this Assembly to be understood as countenancing the idea that masters may regard their servants as mere property, and not as human beings, rational, accountable, immortal. The Scriptures prescribe not only the duties of servants, but of masters also, warning the latter to discharge those duties, "knowing that their master is in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with him."

The Assembly intend simply to say, that since Christ and his inspired Apostles did not make the holding of slaves a bar to communion, we, as a court of Christ, have no authority to do so; since they did not attempt to remove it from the Church by legislation, we have no authority to legislate on the subject. We feel constrained, further, to say, that however desirable it may be to ameliorate the condition of the slaves in the Southern and Western States, or to remove slavery from our country, these objects we are fully persuaded can never be secured by ecclesiastical legislation. Much less can they be attained by those indiscriminate denunciations against slaveholders, without regard to their character or circumstances, which have to so great an extent, characterized the movements of modern abolitionists, which, so far from removing the evils complained of, tend only to perpetuate and aggravate them.

The Apostles of Christ sought to ameliorate the condition of slaves, not by denouncing and excommunicating their masters, but by teaching both masters and slaves the glorious doctrines of the gospel, and enjoining upon each the discharge of their relative duties. Thus only can the church of Christ, as such, now improve the condition of the slaves in our country.

As to the extent of the evils involved in slavery and the best methods of removing them, various opinions prevail, and neither the Scriptures nor our constitution authorize this body to prescribe any particular course to be pursued by the churches under our care. The Assembly cannot but rejoice, however, to learn that the ministers and churches in the slave-holding States are awaking to a deeper sense of their obligation to extend to the slave population generally the means of grace, and many slave-holders not professedly religious favour this object. We earnestly exhort them to abound more and more in this good work. We would exhort every believing master to remember that his Master is also in Heaven, and in view of all the circumstances in which he is placed, to act in the spirit of the golden rule: "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even the same to them."

In view of the above stated principles and facts—

Resolved, 1st. That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States was originally organized, and has since continued the bond of union in the Church upon the conceded principle that the existence of domestic slavery, under the circumstances in which it is found in the southern portion of the country is no bar to Christian communion.

2d. That the petitions that ask the Assembly to make the holding of slaves in itself a matter of discipline, do virtually require this judicatory to dissolve itself, and abandon the organization under which, by the Divine blessing, it has so long prospered. The tendency is evidently to separate the northern from the southern portion of the Church; a result which every good citizen must deplore as tending to the dissolution of the union of our beloved country, and which every enlightened Christian will oppose as bringing about a ruinous and unnecessary schism between brethren who maintain a common faith.

The yeas and nays being ordered were recorded as follows, viz.

Yeas—Ministers; Maltbie, D. M. Smith, Aitken, Lord, Reeve, Harkness, Frame, R. McDougall, Goldsmith, Kirtland, Imbrie, R. Davidson, Perkins, Curran, Junkin, Tully, Olmstead, Corss, Jones, Stead, Belville, Boggs, Harrison, Morris, Moody, Gibson, Williamson, McClung, Donaldson, McClain, McGill, T. P. Gordon, Kerr, J. T. Elders—Miller, Gaston, Barton, Hibben, Williams.—13.

If disqualified for pastoral duties by failure in health, to place opposite the name of such, infirm health, and in all other cases, simply, W. C. i. e. without charge.

The Committee to whom was referred Overture No. 13, being a request of certain members of the Presbyteries of Furrukhabad and Allahabad, in Northern India, to give leave to vary from the Form of Government in certain particulars, reported, recommending the following minute, which, being amended, was adopted, viz.

Whereas, the Presbyteries and Synods in the different fields of Foreign Missionary labour, formed by the Missionaries under the care and in connexion with this General Assembly, from the immature and forming state of the churches, must of necessity be subject to some deviations from the letter of the Form of Government which was primarily designed for the churches in these United States, therefore

Resolved, That the Presbyteries in India must be left to their own discretion in the premises; and that, when they shall have organized a Synod, they adhere, as nearly as practicable in their circumstances, to our book, and report to this body all deviations which necessity may have compelled them to make.

Overture No. 10, on the re-annexation of Charleston Union Presbytery, was taken up, and the following minute was adopted, viz. Inasmuch as the subject brought to the notice of this house by memorial from the Charleston Union Presbytery, is undergoing investigation by several Presbyteries within the limits of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia, therefore,

Resolved, That all consideration of this subject by this Assembly be indefinitely postponed.

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted, viz.:

1. Resolved, That the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions be approved, and referred to the Executive Committee, for publication and distribution among the churches, as extensively as may be found desirable.

2. Resolved, That the interests of our Mission in Northern India, imperiously demand, that the Press at Lodiana, recently destroyed by fire, be reestablished with as little delay as possible;—we therefore earnestly request the friends of our cause, who have ability, to aid in repairing this loss without delay.

3. Resolved, That having watched with deep interest, the operations of the Board of Foreign Missions in Papal Europe, through the agency of the Evangelical Societies of Geneva and France, we recognize with gratitude, the good providence of God, in opening a door so safe and effectual, through which we can operate on that important and interesting field; and we trust that the churches will place at the disposal of the Board a much larger sum, to be employed in this department during the coming year.

4. Resolved, That the General Assembly still recognizes her obligation to labour and pray for the conversion of God's ancient and covenant people, the Jews; and while we deem it necessary, for the interests of the missions now existing, to guard against diverting any portion of the funds at present received, still, we believe the Church possesses ample means, to enable the Board at once, to send a Mission to the Jews; without, in the least, stinting the Missions already established.

5. Resolved, That the facts and statements contained in this report, furnish abundant ground for encouragement and devout gratitude to the great Head of the Church, who, notwithstanding all our remissness, and manifold unworthiness, has condescended to grant us some measure of success; we also perceive in these tokens of divine favour, and in the new and almost boundless fields opening before us, all bright with promise, a reason for greatly increased liberality and prayer in relation to this enterprise.

6. Resolved, That the Church has abundant means to sustain all her Missions, either established or projected; and even to extend her operations far beyond any thing we have yet attempted. All that is necessary, is that our members should all realize their obligations to this cause, and come forward with one heart and one mind, to its support.

7. Resolved, That we have heard with the deepest mortification and regret, of the delinquency of more than half our churches during the past year; and we would here express our solemn conviction, that the time has now come, when no congregation, and scarcely any member, can refrain from giving something systematically to this object, without incurring fearful guilt.

8. Resolved, That we regard it of the utmost importance to this cause, that the Periodicals of the Board be more generally circulated among our church members; the General Assembly would therefore enjoin it upon all her Ministers and Elders to see to it, that as far as possible, the Missionary Chronicle be introduced into every family in our connexion.

9. Resolved, That inasmuch as Paul may plant, and Apollos water, but God only can give the increase, therefore we recommend to all our congregations to cherish a deeper sense of dependence upon the Divine Spirit; and that they give themselves more and more to prayer, that the blessing of God may crown with success all our plans, and all our efforts. Especially do we hope that this cause will be remembered with abiding and increasing interest at the Monthly Concert.

The Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they had granted leave to Messrs. Nevius and Grier.

The Committee on the Report of the Board of Publication, presented a report, which was read and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the annual report of the Board of Publication, respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions by the Assembly.

1. Resolved, That the annual report of the Board of Publication be approved, and that it be printed and circulated in the usual way.

2. Resolved, That in the opinion of the Assembly the affairs of the Board have been managed with great prudence and fidelity, and the increase during the past year in the sale and circulation of their volumes, is a gratifying proof of the growing interest of the Church and the public in the enterprise and the efficiency of the Board and its officers. The Assembly are of opinion, that the increase of piety in the churches, the maintenance of sound doctrine, and the future progress and influence of our beloved Zion, are intimately connected with the prosperity of the work committed to the Board of Publication. The Assembly recognize the good hand of God in the organization and continued success of an enterprise well adapted to counteract the prevailing evils of the time, to perpetuate the memory and the faith of the Reformers, and to oppose a bulwark against errors which come in like a flood; and they cordially commend the Board and the institution committed to their charge, to the confidence, the patronage, and the prayers of the Church.

3. Resolved, That the Assembly approve of the rigid adherence of the Board to the terms of sale which were originally adopted, and to which their present unembarrassed and prosperous condition is, under the Divine Providence, mainly attributable, and while in view of the wants of the West, and the representation of several Presbyteries of the importance of depositories at different points, the Assembly would earnestly recommend, as former Assemblies have done, the establishment of depositories by Synods, by raising the requisite funds to purchase the books required; yet they by no means consider it advisable to hazard the solvency, and perhaps the existence of the Board of Publication, by advising or directing the forming of depositories at their own risk and expense, at the various points where they are demanded. The success of this great enterprise ought not to be put in jeopardy in its infancy by an extension of its operations beyond its means, or by suffering its capital to lie idle in depositories, or to be risked by doubtful credits. With prudent management now, the time may come when the means of the Board will justify an extension of its operations, either in the manner suggested or in some other way; but for the present the Assembly are clear in the opinion that the risk of establishing depositories should not be imposed upon the Board. This is not the only—perhaps not the most speedy or effectual—way of supplying the demand for books. Persons have been found in different parts of the country willing to purchase the volumes of the Board at the very low prices at which they are offered, and distribute them as colporteurs for the profits arising from the sales, and the Assembly believe the system may be immediately and successfully adopted in almost every part of the United States. They recommend this method of circulating the books as worthy of particular attention. The Assembly believe that it will not be difficult to find individuals within the bounds of all the Synods who may be induced to engage in this enterprise, and who would receive a sufficient compensation from the profits of a re-sale of the volumes of the Board, while availing themselves of an opportunity of great usefulness.

4. Resolved, That it appearing from the Report of the Board of Publication that they have not received sufficient encouragement to authorize the printing of the Minutes of the General Assembly, from its first meeting, in 1789, agreeably to the recommendations of the Assembly of 1843, it is requested by this Assembly that the Board prepare and publish, as soon as practicable, a full digest of all the important decisions of this judicatory from its origin to the present time, with a copious and carefully arranged index, to take the place of the imperfect digest now in use.

5. Resolved, That the Board of Publication, agreeably to their request, are hereby authorized to apply, whenever they may think proper, for an "An Act of Incorporation," conferring such corporate powers to receive and hold property by devise or deed as they may deem necessary in the circumstances, and as the Legislature may be disposed to grant, provided always, that such act of incorporation, so to be obtained, shall be so framed as to recognize the immediate responsibility of the Board to the General Assembly, and shall in no manner change or vary their connexion with this body. All of which is respectfully submitted, &c.

The Committee submitted a list of nominations for vacancies in the Board of Directors; and the election was made the order of the day for half past three o'clock this afternoon.

The Committee on Mileage presented a report, which was read and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The Committee on Mileage report that there has been paid to the Treasurer, on account of the Commissioners' Fund, the sum of $121.82; that there have been 9,555 miles travelled by the Commissioners who claim mileage in coming to the present Assembly; which at one cent, two eight-tenths mills per mile, will make $121.82; and therefore recommend that the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to draw an order on their Treasurer for this amount; and that they be directed to pay the same to the several persons named in their report, in the proportion therein stated.

The unfinished business was resumed.

Pending the discussion, the Assembly adjourned.

1. Resolved, That the said reports be approved by the General Assembly, and be returned to the Board for publication: and that the Board be requested to furnish the Stated Clerk of the Assembly with an abstract of the reports for publication in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. Resolved, That this Assembly hereby expresses its high gratification and its sincere gratitude, at the growing favour of the cause of Domestic Missions with some portion of our churches, as manifested by their increased contributions to it during the past year; and it would earnestly recommend the cause to a still more enlarged liberality, as one fundamentally associated with the welfare of our church and country, and the best interests of immortal souls.

3. Resolved, That the Assembly approve the action of the Board in relation to Church Extension, and continue the management of this important enterprise with the Board of Missions on the plan adopted by the last General Assembly.

4. Resolved, That the General Assembly, confirmed by the Report of the Committee on Church Extension in its views of the great importance of this means of building up our Zion, and regretting to learn the very small contributions of our churches in aid of this cause, do hereby most earnestly commend it to their increased support, and recommend to the Synods and Presbyteries to take such action on this subject as will secure its presentation to all the churches under their care.

In relation to the memorials which were put into the hands of the Committee, requesting a removal of the place of meeting of the Board, with a view to its greater efficiency, the Committee report the following paper, viz.:

The very great extent of the field of operation of the Board, extending from the New England States to the extreme boundary of civilization in the West, and from the northern lakes to Florida, embracing every variety of habits, feelings and interests, and an equal diversity in the nature of the feeble churches and destitutions to be supplied, renders it next to impossible for any body of men located at any given point within the territory, however wise and energetic they may be, to manage to the best advantage in all the cases that arise. The present is also a great crisis in the affairs of the Protestant churches of our land, owing to the rapid increase of Popery and other heresies, many of which are entirely local in their character, and require to be promptly met by suitable men. The valley of the Mississippi has especially been selected as the great field in which Popery has declared her design to fight the battle for empire in this republic. With these considerations in view, together with the fact that the churches are by no means awake to the dangers which environ them, and the necessity of not suffering themselves to be outdone by the other Protestant denominations, while the General Assembly deem it altogether inexpedient to change the location of the Board, they adopt the following plan for giving increased activity and efficiency to its operations:

1. That a Committee be appointed by the Board with similar powers to that already located at Philadelphia, to hold its meetings at Louisville, Kentucky, and to report monthly to the Board.

2. That a Secretary and General Agent be appointed by the Board, to labour in connexion with the above Western Committee, with a treasurer, and other necessary officers.

3. That the supervision of the Western and South-western fields, the boundaries of which are to be designated by the Board, be committed to the above Committee, so far as procuring and locating missionaries and obtaining funds are concerned. But neither the Eastern nor Western Committee shall locate a missionary, for whose support they have not in their respective treasuries the necessary means, without the consent of the Board.

4. That the Board at its monthly meetings shall, upon the reports of these committees, make such transfers of funds as shall be found most expedient for furthering the best interests of the work, and shall assign the particular fields in which the agents shall labour."

The report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Education, was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning.

1. Resolved, That the Assembly appreciate, with great satisfaction, the fidelity with which the arduous, delicate, and peculiarly embarrassing duties of this Board have been discharged.

2. Resolved, That we renew our earnest and solemn urgency on the Presbyteries, to be careful and cautious in their choice of beneficiaries; and that they be enjoined to require not only clear evidences of piety and prudence, but also of talents of a high order.

3. Resolved, That all teachers who have beneficiaries of the Board under their care, whether in Academies, Colleges, or Theological Seminaries, be urged to watch the progress of these students with the utmost vigilance; and to report promptly and faithfully, every instance in which a student falls below a high standard, in any of the varied qualifications now specified, in the form of report to this Board.

4. Resolved, That to suffer a candidate under the care of this Board to slight his solemn pledge, by entering the ministry without "a thorough course of study preparatory," or "a three years course of theological study," be regarded by the Assembly as injurious to the cause of education, ensnaring to the conscience of beneficiaries, dangerous to the honour and best interests of Zion, and to be excused only under circumstances of extraordinary necessity.

5. Resolved, That in proportion as the Assembly do thus guard and watch the operations of this Board, they commend it to the increasing confidence of the churches, as prospered of God, vital to every other interest and enterprise we cherish, and deserving a far more munificent support, by prayers and contributions, than it has ever yet received.

6. Resolved, That the report be approved, and returned to the officers of the Board for publication."

The second order of the day was taken up, viz, the complaint and memorial of Archibald McQueen against the Presbytery of Fayetteville; and on motion, the Rev. Mr. Goldsmith was appointed to manage the case for Mr. McQueen in his absence, and agreeably to his request.

The Moderator having reminded the members that they were about to sit in a judicial capacity, the papers in the case were read in due order, and the original parties were fully heard.

After which the following resolution was on motion, adopted.

Resolved, That the prayer of the memorialist be granted, so far as that this General Assembly recommend to the Presbytery of Fayetteville, to re-consider their decision in the case of the Rev. Archibald McQueen; and, if in their judgment it should appear conducive to the peace of the Church and the promotion of religion in the region around them, to restore Mr. McQueen to the communion of the Church and to the exercise of the functions of the gospel ministry, on the ground that in his case, the ends of discipline are attained, by the operation of the sentence under which Mr. McQueen has been lying for a period of three years.

The Committee on Overture No. 24, on uniting the Seminaries of Allegheny Town and New Albany, presented a report, which, on motion was laid on the table.

The report of the Committee on Finance was taken up and being amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"The papers referred to the Committee on Finance by the General Assembly at its present session are the following: the report of the Treasurer of the Trustees showing the amount of receipts and expenditures for the year ending May 1, 1845; a tabular statement of investments, with a balance sheet from the Ledger of the Treasurer of the General Assembly; a paper showing the several items making the cash balance in the hands of the Treasurer, and a resolution of the Board of Trustees in relation to the books of the Treasurer.

Upon these documents the Committee respectfully report that the Treasurer's account has been regularly audited and shows a balance in his hands of $484.75 up to the first day of May 1845, which account is herewith returned and marked (A).

The paper marked (B) is a tabular statement of the investments made by the Trustees showing the par value of these stocks, the last year's estimate of the value of each investment, and their respective values on the 8th of May, inst. The par value of these stocks is $124,695; their estimated value at the present time about $78,000. There appears from the papers submitted to this Committee to have been a transfer of about $4000 of bonds to the United States stock, though there is no account of the transaction except in the tabular statement which is made. The Committee here would ask the serious attention of the Assembly to a few facts in regard to these investments of their property.

In 1841, the Committee to which the Treasurer's accounts were referred in their report called upon the Assembly to consider, "how far or how long sound discretion will authorize us to invest our funds, contributed for permanent purposes, in securities which are fluctuating and uncertain," and they proposed the adoption of the following resolution, which was adopted: "Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee, the funds in the hands of the Treasurer are at present invested in securities for the most part of very questionable character, and the Trustees are hereby directed to invest their funds in bond and mortgage on real estate as soon as that can be done with advantage and safety." As this was not a positive order the stocks were not sold, and in 1842 the Trustees reported an estimated loss in the aggregate of $90,000 by their depreciation in value. In view of this vast reduction the Assembly the next year suffered the matter to rest. In 1843 the reputed gain by the rise of stocks was about $17,000. In 1844 the estimated gain was $15,000, making the whole value of the stocks in the hands of the Trustees about $78,000, and leaving still an aggregate loss upon the whole of about $78,000. By the report just received it appears that the advance upon these stocks is only about $400; in the report of 1843, the estimated gain was $17,000, in 1844, 15,000, in 1845 less than $400.

The paper marked (C) is a balance sheet from the Ledger of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, and the paper marked (D) shows the several items making the cash balance in his hands; and the Committee recommend that these papers (A. B. C. and D.) be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

In connexion with these papers, the Committee have also received a resolution of the Board of Trustees, stating that, in consequence of the inconvenience and risk, it is not expedient to send the Treasurer's books to the Assembly this year. The Committee regret this, as they have no means from the papers before them of ascertaining the revenue of the Assembly from its funded property.

The Committee recommend the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Assembly, that the Board of Trustees should take immediate measures for the sale of all the Bank, Insurance Company and Turnpike stocks in their hands, and the investment of the proceeds in bond and mortgage on real estate, or in United States Government stocks; leaving it still discretionary with the Trustees to act in this matter.

2. Resolved, That it be required of the Treasurer, each year, to make a full report of the income received during the last fiscal year from each of the stocks owned by the Assembly.

A. T. Chester, Micah Baldwin,
C. K. Imbrie, J. Bullock.
R. McInnis,

And then the Assembly adjourned.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence, reported a letter to the General Assembly of the Church of Ireland, which, as also the letter from the said Assembly to which it is an answer, was read. On motion, the Answer was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Agreeably to the recommendation of the same Committee, the letter from the General Association of New Hampshire was read, and on motion, it was Resolved, That our delegate to that body be required to reciprocate its sentiments of Christian affection, and to deliver to them a copy of our Minutes for this year, calling their attention particularly to the action of the Assembly at this time on the subject of Slavery.

A letter from the delegate of the German Reformed Church was also read, and on motion, it was Resolved, That our delegate to that body be required to deliver to them a copy of our Minutes for this year, and to reciprocate the sentiments of Christian and fraternal regard which the letter contains.

On motion, Overture No. 4, was taken up, being a request from the Presbytery of Elizabethtown, to rescind the resolution requiring the examination of all ministers coming from one Presbytery to another. On motion, the Overture was laid on the table.

The Committee appointed to draw up a minute expressive of the views of the Assembly, presented a report, which was read and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"The Committee appointed to prepare a minute expressive of the views of this Assembly, in returning a negative to Overture No. 6, beg leave to report.

The question presented to this Assembly by Overture from the Presbytery of Ohio, "Is Baptism in the Church of Rome valid?" is one of a very grave character, and of deep practical importance. The answer to it must involve principles vital to the peace, the purity, and the stability of the church of God.

After a full discussion carried through several days, this Assembly has decided, by a nearly unanimous vote, that baptism so administered, is not valid.

Because, since baptism is an ordinance established by Christ in his Church, (Form. Gov. chap. vii. Matt. xxviii. 19, 20,) and is to be administered only by a minister of Christ, duly called and ordained to be a steward of the mysteries of God, (Directory, chap. vii. sec. 1.) it follows that no rite administered by one who is not himself a duly ordained minister of the true Church of God visible, can be regarded as an ordinance of Christ, whatever be the name by which it is called, whatever the form employed in its administration. The so-called priests of the Romish communion are not ministers of Christ, for they are commissioned as agents of the papal hierarchy, which is not a church of Christ, but the Man of Sin, apostate from the truth, the enemy of righteousness and of God. She has long lain under the curse of God, who has called his people to come out from her, that they be not partakers of her plagues.

It is the unanimous opinion of all the Reformed churches, that the whole papal body, though once a branch of the visible church, has long since become utterly corrupt, and hopelessly apostate. It was a conviction of this which led to the Reformation, and the complete separation of the reformed body from the papal communion. Luther and his coadjutors, being duly ordained presbyters at the time when they left the Romish communion, which then, though fearfully corrupt, was the only visible church in the countries of their abode, were fully authorized by the word of God, to ordain successors in the ministry, and so to extend and perpetuate the Reformed churches as true churches of Christ: while the contumacious adherence of Rome to her corruptions, as shown in the decisions of the Council of Trent, (which she adopts as authoritative,) cuts her off from the visible Church of Christ, as heretical and unsound. This was the opinion of the Reformers, and it is the doctrine of the Reformed churches to this day. In entire accordance to this is the decision of the General Assembly of our Church, passed in 1835, (See Minutes of General Assembly, vol. 8. p. 33.) declaring the Church of Rome to be an apostate body.

The decision by the Assembly of 1835, renders the return of a negative to the inquiry proposed by the Presbytery of Ohio, indispensable on the ground of consistency; unless we be prepared to admit, in direct contradiction to the standards of the Presbyterian Church, that baptism is not an ordinance established by Christ in his Church exclusively, and that it may be administered by an agent of the Man of Sin, an emissary of the prince of darkness; that it may be administered in sport or in blasphemy, and yet be valid as though administered by a duly commissioned steward of the mysteries of God.

Nor can it be urged that the papal hierarchy is improving in her character, and gradually approximating to the scriptural standard. She claims to be infallible: her dogmas she promulgates as the doctrines of heaven; and she pronounces her heaviest anathema against any and every man who questions her authority, and refuses to bow to her decisions. She cannot recede from the ground she has assumed. She has adopted as her own, the decisions of the Council of Trent, which degrade the word of God; which claim equal authority for the Apocrypha as for the New Testament; and which declare the sense held and taught by holy mother church, on the authority of tradition and of the Fathers, to be the true and only sense of Scripture. All who deny this position, or who question her authority, she denounces with the bitterest curses.

She thus perverts the truth of God; she rejects the doctrine of justification by faith; she substitutes human merit for the righteousness of Christ; and self-inflicted punishment for gospel repentance: she proclaims her so-called baptism, to be regeneration, and the reception of the consecrated wafer in the eucharist, to be the receiving of Christ himself, the source and fountain of grace, and with him all the grace he can impart. Is this the truth? Is reliance on this system, true religion? Can, then, the papal body be a Church?

The Church, (i. e. the church visible,) as defined in our standards, is the whole body of those persons, together with their children, who make profession of the holy religion of Christ, and of submission to his laws. (Form Gov. chap. ii. sec. 2.) As certainly then, as the dogmas and practices of papal Rome are not the holy religion of Christ, must it be conceded, that the papal body is not a Church of Christ at all; and if not, then her agents, be they styled priests, bishops, archbishops, cardinals or pope, are not ministers of Christ in any sense; for they have no connexion with his true visible Church; and not being true ministers of Christ, they have no power to administer Christian ordinances, and the rite they call baptism, is not, in any sense, to be regarded as valid Christian Baptism.

Further, by the perverted meaning they affix, and the superstitious rites they have superadded to the ceremonies they perform under the name of baptism and the eucharist, the symbolical nature and true design of both the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's supper are lost sight of and utterly destroyed,—so that, could we by any possibility assign to her the name of a church, she would still be a church without the two grand ordinances of the gospel: she neither administers Christian baptism, nor celebrates the supper of our Lord.

Moreover, since, by the 11th canon of the Council of Trent, she declares the efficacy of her ordinances to depend upon the intention of the administrator, no man can know with certainty that her form of administration in any ordinance is not a mere mockery: no consistent papist can be certain that he has been duly baptized, or that he has received the veritable eucharist: he cannot know, that the priest who officiates at his altar is a true priest, nor that there is actually any one true priest, or any one prelate rightly consecrated in the whole papal communion. The papal hierarchy has by her own solemn act shrouded all her doings in uncertainty, and enveloped all her rites in hopeless obscurity. Even on this ground alone, the validity of her baptism might safely be denied.

Nor is the fact that instances now and then occur of apparent piety in the members of her communion, and of intelligence, zeal, and conscientiousness in some of her priests, any ground of objection against the position here taken by this Assembly. The virtues of individuals do not purify the body of which they are members. We are to judge of the character of a body claiming to be a church of Christ,—not by the opinions or practices of its individual members, but by its standards and its allowed practices. Bound as he is by the authority of his church,—and that on pain of her heaviest malediction,—to understand the Scriptures only in the sense in which his church understands and explains them, a consistent papist cannot receive or hold the true religion, or the doctrines of grace. If he does, he must either renounce the papacy, or hypocritically conceal his true sentiments, or he must prepare to brave the thunders of her wrath. True religion and an intelligent adherence to papal Rome are utterly incompatible and impossible. The Church and the papacy are the repelling poles of the moral system.

Difficulties may possibly arise in individual cases. It may not be easy at all times to say whether an applicant for admission into the Church of Christ has, or has not been baptized: whether he has been christened by a popish pastor or not. In all such doubtful cases the session of a church must act according to the light before them. But it is safer and more conducive to peace and edification, to embrace a well established principle for our guidance, and act upon it firmly in the fear of God, leaving all consequences with him, than to suffer ourselves, without any fixed principles, to be at the mercy of circumstances.

While some other churches may hesitate to carry out fully the principles of the Reformation, in wholly repudiating popish baptism, as well as the popish mass, we, as Presbyterians, feel bound to act on the principle laid down by our Assembly so long ago as 1790, (see Digest, pp. 94, 95,) that, so long as a body is by us recognized as a true church, are her ordinances to be deemed valid, and no longer.

In 1835 the Assembly declared the papacy to be apostate from Christ, and no true church. As we do not recognize her as a portion of the visible Church of Christ, we cannot, consistently, view her priesthood as other than usurpers of the sacred functions of the ministry, her ordinances as unscriptural, and her baptism as totally invalid."

Dr. Lord, on behalf of himself and others, asked leave to introduce a dissent with reasons, from the foregoing report, which was admitted to record, and is as follows, viz.

The undersigned would respectfully dissent from the decision of the General Assembly in reply to Overture No. 6, for the following reasons:

1. Because while we are not prepared to affirm that baptism in the Church of Rome is always valid, yet we think the general decision that there is and can be no Christian baptism in the Papal communion, involves a denial that any part of the Church Catholic remains in the apostacy, and is based upon wrong views of the nature of the ordinance itself.

2. Because in deciding this question we understand the General Assembly to assume that if the church of Rome is no church of Christ, then baptism in her communion is necessarily void; an inference which none of the Reformed churches has ever made from the same premises; an inference which denies the validity of the baptism of the Reformers, who testified against Rome as Anti-Christ; an inference which is likely to bring us into collision with sister churches with whom we are in correspondence; and because we cannot see that such an inference necessarily follows from the premises, and in our opinion the argument has been prejudiced by presenting the question as one in relation to the corruptions of Rome, in which we are all agreed.

3. Because we think the question of the re-baptism of converts from Romanism should be decided by the church Sessions called upon to receive them, in view of the circumstances of each case as it may arise; and that a positive and definitive rule is one that cannot be wisely established, is not called for by any actual exigency, is not now demanded judicially in the usual course of decisions, upon appeal and complaint, or upon revision, when each case is fully considered upon its merits; but as a mere abstract question which, in our view, it would be wise to leave where the Reformed Churches have hitherto left it.

Overture No. 17, was taken up, being certain petitions and a memorial on the subject of a quorum of Presbytery; and, on motion, it was laid on the table.

Overture No. 18, on the power of Synods to order meetings of Presbyteries, was laid on the table.

Overture No. 20, on the appointment of a day of fasting, was read, and was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"In view of the evident decline of vital piety in many of our churches, and with a hope of obtaining help from the Lord, therefore Resolved, That all our ministers be requested to preach on the same day upon this subject, and inquire into the causes which prevent the outpouring of the Spirit upon us; and that the Thursday before the fourth Sabbath in June next be that day, and that it be observed as a day of fasting and prayer."

Overture No. 21. Being a report from the Committee of Bills and Overtures on a memorial from George R. Riddle, Esq., in relation to the Theological Seminary at Allegheny Town. On motion it was,

Resolved, That the subject matter of the memorial of George H. Riddle, Esq. be referred to the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, who are hereby authorized and empowered to settle and compromise with all persons who may have a subsisting legal and just claim to a right of common of pasture in the land on which the said Seminary is erected, and to pay such person or persons such sums of money as may be agreed, awarded, or adjudged, as compensation for the release of such rights.

Overture No. 9. An overture from the Presbytery of Newton on the demission of the ministerial office, was, on motion, laid on the table.

Overture No. 16. A letter from the Welsh Calvinistic Methodists in the United States, proposing a correspondence with this Assembly, and accompanied with their Constitution and Confession of Faith, was read; whereupon it was, on motion, Resolved, That this Assembly assent to the proposal, and that the Stated Clerk be directed to inform the body of the vote of this Assembly, and request them to commence a correspondence with us either by letter or the appointment of delegates to this body, as they may prefer.

On motion it was

Resolved, That, though the two Assemblies preceding this have solemnly affirmed the perpetuity and sanctity of the Lord's day, yet this Assembly is pained with the report by the narratives from some of the Presbyteries that this holy day is yet desecrated in a lamentable manner; therefore we do hereby enjoin it upon all our church judicatories and officers in their several capacities to take measures to urge on the Sabbath reform until this sacred institution is observed according to the fourth command of the Decalogue.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the Assembly direct the Trustees under the Charter of the Western Theological Seminary, now accepted, to meet in the Seminary on the third Thursday of June next, at two o'clock, P. M. to be organized in pursuance of the provisions of said charter.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly be presented to the citizens of Cincinnati for their hospitality to the members during these sessions.

Resolved, That the calling of the Roll be dispensed with.

Resolved, That special thanks be offered to Almighty God for the harmony and brotherly love which have characterized the entire sessions of this General Assembly.

The Minutes were read and approved.

The Assembly having finished their business, it was

Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved, and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the Tenth Presbyterian Church in the City of Philadelphia, on the third Thursday of May, A. D. 1846, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Accordingly, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly with singing, prayer, and the Apostolic benediction.

ROBERT DAVIDSON, Permanent Clerk.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

IN THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AND ADDRESSED TO THE CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE.

Beloved Brethren—In communicating to you a brief history of the labours and trials, the successes and discouragements of the Church during the past year, the General Assembly desire to express their devout gratitude to God for the continued kindness which he has been pleased to manifest to them and to you. While some of our ministers and members have been called to enter upon their eternal rest, and others who survive have been chastened by various temporal calamities, our losses by death have been only as the gathering in of the ripened harvest by the Lord of the vineyard, and our other adversities as the pruning of the vines by the watchful husbandman, in order that they may bring forth more fruit.

The reports sent up to this Assembly from the Presbyteries under our care, speak, almost without exception, of the existence of peace and harmony among Christian brethren, of their attachment to the doctrines and order of the Presbyterian Church, of their regular attendance upon the ministrations of the gospel, and, in general, of their correct Christian deportment.

These reports also tell us of the commendable efforts made by our churches to support pastors, erect houses of worship, sustain Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes, and to instruct our youth and children in the doctrines and duties of our holy religion.

They tell us of missionary labours performed by pastors and missionaries, of the selection of new stations for preaching, and of the organization of new churches.

They speak of the family altar upon which most of our members offer their morning and evening sacrifice, of the social prayer-meeting where our brethren are accustomed to meet, and make intercession to God for their perishing fellow-men, and of the general observance of the monthly concert, to pray for the conversion of the world.

They report to us the collection of funds to endow Theological Seminaries, to educate young men for the gospel ministry, to sustain missionaries, both domestic and foreign, and to circulate the Holy Scriptures, and other evangelical books in our own and other countries.

They speak of the exertions made to promote the cause of temperance, and the proper observance of the Lord's-day; and, above all, they communicate to us the pleasing fact, that in numerous instances our churches have been blessed with precious revivals of religion.

Upon all these topics we should delight to dwell, but the limits usually assigned to our annual narrative forbid such a course. We must, therefore, select a few of the more prominent and important particulars, and leave the others with the general remark that, for the most part, they have suffered no decline since the meeting of the last General Assembly, but, on the contrary, are gradually increasing and extending their influence to sanctify and enlarge the church.

Thirty-five churches are particularly reported as having enjoyed seasons of copious refreshing from the presence of the Lord; some of the Presbyteries report several churches without specifying the number, and some speak of a revival of God's work in most of their congregations, from all which we believe we may state the number of churches which have enjoyed these gracious outpourings of the Holy Spirit, to be not less than sixty; and about as many more are reported to have been blessed with an unusual degree of divine influence.

One of the churches mentioned by name in these reports, belongs to the Presbytery of Hudson, one to the Presbytery of New York, one to the Presbytery of Long Island, one to the Presbytery of New Brunswick, three to the Presbytery of Raritan, one to the Presbytery of Ohio, one to the Presbytery of Hocking, one to the Presbytery of Salem, one to the Presbytery of Indianapolis, one to the Presbytery of Fort Wayne, two to the Presbytery of Sangamon, three to the Presbytery of St. Louis, one to the Presbytery of Missouri, three to the Presbytery of Transylvania, two to the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, three to the Presbytery of West Hanover, three to the Presbytery of Orange, two to the Presbytery of South Carolina, two to the Presbytery of Hopewell, and two to the Presbytery of New Orleans. The Presbyteries of Steuben, Northumberland, Clarion, and Richland, report pleasing indications of the Divine presence in some of their congregations, and precious revivals are spoken of as having occurred in several churches belonging to the Presbyteries of Flint River and Mississippi, while the Presbyteries of Charleston and South Alabama communicate the interesting fact that most of their churches have been blessed with these merciful visitations from the Most High.

In some of these congregations there have been added 20, in others 30, in others 50, and in others 60 and 70 to the communion of the church. The instrumentality employed in producing these glorious results is described to have been the faithful preaching of the gospel, and the fervent prayers of God's people, unaccompanied by those artificial means which have been resorted to by so many in years past, the tendency of which is to produce spurious conversions, and an impulsive, unstable religion.

For these tokens of the Divine favour we would render our fervent praise and thanksgiving to the glorious and Divine Head of the Church, who has thereby given his sanction to the truth of our doctrines, and the validity of our ministry; has increased the sum of human happiness by delivering many souls from the bondage of sin, and has added auxiliaries to that sacramental host of his elect people whom he is employing for the conquest of an apostate and perishing world.

But while the Assembly express their gratitude to God for these blessings, they are obliged to add that the reports of very many of our Presbyteries contain complaints of coldness and declension. What are 60 or 100, or even 150 churches which have been more or less revived, compared with the 2000 in our communion, from which the refreshing rain of God's Spirit has been in a great measure withheld? There is surely no less reason for humiliation than for gratitude, and we earnestly enjoin upon all our churches to seek with the utmost diligence a removal of those causes which may be found to have contributed to this state of declension, and to pray for the enjoyment of those precious seasons of spiritual prosperity with which some of our churches have been favoured during the past year.

The chief cause of this declension is in very many of the reports ascribed to the great political excitement which pervaded the country previous to the late Presidential election—in view of which fact the Assembly feel themselves called upon to say that while it is the right and duty of the members of our churches to participate with their fellow-citizens in the election of our civil rulers, it is manifestly their duty as Christians to exercise their elective franchise in such a manner as not to interrupt their communion with God, or diminish their zeal for the salvation of souls. We would exhort you to avoid the influence of that political excitement which absorbs, for the time being, every other interest, and to use your exertions to effect a change in this respect in public sentiment, that those who are not members of our churches, but who attend upon the preaching of our ministers, may not be placed hereafter in such a position, for many months together, (as they have been sometimes hitherto,) that they have scarcely listened with attention, much less with self-application, to the truths of the gospel.

Above all we most earnestly exhort you to humble yourselves before God, to exercise unfeigned repentance for past backslidings of heart and deficiencies in duty, and to offer up fervent and importunate prayer that the Lord would restore the captivity of Zion, and cause Jacob to rejoice and Israel to be glad.

The cause of temperance is reported by some of our Presbyteries to be on the advance. The Presbytery of New Lisbon inform us that there is not a single house within their bounds which is licensed to vend ardent spirits. But many of our Presbyteries speak of this cause as being at a stand, and some as retrograding, —the reason of which is alleged to be in several of the reports, the false ground assumed and the denunciatory language employed by some temperance lecturers; on account of which many intelligent and influential men have ceased to attend their meetings, and the cause has thereby lost its hold in a considerable degree upon the public mind. This Assembly would affectionately urge upon all the members of our churches and upon our fellow citizens who may peruse our Narrative, the duty of promoting this important object both by their example and influence. We do not ask you to countenance, much less to adopt those false principles, or to give your sanction to that spirit of denunciation which have marred, in some instances, the temperance reformation,—but we do urge upon you, standing on ground that is tenable and exhibiting a spirit that is kind and Christian, to engage with firmness and perseverance in the patriotic and benevolent work of arresting the desolating tide of intemperance, which still continues to ruin its thousands.

The sanctification of the Sabbath is spoken of by some of our Presbyteries as having received an unusual degree of public attention. Sermons and addresses have been delivered, conventions held, and measures adopted to secure the more general observance of this holy day; and much good has resulted from these efforts. Other Presbyteries speak of the desecration of the Lord's day by many within their bounds and deplore it, as being a serious obstacle to the success of their ministry. Upon this subject, with reference to which the word of God is so plain, it would seem to be superfluous for us to expatiate. Christian brethren, let your conduct in this respect be unblamable before your families and before the world;— and let the united exertions of ministers and people be directed to that most desirable object of securing the proper observance of the Lord's day throughout this whole nation.

The reports of some of our Presbyteries afford pleasing proofs of enlarged liberality in promoting different objects of Christian benevolence. Large sums have been collected in different sections of the church to establish schools and colleges and to endow Theological Seminaries.

The different Boards of our church have been sustained with as much liberality as in any former year; and in various other forms the resources of many of our churches have been employed to advance the best interests of society. But while we feel gratified with this spirit of Christian liberality, so far as it has been manifested, we regret to add that from a schedule presented to this Assembly, by one of our Boards, it appears that a very large number of our churches have contributed nothing, during the past year, for objects of benevolence beyond their own bounds. To such churches we would say affectionately, that we regard it as the sacred duty of every church, however small, and of every individual member, however poor, with few exceptions, to contribute some amount according as God has prospered him, to extend the boundaries of Christ's kingdom. Especially it is the duty of each member in our communion to sustain the several Boards which have been organized by the General Assembly. These Boards, whose annual reports have just been presented to this body, and for whose success in their respective spheres of labour we desire to feel grateful to God, are the most powerful instruments, next to the preaching of the gospel, which are possessed by the church for blessing mankind with the influence and hopes of evangelical religion. They are, indeed, the most efficient agencies which we possess to enable us to preach the gospel to perishing men—and we think it is not too much for us to expect that all our churches will contribute annually to these Boards. If this should be done according to the ability of each church, our facilities for doing good would be greatly increased, and the borders of our beloved Zion proportionably extended.

The subject of church extension, has excited more than ordinary interest during the past year, both as it relates to the efforts of the Church to enlarge her boundaries, and to the erection of houses of worship. Several new stations for preaching have been selected in the Presbyteries of New York, Philadelphia, and New Orleans; new churches have been organized in different Presbyteries in the West, and in two of them, viz. Salem and Missouri, fourteen houses of worship are in the progress of erection; in the former six, and in the latter eight. The ministerial force of several Presbyteries has also been considerably increased, particularly those of Baltimore, Louisville and St. Louis. The report of the last named Presbytery states that special attention has been paid to the German population and other foreigners, and with very encouraging results. We commend this subject to the serious consideration of our ministers and churches, who should endeavour by every practicable means to bring these emigrants to the knowledge of Christ as soon as they arrive upon our shores.

In the work of Church Extension much is to be done, both with regard to the increase of labourers and the providing of them with convenient places to preach. A great want of ministerial aid is particularly mentioned in the reports of the Presbyteries of Clinton, Cherokee and Louisiana; and the Presbytery of Potosi inform us that their number of ministers, which was small before, has been diminished during the past year by the loss of two of their most valuable members by death. Great inconvenience is likewise experienced in several of the Presbyteries of the West for the want of houses of worship, and many of the churches are too feeble to incur the whole expense of their erection. A good opportunity is here afforded to those who are just entering the gospel ministry, or to those who are seeking new fields of labour, to go to the aid of those brethren who, from the smallness of their number, are able only to occupy a spot here and there, while the whole country between is left uncultivated and desolate. An opportunity is also furnished for the older and more highly favoured portions of the Church to contribute of their substance to enable their brethren, who now worship God in school-houses and barns, or under the open canopy of heaven, to erect comfortable churches in which they may offer their devotions without feeling the peltings of the angry storm.

Many of our southern and south-western Presbyteries report the gratifying fact, that special attention has been paid to the religious instruction of the coloured population. Several pages of the report from the Presbytery of Fayetteville are occupied in giving details of their mode of instruction. To incorporate these in our present narrative would extend it to an unusual length. In the report of the Presbytery of Georgia, where the movement appears to have originated, a succinct account is given both of labours and results. They write to us as follows: "Rev. C. C. Jones reported, in behalf of the mission to the blacks in Liberty county, of whom there are 4000 in a region of 20 miles square. It is designed that the gospel should be brought within walking distance of them all. The congregations are large and often overflowing. One place of worship, which was enlarged a few years ago, is often insufficient to contain the attendants. After a trial of eleven years, it is found that there is no diminution of interest among this class of hearers. They are settled down as regular attendants on public worship. It is ascertained that judicious instruction by white men, will secure this object; and that any religious fluctuations among the coloured people are governed by the same causes as among the whites. There are several Sabbath schools, attended by some five or six hundred scholars. The blacks of Liberty county, after some twelve years of Sabbath school instruction, are a different population from what they used to be. Among the church members there is an advance in Christian character. Their offences are becoming less frequent and less enormous. There is a general elevation of character, attended with an increased fidelity to their masters.

"For three or four years from the commencement of this missionary work, there were but few conversions. There followed about five years of revival, in which several hundreds were admitted to church privileges. For the last year there has been a dearth of spiritual influences. At present, there is one station, where there are fifteen inquirers; at this station a day has been appointed for fasting and prayer.

"The reports of the Association in Liberty county have done good elsewhere, and the work has made advances in all parts of the southern country. Other denominations are entering into it with zeal and energy. And it is beginning to be owned as the grand duty of southern Christians and ministers."

The General Assembly would affectionately urge upon all their ministers and churches in those Presbyteries, who have not yet engaged in this work, to imitate the laudable example of their brethren, and to persevere in their labour of love, until throughout our whole southern and south-western country, these children of Ham, who have been hitherto for the most part "afar off," "as strangers and foreigners," "may be brought nigh by the blood of Christ," and "become fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God."

The Assembly have received an interesting report from the Presbytery of Lodiana in the East Indies; the whole of which we should be glad to spread before you; but for an account of this mission, and of all our other missions among the heathen, we must refer you to the Missionary Chronicle, a periodical published by our Boards of Foreign and Domestic Missions, and which we greatly desire to see in the hands of every member of our church.

We shall do injustice to our own feelings, if we pass over unnoticed the state of religion in the bounds of those churches with whom we are in correspondence. Either by delegates present at the meeting of this Assembly, or by letters and reports received by us, we are informed that in the Congregational, the Reformed Dutch, and the German Reformed churches, God is giving them continued marks of his favour, in most or all of those ways by which we are accustomed to judge of the progress and prosperity of the Church. The same may be said of those ecclesiastical bodies with whom we are in correspondence, beyond the wide ocean. God appears to be bringing into closer union the different branches of the evangelical Protestant Church, and to be giving greater power and efficacy to their testimony for the truth.

As might be expected, we have to meet with many discouragements, and to encounter much opposition. But the united voice of the whole evangelical church proclaiming to the world the same truth of God, will, through the power of his grace, become omnipotent. That divine energy, which rendered efficacious the preaching of the apostles and martyrs, which subdued or restrained the hostility of their enemies, and brought whole provinces, states and empires under the benignant sway of the risen Redeemer, is now present with his church, and will, in due time, bring to the obedience of faith the many millions who are now enslaved by sin, and cause the incense of prayer and praise to ascend up to God from every people, and kindred, and tongue, under the whole heaven.

Brethren in the Lord, let us pray and labour for the consummation of this glorious era.

Signed by order of the General Assembly.

TO THE REV. HENRY GREY, MODERATOR OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE FREE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

Rev. and Dear Sir,—We have read with great pleasure the letter of October 28th, 1844, which you have sent us, according to "the instructions of the Commission of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland."

No church on earth affords us more gratification and honour in correspondence than yours. The vindication of truth and liberty, with which the Providence of God has signalized the Church of Scotland, through all her history, has shone with brightest lustre in your present day, when oppression under the forms of regulated law, the most formidable of all outward evils to the church, has been rolled off with an energy, which no difficulty could abate, and no sacrifice appal. We rejoice to know that your cause is gathering strength; that your hearts are gladdened with sympathy and help, from so many other parts of Protestant Christendom; and that the principles for which you have long and devotedly contended, are so universally approved by the churches of the Reformation.

Your messengers to us were most welcome. Their enlightened minds, warm affections, and Christian candour, won our hearts, and excited stronger desires than ever, to form with you a fellowship intimate and lasting.

Your sensibility for the little kindness we have been able to express, turns to riches our poor liberality; and awakens within us animated desires to follow our contributions with unceasing prayer that "God may supply all your wants," "establish, strengthen, settle you," "make the feeble among you as David, and the house of David, as the angel of the Lord."

We have great reason to mourn for the apathy which prevails over a wide extent of our Zion: for the love of the present evil world, which characterizes our nation, and pervades the Church with a withering influence; for our continued reluctance "to receive the correction" which God recently sent in national embarrassment to rebuke our national sins, and which he is still pursuing, in desolating calamities by flood and conflagration.

Yet we have manifold occasion to praise the Lord for his goodness and tender mercies. He is greatly enlarging our border, increasing the number of ministers and people, crowning with prosperity our missions at home and abroad, and giving eminent success to the dissemination of evangelical literature over this wide country, by the presses we influence or entirely control.

We are also cheered with the hope that the divisions which once occasioned distress among us, and "great searchings of heart," will soon be forgotten entirely, by the return to us of all that hold, in sincerity and truth, the doctrines and order of our Confession; a reunion which the vast and increasing prevalence of popery, fanaticism, and pernicious delusions of every kind, so rampant in this land, will hasten to consolidate.

And while we thus rejoice in the prospect of union and strength, produced at home by the power of vindicated truth, we fondly hope that our union with you will not be disturbed, either by international warfare, or discordant views and feelings between the churches themselves, arising from widely different circumstances of country and domestic institutions.

We are gratified, exceedingly, with the spirit of candour and inquiry which pervades your document on the subject of slavery, and leads us to hope that we shall soon be able to acquaint our noble brethren in Scotland, with the true position of the Presbyterian Church in this country.

That responsibility for the evils of American slavery is shared by our brethren of Great Britain to some extent—that you are restrained from peremptory decision on the question of our particular duty, by ignorance of facts and circumstances, and that you appreciate so much the difficulties of our position, as to admit that a different course from that of the British churches may be justified among us for the present; are generous sentiments and enlightened Christian moderation, which prove to us that the Free Church of Scotland, is as much ennobled by elevation above the prejudices that surround her, as by a memorable Exodus from the oppression that enthralled her. Could we allay excitement, and restrain impatience, and correct misunderstanding among our brethren of the British churches, we have no doubt, that our course in this most delicate and difficult subject would be so entirely approved, that no intimation of ultimate severance on this account would any more alloy the happiness which your correspondence affords.

Our modes of thinking in this country have not been moulded by any thing like a civil establishment of religion; by any such connexion of Church and State, as induces a reciprocal legislation between the civil and ecclesiastical commonwealth. The State never interferes with us as a Church, either to cherish our doctrines, or to control our privileges; and she expects in return that we meddle not with her civil and domestic regulations; one of which is slavery. Every man in the Church here has political right and power. As a citizen he has the utmost opportunity for contending against every social, civil, moral wrong, which the institutions of his country may ordain or allow. But, as a member of the Church, he belongs to a kingdom, that is not of this world, that has always been prospered in apostolic and reforming times, by separation in counsel from "the powers that be," and which, while it fails not to witness against the sins of the land, would rather, as in your own illustrious example, resign even the guardianship of these powers than permit civil and spiritual enactments, either to clash or mingle together.

We learn our duty, dear brethren, not only from the peculiar circumstances of Providence in our political institutions, but from the great charter of the Church itself. Here we have a religion of great principles, which it behoves us to promulgate, with all possible energy, industry, and faithfulness—principles, which in the end, will overthrow every form of oppression that is incompatible with the inalienable rights of man. Beyond the assertion of these principles, and their vigorous application to all the existing relations of society around us, we think it not only inexpedient, but unwarranted and presumptuous, for any ecclesiastical court to pronounce either dogma or precept. We dare not contract the bond of union among brethren more than Christ has contracted it, nor exclude from the pale of our communion, members that merely hold a relation which Christ and his Apostles did not declare, among the many specific declarations against prevailing sins, to be incompatible with Christian fellowship. Slavery existed then as well as now, with at least equal atrocity; and in our opposition to its evils we desire to treat it as they did, rather than reduce their broad precepts to that minute kind of legislation, which engenders fanaticism, distracts and enfeebles the church, and defeats the eventual triumph of the very principles it proposes to enforce.

Enclosed, we send you a copy of a preamble and resolutions on this subject, which we have just adopted, with great unanimity and deliberate firmness; from which you will learn our determination to abide by the example of Christ and his Apostles—to address ourselves, in the spirit of the gospel, more than ever to the work of meliorating evils we cannot redress—improving a relation we cannot dissolve, and disseminating among masters and slaves that pure gospel, whose heavenly influence never fails, when free from the extravagance of man, to purify every institution which God approves, and demolish every system that is opposed to the honour of his name and the best interests of the human race.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND.

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN,—We rejoice to learn, from your letter, dated July 9th, 1844, that our last letter has afforded you so much satisfaction, and that you so kindly solicit a continued correspondence. There is much in our Church and nation which responds, with peculiar delight, to any communication from brethren in Ireland. The patriotic courage, that has triumphed repeatedly in maintaining our honour and freedom, is greatly indebted to Irish ardor: and the rapid prosperity of our Church, in the days of our fathers, was owing, no little, to the warm and resolute spirit which came from your country, to the privations and pains of a wilderness. And in a mighty conflict yet before us, in which our civil freedom, as well as truth and righteousness, will be the stake for which we must contend, we shall be glad to realize much of the spirited energy that characterizes Protestant Ireland. We mean the conflict with Popery.

The Man of Sin is determined to supersede us, in the vast and beautiful inheritance of this our Western Valley. He is sending from Europe myriads of men, darkened and enslaved to him; millions of money, managed by his wily priests to the best account, which the wisdom of this world can dictate, in order to possess the land, and control the destinies of this great Republic. Gorgeous temples are built; political power is courted; innumerable bands of virginity are formed; abounding and insidious efforts to seduce the children of Protestants into their schools are detected; and even the effrontery of demanding from the state, an expulsion of the Bible from common schools, and a part of the public revenue to support their own education, has come on us to alarm and arouse our apathy. At this meeting of the Assembly, held in Cincinnati, one of the strong centres of popery in the United States, we have determined, with almost perfect unanimity, that "Baptism in the Church of Rome is not valid;" thus cutting loose the last embarrassment, which entangled our arms in the conflict with Antichrist; and taking, what we think a most important position, in the advancing stage of this great controversy. Doubtless, your sympathies with our opposition to Romanism is greatly enlivened, by the recent munificence of your Government to the College of Maynooth. It is but another development of essential ambition in this "Mystery," to blend herself with the arm of secular power, "to reign over kings," "to corrupt the earth with her fornication," and "deceive all nations with her sorceries."

We hear of your Missionary efforts at home and abroad, with peculiar gratification. We hail them as brightly auspicious; and testify to you, that we have found in this expansion of Christian character—the spirit of missions—preeminently, "a bond of perfectness," tending more to purify, unite, and energize our Zion, than all other expedients, which the best wisdom and zeal among us could ever devise.

Our Missions during the last year, both foreign and domestic, have been greatly prospered of God; and while we lament our unutterable short-coming in this fundamental duty of the Christian Church, we fervently hope that our progress is onward; that we shall be honoured more and more, through each succeeding year, to build up the waste places at home, and publish salvation abroad, until peace within our Church shall be "like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles as a flowing stream." We have felt indignant, Dear Brethren, at the strict interpretation of British law, which disparages the functions of a Presbyterian ministry, in solemnizing marriage, when one of the parties belongs "to the Episcopal Establishment;" and we hope your firm and Christian resistance of this indignity, will be crowned with complete success.

We have reason to praise the Lord, for exemption from all similar injustice on the part of government and law in this country: and although we have many sins to mourn for, as a nation, and cannot boast of immunity from error that mingles with the best institutions of men, we are called, in view of the many embarrassments which still betide religious liberty in Europe, to appreciate most highly the civil constitution by which our privileges are regulated and secured.

You refer us to what you call "an evil which has long disfigured our civil polity;" and submit to our consideration your resolution on the subject of slavery. We receive your communication on this subject, with all the frankness and kindness, which have dictated your whole letter. There is no disposition on our part, either to repel the counsel of brethren abroad, or evade responsibility and discussion, on this momentous question, at home.

We enclose to you a preamble and resolutions, which we have just adopted, with a nearly unanimous vote; in which you will see, that we are not contented to slumber amidst the evils connected with slavery, nor to shun investigation of our duty to the bottom.

You are strangers, we presume, in a great measure, to the principal cause of the aggravations which attend domestic slavery in this country, such as the severity of particular laws enacted in the slave-holding states, and the extreme sensibility with which many of our fellow citizens there refuse to receive advice, and entertain discussion. That cause is, mainly, the vehemence and fanatical intolerance, with which many, in what are called the free states, urge on the South, instant abolition, without regard to circumstances, consequences, or even warrant from the word of God itself. We hope that a better mind, and one in accordance with the paper we send you, will soon pervade every part of our otherwise harmonious country; and suffer that "knowledge of Christianity" you mention, to penetrate all relations existing among us, and exert its native, free, transforming power, over every institution, which either necessity may suffer, or wisdom perpetuate among men. In conclusion, we do again, most earnestly express our desire for peace, between your nation and ours. More and more deeply, must we deplore threatening symptoms of national strife, as we receive assurance of glowing affection from you; and we trust and pray, that the God of nations, through Jesus Christ our blessed mediator, may quell the angry passions of the people, direct the confused diplomacy of rulers, and combine all nations, and especially of Protestant Christendom in one mighty alliance, for advancing the interests of that kingdom which shall never be moved; the greatness of which, under the whole heaven, will be given to the saints of the Most High.

"May the Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who hath loved us, and given us everlasting consolation, and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work."

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of 1845:

Dear Sir,—The undersigned having been appointed by the General Assembly of 1844, a delegate to the General Association of New Hampshire, begs leave to report, that he attended to the duties of his appointment. The Association met at Concord, on the 4th Tuesday of August last, which day, by a standing rule of the body, is fixed as the time of its stated annual meeting. The undersigned was received with great cordiality, and was rejoiced to witness the attachment to sound theology and Calvinistic sentiments as exhibited in the sermons and debates to which he listened while attending upon its sessions. It appeared by the reports from the different Associations of the State, that no special outpouring of the Spirit of God had been enjoyed in any of their congregations during the previous year. Pastors and churches generally, were reported to be living in peace, and to be striving together for the faith of the gospel. The General Association of New Hampshire, in the spirit of reciprocal confidence and Christian courtesy, resolved to send a delegate to the next General Assembly.

Henry Perkins.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE CONFERENCE OF MAINE.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The undersigned appointed by the last General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, to attend as their commissioner, the General Conference of the State of Maine, respectfully reports that he attended the meeting of the General Conference at Bath, Maine. He was received with much Christian courtesy and kindness, and was invited to present before General Conference a view of the state and prospects of the Church he represented.

The Conference expressed their gratification in the prosperity and harmony of our Church, and evinced a feeling of affectionate interest in our welfare.

Nothing of more than ordinary interest occurred during the meeting; and your commissioner parted from the brethren after the conference had adjourned, with the happy assurance that the interchange of Christian kindness and courtesy, and the reciprocation of good wishes and prayers for and with each other, is one means of binding together in love, and provoking to good works, the different sections and denominations of the one Church of the Redeemer. A commissioner was appointed by the General Conference to attend the next meeting of the General Assembly. All which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE EVANGELICAL CONSOCIATION OF RHODE ISLAND.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

Dear Sir,—The undersigned, appointed by the General Assembly, a delegate to the Evangelical Consociation of Congregational Churches in Rhode Island, begs leave to report, that he attended the annual meeting of the said Consociation, at Providence, in June last; that he was received with Christian kindness and cordiality, and found the churches of that body in a healthy and growing state; and though few in number, yet exercising a salutary influence in promoting the cause of the Redeemer. Delegates were appointed at that time to meet the General Assembly in 1845. All which is respectfully submitted.

A. Henry Dumont.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATIONS OF CONNECTICUT AND MASSACHUSETTS.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

Dear Sir,—I was appointed one of the delegates to the Associations of Connecticut and Massachusetts. Circumstances were such that I could only attend the meetings of the former body. I beg you to say, in my behalf, that I was received with great cordiality; and a warm desire was expressed that these interchanges of friendly feeling might continue. Delegates were appointed to the Assembly at Cincinnati, but I regret to learn that they are providentially prevented from attending. I hope this will not hinder our sending a representation again to those bodies. May the Lord be with you, and make the present meeting very useful to the churches. Yours, &c. D. Magie.

Elizabethtown, May 12, 1845.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF VERMONT.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

Dear Sir,—The undersigned deems it his duty to report to the General Assembly that he did not attend the General Convention of Vermont last year, agreeably to the Assembly's appointment. The reasons were, that the Convention had changed the time of their meeting from September to June preceding, of which change the undersigned had no knowledge until he saw from the papers that the meeting was past.

He ventures to hope that this lack of service, being unavoidable in the circumstances, will not be deemed censurable by the General Assembly, nor prevent the appointment of a delegate for the next year.

It is hardly necessary to add, perhaps, that he could not, with propriety, be reappointed. With much respect, Reuben Smith.

Waterford, N. Y., May 13th, 1845.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GERMAN REFORMED SYNOD.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

Rev. and Dear Sir,—The last General Assembly having honoured me with a commission to attend, as their delegate, the Synod of the German Reformed Church, I beg leave to report that the service assigned me was duly performed. The Synod met at Allentown, Pennsylvania, on the 17th of October last. Your delegate was received with the utmost cordiality. A variety of important business was transacted. It is gratifying to be able to state, that there appears to be a decided and growing revival of evangelical piety in this ancient and venerable Church. Its College and Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, are in a thriving condition; and increasing attention is given to Missions, Sabbath Schools, and other benevolent institutions. An arrangement has been made within the last two years, by which some of the great destitutions of the Church will be supplied by Ministers from the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church. By the terms of this arrangement, a Triennial Convention of delegates from these denominations, is to be held, with a view of conferring upon their common welfare, and "suggesting such measures as shall, with the Divine blessing, best promote the interests of religion, both at home and abroad." The first convention under this article, was held in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on the 2d of August last. Your delegate was authorized by the General Assembly, (see Minutes of last year, p. 377) to take a seat in that convention, provided he should be "so invited." The resolution here referred to was, it is believed, adopted by the Assembly without any distinct information as to the design of the convention. The undersigned has reason to believe that it was not from any want of courtesy or kind feeling towards the Assembly, that your delegate was not invited to attend the convention, but because the convention, being itself a delegated body with specific powers, had no authority to enlarge its numbers; and also, because the business confided to them was of a nature neither to require nor to admit of the counsel or co-operation of a third party.

The compact between these churches is important, not only as respects the benefits they may derive from it, but also as an indication of that desire for a closer union which is beginning to prevail among evangelical Christians of various denominations, both in this country and Great Britain.

I have only to add, that the next meeting of the Synod of the German Reformed Church, will be held in York, Pennsylvania, on the third Thursday of October next.

I remain, Rev. and Dear Sir, very respectfully, yours, &c.

HENRY A. BOARDMAN.

The Professors reported to the Board, that they have received through the year, for the use of indigent students, viz: One box of clothing from the Ladies of the First Presbyterian Church in the city of New York; one small package of do., from some Ladies of the First Church, Baltimore; a large bundle of clothing from the Female Charitable of Morris Plain, New Jersey; a large box of clothing &c., from the Dorcas Society of the Duane Street Church, New York, together with a small sum of money to assist in making up the cloth sent; and a bundle of garments from some Ladies of Dr. Potts' Church, New York.

TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, AT PRINCETON, N. J.

The Trustees report to the General Assembly, that the following is the report of their Treasurer, James S. Green Esq., as audited by the Rev. Nicholas Murray, D. D., and the Rev. Eli F. Cooley, a committee of the Board appointed for the purpose.

"The committee on the Treasurer's accounts, report that they have examined the same, and find a balance in his hands on general account of $1873.86¼. This balance is made up of the following balances:

On Education Fund, - - - - -	$980.11½
" Expense Fund, - - - - - -	822.69
" Contingent Fund, - - - - -	71.06
	$1873.86¼

The Treasurer has received since the last settlement in May 1844, on the Education Fund, consisting of Scholarships, Students' Fund, Princeton Bank Stock, &c., the sum of $2405.92; which added to the balance then due this fund, amounts to the sum of $3484.63½; and he has paid out, on the orders of the Professors, to the students, since that period, the sum of $2504.52, leaving in his hands the above balance due this fund of $980.11½.

The Treasurer has received since the last settlement, in May 1844, on the Expense Fund, the sum of $1116.00, which added to the balance then due this fund, amounts to the sum of $1851.82; and he has paid out on the warrants of the President, for servants' wages, oil, fuel, library, Treasurer's and Secretary's salaries, and other contingent expenses, the sum of $1029.13; leaving in his hands the above balance of $822.69.

The Treasurer has received since the last settlement, in May 1844, on the Contingent Fund, from Mr. Newkirk, Mr. Van Renssalaer, the churches, monies invested, and donations, the sum of $9343.02; which added to the sum due this fund on last settlement, amounts to $9671.06; and he has paid for Professors' salaries $9600, leaving in his hands the above balance of $71.06.

It appears from the Treasurer's statement, that the salaries of the Professors have been paid in full to 1st May instant; but to do this, the Treasurer has been mainly indebted to the Rev. C. Van Rensselaer, who has advanced out of monies collected by him for the Seminary, the sum of $2173, for which the Treasurer has given a receipt, stating that the said sum is to be returned out of any monies to be received for Professors' salaries."

The Board would report that Miss Catharine Naglee, of Philadelphia, deceased, has left in her will a legacy to the Theological Seminary, leaving it to the Institution to determine the object to which it should be applied. Of this legacy, $372.13 has been received, which the Board have directed their Treasurer to invest for the Permanent Fund for the payment of Professors' salaries.

They would also report that Mr. John Galbraith of Steubenville, Ohio, deceased, left in his will a legacy to the Seminary, amounting to $433.88, "for the benefit and use of educating young men for the gospel ministry." This sum has been received; and the Board have directed the Treasurer to invest the same, and that the income be appropriated to the support of indigent students in the Seminary.

The Board would further report, that at their present meeting, they were informed that in September last, a Convention was held in the Seminary, in consequence of an invitation from the committee appointed by the last Assembly, to take measures to supply the deficiency in the funds. This Convention was composed of alumni of the Institution, and members of this Board, and of the Board of Directors. At this meeting it was resolved to make an effort fully to endow the Seminary. For this purpose, they appointed the Rev. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer a general agent; who accepted the appointment, and generously declined accepting any remuneration for his services, or travelling expenses. The Board have not received as yet any official communication from Mr. Van Rensselaer; but they are gratified to learn that he has been diligently and successfully employed in his agency. A report will probably be made by Mr. Van Rensselaer at the next meeting of the Board, which will enable them to give a full account of this important agency to the next Assembly.

Several valuable additions have been made to the library through the year by purchase; and a few donations have been received.

The donations are as follows:

Wilkes' Exploring Expedition, five volumes, with an Atlas, from James Lenox, Esq., of New York. Essays on Christian Union, by several eminent divines, sent from Scotland. One set of the volumes of the American Tract Society, two-thirds of the price of which was a donation from the agent of the Seminary. A continuation of the volumes of the Presbyterian Board of Publication. Eleven pamphlets in defence of Episcopacy, from H. C. C. And Broadhead's Report to the Legislature of New York, from Rev. Dr. J. N. Campbell. Mr. Lenox has also presented two large engravings, one a Lithograph of the death of Calvin, and the other a fine print representing the Protestants presenting their Protest at the Diet of Spires.

Signed by order of the Board,

JOHN McDOWELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE FOR RAISING FUNDS, FOR 1844.

Report of the Committee to whom was Committed by the General Assembly of 1843, the subject of "Obtaining Funds" for the Boards of the Church.

The Committee have given much attention to the subject, deeming it of vital importance, and believing that it claims special attention at this time. Could they have met and conferred personally, they might have prepared a more full and satisfactory report; but confined to correspondence by letters, they have come to the conclusions and concur in the views now presented.

When the Church was made the "pillar and ground of the truth," a trust was committed to her, which she cannot neglect with impunity. It involves not only the preservation, but the use and the propagation of the truth for her own edification, and for the conversion of the world. This trust is to be executed by using appointed means; among which, the raising up, and sending forth, and sustaining of well qualified and faithful men, to preach the gospel, at home and abroad, is justly regarded as being prominent. And unless this is done there will be weakness and declension and death in the Church, for we cannot expect that God will give his blessing to those who neglect a duty so obvious, and so important. The world will not receive the gospel of salvation, for God has given the conversion of the world to the Church as her special work, in respect of instrumentality, and the perdition of unnumbered multitudes will come up in remembrance at the final judgment.

Under the influence of such solemn considerations, the Presbyterian Church, at an early period of her history, engaged in this work, first in a somewhat isolated and desultory manner, and afterwards in a more combined and systematic method. From a conviction of the duty and blessedness of being zealously and methodically engaged in the great work of converting the world, originated the Boards of the General Assembly, which have existed several years; and by their agency very much has been done, and plans and arrangements have been formed, and beginnings have been made for the accomplishment of yet more and greater good. These agencies—the Boards of the Church—deserve the most serious consideration of all the members of our communion, on account of their legitimate relation to our ecclesiastical organization, their fitness to do the work for which they have been appointed, the good effects which have already followed their operation, and the still more extended and strongly marked success which shall crown their efforts, when they shall be adequately sustained. Some among us may entertain favourable opinions of other organizations, or may desire some modification of arrangement or operation—not as an entire change, but as an improvement of the existing system; yet shall we for such reasons withhold our aid, or be lukewarm in the common cause? Will any who are truly with us in faith and order, under the influence of circumstantial objections, keep back their hands from substantial duty? We trust not.

It must be confessed, however, that much less has been done, in the time that is past, than ought to have been done by a Church possessing, as we do, a large amount of capital, in numbers, wealth, and talents, and blessed with a system of faith so scriptural, and an ecclesiastical organization so well adapted to usefulness, as combining both energy and freedom, and favoured in so high a degree with special grace. Instead of the number of missionaries, at home and abroad, now in commission, there ought to be twice or thrice as many; and the number of youth preparing for the ministry ought to be very much increased; and the Board of Publication needs greatly enlarged means of spreading throughout the whole Church those most valuable books which are constantly issuing from their press. Besides, there are needed, at this time, additional funds to sustain not less than fifty itinerating missionaries in the United States, and to assist annually fifty or sixty feeble churches in erecting houses of public worship.

Why has there been any failure in this work? The proximate cause of failure has been, and still is, the neglect, in a great degree, of the congregations in connexion with us to contribute the amount of money which is needed. This has been, at least, one great reason of failure; the people have not given in proportion to the blessing, both spiritual and secular, which they have received of the Lord; they have not given even according to their numbers. Want of faith, indeed, and of effectual fervent prayer, and of every grace, might be assigned as causes of this deficiency; but it is plain that all our operations are greatly contracted and delayed by want of funds.

It is not to be supposed, for a moment, that the Church is really unable to give the whole amount which that work demands, which is ours by the will of the Lord. Facts prove that the ability, perhaps even the willingness, the liberality of our people has never been fairly tested. Not one-half of our churches give, in any one year, such a contribution as is worthy of notice in the general account. And what is more painful still, about one-half of all that was contributed in 1843, as reported to the General Assembly, came from less than one hundred congregations; while others, as numerous and wealthy, perhaps, either withheld their help, or gave comparatively little.

And where lies the blame, if blame we must term it, of this state of things? Is it in the General Assembly, or the Boards, or their agents? We think not: all these have often and loudly called for help. The people may plead that they do not see the necessity of giving largely and constantly: they have given, when occasion has been presented, according to their views of duty, and of the wants of the Church, and their own necessities. Without intending to prefer any charge of criminal delinquency, we must express the conviction which we feel, that the omission of that effort which is needed is two-fold—the want of exertion on the part of pastors and ruling elders and deacons, and the absence of a systematic plan of operation in our congregations.

To change this state of things, reliance must be placed chiefly on the inferior judicatories—synods and presbyteries and sessions—and their members individually the pastors and elders. They must be fully informed of their duty and responsibility, and of the work to be done, and the necessary amount of means. The whole subject must be placed before them, and on their sense of duty and estimate of responsibility to the Church, and to her Head, the success of the whole system must rest. And to engage them to due effort, it is necessary that the synods and presbyteries make it a part of their business, at their regular meetings, to inquire, to instruct, and to report annually respecting this matter. This should be deemed equally important as the examining of records, and inquiring and reporting on the state of the churches in other respects. And until this is done—generally and faithfully done—it is in vain to allege that we have redeemed, or have attempted to redeem, the pledge by which we are engaged, as a Church, before God and a perishing world. That the several Boards may and must employ agents to some extent, according to the exigency of circumstances, is to be allowed and approved; but it is impossible that each Board should keep in the field as many agents as would be necessary in order to obtain the regular and full contributions of all, or even of one-half of the churches in every year. They could not find the men, nor would the Church willingly bear the necessary expense. On the inferior judicatories, we repeat it, the responsibility of failure or success must ultimately fall.

And there must be extended throughout the Church an efficient, systematic plan of giving—of giving regularly and liberally—for those purposes which are distinctively termed benevolent; and our people should be so instructed that it is "more blessed to give than to receive," as our Lord has said, that they shall be persuaded to be willing and punctual. Thus shall their munificence flow from principle; and in motive, and in amount, it will comport with the nature and extent of the object.

On these gounds it is recommended that an earnest appeal be made to all our congregations and their members, without delay, through their organized judicatories; and that all be invited to help, according to their ability, in doing the work of the Lord, as cheerful givers. For this purpose the following resolutions are submitted to the consideration of the General Assembly.

1. Resolved, That the regular and liberal contributions of all the members and friends of the Presbyterian Church are indispensably necessary to the full performance of her duty to her Lord, to herself, and to the world; as she is one portion of that visible church to which the glorious and blessed gospel is confided.

2. Resolved, That it is requisite for this purpose that, in every congregation without exception, such a plan of regular contribution shall be adopted, as will give to every one an opportunity of casting his gift into the treasury of the Lord's House, at quarterly or other stated periods.

3. Resolved, That it be recommended to each congregation to adopt one of the three following plans as may seem most expedient. A public collection on a stated day, and of this day and of the purpose for which the collection is made previous notice shall be given; or, 2, after previous notice, collectors appointed by the session shall make personal application to all the members for their contributions to a specified object; or a subscription shall be made specifying the time of payment quarterly or otherwise, for the whole year, and the purpose to which the payment shall be applied.

4. Resolved, That it is the duty and privilege of the session in each congregation to take charge of this business, and either execute, or direct and superintend the execution of the particular plan which may be adopted; provided, always, that if there is a Board of Deacons in the congregation, the specific execution of the plan should be regarded as their duty.

5. Resolved, That the Pastor and Elders in every congregation should regard it as their duty to diffuse full information on the whole subject; and particularly, that every minister should preach on the duty of contributing willingly and liberally for the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom, as often as occasion may require.

6. Resolved, That it be and hereby is enjoined on the Synods and Presbyteries to take effectual order on this subject; and particularly that each Synod require of its Presbyteries, and each Presbytery of its congregations, respectively, written reports of their diligence and success in performing their duty in this matter, once in every year: and further, that each Synod append to its annual report to the General Assembly a statement of the observance of this injunction.

7. Resolved, That the Boards of the General Assembly be required to instruct their agents, respectively, to observe a careful conformity to the plan of contribution adopted, if any has been adopted, in the congregations which they visit; or if any congregation has failed to observe the recommendation before made, then to give their best assistance for this purpose.

The committee further report that in their opinion it would not be expedient at this time to adopt the plan of united agency referred to them by the last Assembly. Whatever may be its merits, it has not obtained general approbation, especially of those on whom its execution must depend; and unless it should be harmoniously adopted, and willingly and zealously executed, it must of course, fail to accomplish the end which it proposes.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES HOGE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE FOR RAISING FUNDS, 1845.

To the Rev. the Moderator of the General Assembly of 1845.

Rev. and Dear Sir,—The General Assembly of 1843 appointed an able committee, of which the Rev. Dr. Hoge was chairman, on the subject of "collecting funds." That committee made a report to the Assembly of 1844. This report cost much correspondence and labour, and presents some very important views on the subject of missionary and kindred operations. The Assembly did not act definitively upon it, but referred it back to the same committee, substituting (at the request of Dr. Hoge to be excused from acting further,) the name of the undersigned as chairman of the committee. The report thus laid over has been extensively published, but, so far as known, has led to no discussion calculated to evoke the judgment of our churches on the subject of which it treats. The undersigned regrets that circumstances, over which he had no control, have hindered him from conferring with other members of the committee, in any way calculated to obtain additional light from them. This, however, he regrets the less because their matured views were imbodied in the report of last year, which is herewith returned to the General Assembly. But he has, during the year, taken much pains to learn so far as he could by reading and correspondence, the views of wise and good men, in and out of our own branch of the church, on the whole subject. The result has been an increased conviction,

1. That the duty of contributing, according to our ability, to the various benevolent objects, which may fairly claim the charities of the church, is so frequently inculcated in the Scriptures, and in such a variety of modes, that probably no one will deny it, and he will not, therefore, attempt to prove it. The passages quoted under subsequent heads will abundantly clear up any doubts on this point. As to the manner of giving, he does not find in the New Testament any general injunction laid upon all the churches, in that or any other age, to make weekly or other stated contributions to benevolent objects. But in 1st Cor. xvi. 1, 2, he does find an "order" to the Corinthian Church, which Paul says he had also "given to the churches of Galatia," to this effect, viz. "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God has prospered him, that there be no gathering when I come."

Upon this it may be observed, that nothing appears in the circumstances of those churches, which would make such a method of raising moneys for benevolent objects more obligatory upon them than upon other churches, and in other ages, where it was practicable.

2. In order to the churches discharging the obligations resting upon them in regard to benevolent objects, they ought to make stated contributions to them. By this is meant that the times or seasons of making collections for these purposes ought to be fixed, so as statedly to recur. Otherwise they will be very irregularly remembered, and to a very great extent neglected altogether. They should recur both statedly and frequently. Much is lost to the grace, as well as to the objects of benevolence in the church by unfrequent and irregular contributions.

On the other hand, where they are made frequently and statedly, the members of the churches will soon ascertain the objects, which call for their charity; will soon learn to feel in a greater degree their obligations in regard to them; and will gradually come to live more with reference to them. The principle, or, as Paul calls it, 2. Cor. viii. 7. the grace of benevolence, being thus more exercised, would more rapidly strengthen; the habit of giving would be more extensively formed; and the streams of bounty, though small, yet being more numerous and constant, would yield a fuller and more certain supply.

There can hardly be any insuperable obstacle in the way of making stated contributions in all our churches that are fully organized, and where religious worship is regularly maintained. It will devolve upon the Sessions or Boards of Deacons to see that the proper objects of benevolence be brought before the churches, and to determine the times at which this may best be done. As to weak and destitute churches, the end might, in most cases, be effected by proper diligence in the Presbyteries and agencies of the Church.

Nor does any good reason appear why, in living, as above suggested, with reference to these stated contributions, the Apostolic injunction, already quoted, (1 Cor. xvi. 1, 2.) may not be extensively practised in all the churches. It will be observed that the rule is for individuals to lay by in store, as God has prospered them, so that the sum thus laid up may be ready whenever the call shall be made for it. As already stated, the times of these calls are undetermined in the Scriptures, and they contain no rule universally binding on the churches or on individuals as to the mode of exercising this most excellent grace. But it is apparent that the rule under consideration, properly understood, might be extensively and advantageously followed. It would tend greatly to enlarge the hearts of God's people; and there are few who would not be surprised at the aggregate result of these small, but frequent bounties.

Whenever the regular and public call shall be made, the contributors might apportion their respective sums to such objects as they might themselves specify; or they might cast the whole into the treasury of the Lord, without such specifications, and leave the apportionment to the officers of the church.

It scarcely admits of a doubt, if our churches and members could be induced to act upon these principles, more would be given to benevolent objects than in any other way; while every Christian would have the opportunity given of making what contributions he pleased, and to the objects of his own choice.

3. It is believed that all agencies ought not to be abolished. Perhaps too many have already been dispensed with. Some wise men are of opinion, that, after some experience on the subject, a reaction is taking place in the minds of many of our most judicious brethren. It is not contended that agencies may not be too greatly multiplied, or otherwise abused, so as to be burdensome to the charities and injurious to the interests of the Church; but judiciously conducted, they are believed to be both scriptural and proper. Into the scriptural argument on this branch of the subject, it may be well to enter more at large, because it is too often overlooked, and because the consideration of it will strengthen the views already suggested.

From Gal. ii. 10, we learn that when Paul and Barnabas, after attending the Council at Jerusalem, (Acts xv.,) would revisit the churches which they had planted in their former missionary tour, they received from their Apostolic brethren an injunction that they "should remember the poor," i. e. the poor saints in Judea and Jerusalem, as we learn from Acts xi. 29, xxiv. 17; Rom. xv. 26, and 1 Cor. xvi. 3. Here, then, was an agency committed to Paul and Barnabas in connexion with their missionary work, to take up a "collecton for the saints" in all the churches, which Paul says (Gal. ii. 10) he "was forward to do." And it deserves to be noted, upon comparing Gal. ii. 10, and 1 Cor. xvi. 1–3, that it was in execution of this agency that the "order," above mentioned, was given to the churches of Galatia and Corinth, and probably, therefore, to the other churches also.

Carefully compare Rom. xv. 24–27; xvi. 1–2; 1 Cor. xvi. 1–6, 2 Cor. viii. and ix. and xi. 8, 9, and Philippians iv. 14–19, and we may learn—

I. Some of the objects of the pious charities of the primitive churches,—at least, of those in which Paul laboured. As,

1st. The poor saints in Judea and Jerusalem. Rom. xv. 26, compare Acts xi. 29. The distribution of the funds raised for this object was doubtless committed to the deacons, the occasion and design of whose institution is recorded in Acts vi. 1–6.

2. The support of the Apostles and other ministers as missionaries and agents,—for in the case of Paul and Barnabas, we have seen that they acted in both capacities. Thus Rom. xv. 24, Paul expects "to be brought on his way" to Spain by the Roman Church—1 Cor. xvi. 6; he expects the Corinthians "to bring him on his journey whithersoever he goes:" 2 Cor. xi. 8, 9, he states that he "robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do service" to the Corinthians: Philip. iv. 14–18; he acknowledges frequent contributions from the Philippians while labouring in Thessalonica, (other places out of Macedonia are implied, compare 2 Cor. viii. 9) and now finally in Rome.

3. The pious Phebe in her labours of love. Rom. xvi. 1, 2.—We learn

II. Something of the agencies employed in raising and collecting funds for those objects.

Paul, while engaged as a missionary, acted also as an agent, certainly for the first-mentioned cause, and in his letters was careful to forward it, and both the others. Rom. xvi. 1, 2, 1 Cor. xvi. 1, 2, 6; 2 Cor. viii. and ix; Philip. iv. 10.—

From 2 Cor. viii. 6, 16–24, it appears that Titus and "other brethren" were also appointed messengers of the churches, "to attend to the forwarding of the collection in the church at Corinth. It is altogether reasonable to suppose that they acted in the same capacity in the other churches also. Paul endorses their commission, and commends them to the cordial reception of the brethren in Corinth. He distinctly states, 2 Cor. ix. 3–5, that he had sent them "to make up beforehand their bounty, that the same might be ready." They certainly were not office-bearers in the Corinthian church, with whom, however, it ought to be observed, that church must have been supplied. Their agency, therefore, is scarcely more equivocal than that of Paul and Barnabas,—of which last we have no account in the Scriptures, except that it was certainly committed to him. We read, Acts xi. 29, that Paul and Barnabas were sent with the contributions of the church at Antioch, for the relief of the brethren in Judea; but this was prior to their appointment to the agency of which notice is here taken Gal. ii. 9, 10. From 1 Cor. xvi. 3, 4, it appears that the Apostle was ready to give every security that the churches could ask for the faithful application of their contributions.—We learn further,

III. The incentives which he urged to liberality in the churches, as

1. Carnal things were due for spiritual, Rom. xv. 27.
2. Example of other churches, 2 Cor. viii. 1–6.
3. Christ's great sacrifice for us, 2 Cor. viii. 9.
4. Every Christian should bear a part of the burden, 2 Cor. viii. 13–15.
5. The good report that was made of them, 2 Cor. ix. 1—5.
6. The grace of God abounding to the liberal, 2 Cor. ix. 6—8, &c. Philippians iv. 17—19.
7. The praise accruing to God, whose grace alone thus enlarges the heart, 2 Cor. ix. 11 to end.

It is hoped that the number of references made to the Scriptures will not deter any who may have the matter in charge from a careful examination of them. They might have been multiplied; and had space allowed, more of them might have been quoted at length. It is certain, that he who spares himself the pains of this comparison of scriptures on the subject, will lose by far the most valuable suggestions that can be made on this subject; and it is believed that no one can patiently make it, without coming to the conclusion, that in the primitive church there were other agencies employed for the raising of funds for benevolent objects, besides the regular office-bearers of the different churches. It is at least incumbent upon those who imperatively confine this business to the pastors and sessions, to adduce scriptural precept and example as explicit for their opinion.

The argument from the experience of the church is also thought to be valid in support of agencies. History proves that they have enlarged her contributions. It would be impossible to estimate the knowledge and zeal diffused amongst pastors and people by judicious agents, in the various departments of benevolence. In many sections they have been the means of establishing systematic plans of giving in the different churches. Where these can now dispense with agencies, it is owing in a good measure to the previous labours of agents; and were they even now entirely laid aside, who can doubt that many of the churches would gradually relapse into their former state? Not a few are still dead to all the ordinary calls of benevolence; and of many long would be the slumber, if our Boards and other institutions did not reach and arouse them through their agents. Our pastors even are far from being able as yet, if all ever will be, to dispense with these co-ordinate labourers. In some cases it may be said that pastors and sessions have probably been stimulated to do well by their very opposition to agencies. If our branch of the church should abandon them, other denominations will not; and it requires no deep insight to see that in that case the odds would be against us. Let it be repeated that agencies may be and have been abused; but judiciously conducted, it is proven that they are both scriptural and expedient.

IV. No man can carefully examine the reports of any extended portion of the American Church, without yielding to the painful conviction that covetousness, selfishness, indifference to the interests of Christ's kingdom, and kindred sins, do extensively prevail. The great hindering cause to all good works is the low state of piety. It might be instructive to some to see tables of all the contributions in our own communion for several years past. But statements of that kind have often been made, and perhaps to little purpose. Indeed, the annual sermons and reports sent out by our various institutions, seem to have exhausted all the powers of argument and appeal to the people for an enlargement of their liberality. Shall we then yield to sadness and despondency? Surely not. Let the Assembly and the lower judicatories bear a solemn testimony to scripture doctrine on this whole subject; let pastors be faithful and persevering, setting a good example; let the agents sent forth be chosen for their prudence, zeal, and ability; let each institution of the church carefully pursue its appropriate work, and then let us hope in God, who alone gives success, and we may yet see better days.

It is requested that this report, after having been read, may, together with the report by Dr. Hoge to the last Assembly, be referred to a committee, who may determine what matters contained in them merit the action of the Assembly.

All which is very respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM S. PLUMER, Chairman.

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Abstract of the Eighth Annual Report, 1845.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.—The Receipts, as acknowledged in the Treasurer's Accounts, in the year ending May 1, 1845, were $84,513 95, to which add the unexpended balance from last year of special contributions for the China Mission, $4,355 63, making the sum of $88,869 58—of which $3000 were received from the American Bible Society, and $1300 from the American Tract Society. From the above sum of $88,869 58 should be deducted $200 12, the balance against the Treasury in the current accounts of last year, and $5,996 62, the unexpended balance of Indian funds for a manual labour boarding-school among the Iowas, leaving the sum of $82,672 84 for the service of the year now reported. The expenditures of the same period have been $81,469 71—showing a balance in favour of the Treasury of $1203 13.

PUBLICATIONS.—The Missionary Chronicle is now published both in Newspaper and Pamphlet editions, and 6240 copies are circulated, of which nearly one-third are sent free of charge.* Of the Foreign Missionary, 14,200 copies are published. It is stated in the Report there are more than six hundred congregations, not including those that are "vacant," in which no copy of the Chronicle is taken, excepting the copy of the Minister.

AGENCIES.—The Rev. I. N. Candee has continued in the Western and South Western Agency, and the Rev. W. S. Rogers has spent six months as an agent in the western part of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. The Rev. W. H. Foote declined a re-appointment as Secretary and General Agent of the Central Board of Foreign Missions in October last.

NEW MISSIONARIES.—Nine ordained Ministers, three of them married, proceeded to various fields of labour during the last year, whose names and designation will appear in connexion with their missions respectively.

MISSION IN TEXAS.—Four Ministers were connected with the Board in Texas: the Rev. H. Wilson at Independence, and as an Evangelist in that part of the country; the Rev. W. C. Blair at Victoria; the Rev. I. J. Henderson at Galveston; and the Rev. J. W. Miller at Houston. Mr. Miller reached his field of labour in December last. Mr. Wilson declines a re-appointment, intending to restrict his labours to Independence, and two other places, and to take charge of a school, which is greatly needed in that region. At all these places the brethren have been faithfully employed in the Lord's work, and their labours have had manifest proofs of being attended with the Divine blessing. Texas, viewed as a missionary field, loses none of its interest in the progress of political events, and the door is widely open for an enlarged and more vigorous prosecution of the work of supporting the ministry of the gospel and founding Christian institutions.

Mission among the Creek Indians.—The Rev. Messrs. R. M. Loughridge and J. Limber are connected with this mission, Mr. Limber having reached the station in December last. Mr. Crawford, mentioned in the last Report, owing to a change of circumstances, did not join the mission. A boarding school has been commenced, with buildings capable of accommodating twenty pupils. Larger buildings will be erected, so as to enable the missionaries to receive twice that number. A church has been organized, and two persons admitted to its communion on examination; several others were receiving instruction as catechumens. The prospects of this mission continue to be very flattering.

Mission among the Iowa, Sac and Otoe Indians.—The Rev. S. M. Coon and wife have been appointed to this Mission, and the Rev. W. Hamilton, Mr. S. M. Irvin, teacher, Mr. F. Irvin, farmer, and their wives, continue in its service. The leading feature in the proceedings of this mission, during the last year, has been the commencement of a manual labour boarding school on a large scale. A building is under contract, which will accommodate from 75 to 100 pupils, being 102 feet long by 36 deep, and three stories high. The Indians have appropriated of their annuity funds $4675 67, and the United States Government $2000 towards this institution; and the Indians will make annual payment of $1440 of their school funds for the support of thirty of their children as pupils. It is expected that this school will exert a favourable influence on all the interests of the Iowa and Sac tribes. The day school formerly established has been attended at intervals by 50 scholars. Several small works have been issued from the press, and a part of the New Testament has been translated, and is ready for the press.

It is the intention of the Board to form a station in connexion with this mission among the Otoes, as soon as practicable. They are a neighbouring tribe to the Iowas and Sacs, and understand their language. Once the Otoes were numerous and powerful, but their numbers have been greatly reduced by the small-pox, wars with other tribes, and that great enemy of the Indians, spirituous liquors.

Mission among the Chippewas and Ottawas.—The Rev. P. Dougherty, Mr. H. Bradley, and their wives continue at their station on Grand Traverse bay, and are still encouraged in their labours. The school has been attended by from 35 to 55 scholars, the number varying with the seasons of the year. The church contains 16 native members. The Indians are becoming more industrious, more comfortable in their mode of living, more skilful in cultivating their small farms, and thus are affording testimony that godliness has the promise of the life that now is, as well as of that which is to come.

Mission to West Africa.—In the Kroo country there are stations at Settra Kroo and King Will's town, the Rev. J. M. Connelly, who joined the mission during the last year, and Mrs. Connelly (formerly Mrs. Sawyer) being at the former place, assisted by two native teachers, and the Rev. J. M. Priest and wife at the latter. A boarding school of forty scholars at Settra Kroo gives much satisfaction to the missionaries. A day school and a night school are also taught. Religious services are conducted at both these stations.

In the Colony, the Rev. J. Eden is the pastor of the church at Monrovia, and upwards of one hundred scholars are taught in two schools, one of which is in Monrovia, and the other in a neighbouring village. The Rev. T. Wilson is at Sinoe, where he conducts religious services and has charge of a school.—Cecilia Vantyne is in this country on account of her health.—The general aspect of these missions continues nearly the same as was reported last year.

Missions in North India.—Lodiana Mission: stations at Lodiana, Saharunpur, Sabathu, and Merath, cities in the north-western part of India, of which Lodiana is the most distant from Calcutta, (1170 miles); missionaries, the Rev. Messrs. J. Newton, J. R. Campbell, J. Porter, J. M. Jamieson, J. Caldwell, and L. Janvier, all of whom are married, excepting Mr. Porter; Golak Nath, native licentiate preacher, and five native catechists and assistants: Mr. Reese Morris, printer, and family, are on their return to this country, on account of his health. The station at Sabathu, which the last report mentioned would probably be relinquished, has been re-occupied under favourable circumstances.

ALLAHABAD MISSION: the station at Allahabad is 475 miles north-west of Calcutta, on the Ganges; missionaries, the Rev. Messrs. J. Wilson, J. Warren, J. E. Freeman, J. Owen, J. Wray, and their wives; Miss Vanderveer, teacher, transferred to this mission from the Furrukhabad mission; one native catechist.

FURRUKHABAD MISSION: stations at Futtehgurh, on the Ganges, about 750 miles north-west of Calcutta, Furrukhabad, and Mynpoorie; missionaries, the Rev. Messrs. H. R. Wilson, M. D., J. L. Scott, J. C. Rankin, W. H. McAuley, J. J. Walsh, and their wives; the Rev. Gopee Nauth Nundy; three native assistants.

The schools connected with these three missions embrace about eight hundred scholars, of whom nearly two hundred are boarding pupils, and a large part of the others are taught in schools of a high order. The printing presses at Lodiana and Allahabad have issued about 7,850,000 pages of the Scriptures and religious tracts, in four different languages. Some new works have been prepared for the press, and translations are in progress. [The painful intelligence of the loss of the Lodiana press by fire has been received since the Report was made.] There are churches at Lodiana, Saharunpur, Futtehgurh and Allahabad, to most of which additional members have been admitted during the year. The native licentiate, Gopee Nauth Nundy, has been set apart to the work of an Evangelist, having been ordained by "the laying on of hands" by the Presbytery of Furrukhabad.* Extensive tours have been made for the express purpose of preaching the Gospel, and distributing religious publications. A greater willingness to attend to Christian instruction, and less opposition have been manifested by the natives generally than in former years. Amongst the great multitude of pilgrims at Hurdwar, 25,000 copies of tracts and portions of the Scriptures were distributed, and for seventeen successive days large congregations attended with seriousness the preaching of the missionaries. A vast field, embracing many millions of pagans and Mohammedans, is perfectly open to the labours of Missionaries; but though the harvest is truly plentous, the labourers are few. "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."

MISSION TO SIAM.—This mission is for the present suspended, the Rev. W. P. Buell having been constrained to withdraw from Siam by the ill health of Mrs. Buell. The Rev. R. Q. Way and wife, mentioned in the last Report as designated to this field, proceeded to China. The Board express the hope that this mission will soon be resumed.

MISSIONS TO CHINA.—The CANTON MISSION, for the province of Canton; missionaries, the Rev. A. P. Happer, M. D., and Mr. R. Cole, printer, and wife; stations for the present, Hong Kong and Macao; printing press, with metallic types in successful operation at Macao, 881,000 pages of the Scriptures having been printed in a short time.

The AMOY MISSION, for the province of Hokeen: missionaries, the Rev. Messrs. J. Lloyd and H. A. Brown; J. C. Hepburn, M. D., and wife; station at Amoy.

The NINGPO MISSION, for the provinces of Che Keang and Keang Soo; missionaries, the Rev. Messrs. W. M. Lowrie, R. Q. Way and wife, A. W. Loomis and wife, M. S. Culbertson and wife: D. B. McCartee, M. D.

Messrs. Way and McCartee had reached the station at Ningpo, and spent some months there; the other brethren probably proceeded to that city from Macao in January last. Of the missionaries to China, the Rev. Messrs. Loomis, Culbertson, Lloyd, Happer and Brown, sailed from this country during the last year, and all had arrived except Mr. Brown, who left the United States at a later period in the year.

These missions are yet in their infancy, but have been commenced and thus far established under favourable circumstances, and the prospect of their future usefulness continues to be of the deepest and most encouraging interest.

As a Church we cannot be too grateful for permission to bear a part in this great work, and for being allowed to see so many approved brethren now actively engaged in it. They should be often and earnestly remembered in the prayers of the people of God.

* This is the first instance, it is believed, in modern times, in the entire East, including all of Asia, of Presbyterian Ordination. Several native young men, of hopeful piety and good talents, are preparing for the Gospel Ministry.

Missionary operations in Papal Europe.—A correspondence has been opened with the Evangelical Societies of France and of Geneva, in virtue of which the churches, through the agency of the Board, can take an efficient part in promoting the spread of pure Christianity in some of the Roman Catholic countries of Europe. The excellent Directors of those Societies have cordially entered into this correspondence, and will take the charge of whatever funds may be remitted to them by the Board, employing therewith ministers, evangelists, colporteurs, or teachers, and causing due reports to be made of their labours. In this way the Board has every guarantee for the judicious appointment and supervision of missionary labourers in Europe, the directors of those Societies being best acquainted with the methods of proceeding in their own countries, and being moreover men who hold the same views of doctrine and church order with ourselves, and men also who enjoy the confidence of their own churches, and of the churches in other lands. The Board is competent to engage in missionary operations in any foreign country, and can take the charge of funds for the European missions without any additional expense for collection or transmission.

Various considerations are presented in the Report, showing the importance of giving a liberal aid to our Protestant brethren in Europe, in their labours to promote the influence of a pure gospel,—considerations growing particularly out of the present position, in the world at large, of the Roman Catholic controversy. For these views, we must refer our readers to the Report itself. In the few months that have elapsed since the above mentioned correspondence was opened, the Board has remitted to the Evangelical Society of Geneva, $1825 00, and to the Evangelical Society of France, $1225 00. It is considered important greatly to enlarge the appropriations for this field of labour, in the present year.

Proposed Mission to the Jews.—A mission to the ancient people of God is mentioned in the Report, as having strong claims on the Church. Such a mission should not be undertaken at the expense of existing missions, but there is ample ability in the churches to support a Jewish mission; and it is hoped that the growing feeling of interest on behalf of the children of Israel will enable the Board without delay to engage in this important and good work.

BOARD OF MISSIONS (DOMESTIC).

Abstract of the Annual Report of the Board of Missions for 1845.

Another year of our labours to spread the gospel through our land has now closed, and we present the churches here, with an abstract of the annual report of their Board of Missions. This abstract embodies some of the more immediate effects of their labours, the ultimate results can be known only to Him who "sees the end from the beginning." The year now closed has had its embarrassments and trials; but viewed as a whole, its history will be found to contain much to awaken gratitude, inspire hope, and encourage new effort. A vast amount of good has already been accomplished, and trains of influences have been set in motion, whose results Omniscience alone can know, or fully estimate.

The whole number of missionaries in commission during the year has been three hundred and forty-seven, and the number of congregations and missionary stations supplied, has been about one thousand. One hundred and ninety-eight were in commission at the commencement of the year, and one hundred and forty-nine have been new appointments during the year. A large number of the new appointments have been active young men, who have but recently entered the ministry, and are important accessions to our ministerial strength. In no previous year has there been so large a number of new missionaries sent into the field; and the whole number of missionaries, with the number of stations occupied, are considerably in advance of any former year.

Of the whole number of missionaries in commission, two hundred and ten are located west of the Allegheny Mountains, and one hundred and thirty-seven are east of the mountains, including the Northern and Middle States, and the whole South to the Gulf of Mexico. Of the new appointments, ninety have been west of the mountains, and fifty-nine have been east and south.

There have been added to the churches, so far as reported, on examination, about fifteen hundred; on certificate, about one thousand; making a total of *two thousand five hundred.

It is difficult to state precisely the number of strictly itinerant missionaries. A very large proportion of the whole number have supplied several stations, and extended their labours over large districts, and the whole field of labour has been considerably extended during the year.

Sabbath Schools and Bible Classes have increased both in number and interest, and there has been a very decided and most encouraging increase in the attention paid to catechetical instruction.

The Temperance cause during the former part of the year, from causes noticed by the missionaries, was evidently on the decline. The friends of this cause were alarmed at what they witnessed, and were made to feel the necessity of adopting wise and energetic measures to check the evils with which they were threatened, and we rejoice in being able to state, that a most salutary change has taken place. This good cause we believe is again advancing, and we hope, on principles which will not so easily be shaken.

Much time has been devoted to pastoral labour, and preaching the gospel from house to house; and prayer-meetings, weekly and monthly, have been established and maintained with increasing interest, and to the spiritual benefit of many souls.

The benevolent institutions of the church have shared in the liberality of our mission churches; and there have been a number of instances in which these feeble churches have set a noble example in making sacrifices for the spread of the gospel; instances in which their "deep poverty has abounded unto the riches of their liberality."

Religious tracts and books have been extensively circulated, and have been of essential importance to the missionaries in their work; and we would again earnestly call the attention of the friends of this cause to the great importance of having the invaluable works of the Board of Publication more extensively circulated on missionary ground. The demand for these works in the missionary field is great and pressing. The missionaries greatly need them, and the people need them. Their circulation through the whole missionary field, it is confidently believed, would accomplish an incalculable amount of good.

In the observance of the Sabbath, it is our privilege to report a very general and delightful improvement, and a very decided improvement also in the attendance of the people on the means of grace, and in the interest manifested in a preached gospel.

It is not our privilege to report numerous and powerful revivals of religion during the past year. Revivals have been rare in our churches generally. There have been however, a few interesting revivals, even in this year of almost universal coldness and declension; and within the last few months there has been a very general and most encouraging change. There is evidently a reviving influence in many of these churches. In the language of very many of our missionaries, there is going forward at this time, a work of preparation. There is a waking up, and a very general expectation that God is about to revive his work. While then it is not our privilege, as in some former years to report powerful revivals of religion, nor very large accessions to the churches, we can report, that the labours of the church in this important department of her work, have been owned and blessed of God. An incalculable amount of good has been accomplished; many valuable men have been sent into the field; much new ground has been occupied; and it is confidently believed, the cause of Domestic Missions as connected with our own church, has never before been in so vigorous and prosperous a state as at the present time. Certain we are, there has never been a period in our history as a church, when united and vigorous action was more imperatively demanded, and never a time when the friends of this cause had greater encouragement to labour than at the present.

* The reports on this subject were not full when this was written, the number is doubtless much larger.

Funds.—The whole amount of funds, at the disposal of the Board during the year, including about twenty-five hundred dollars raised, and disbursed by the Synod of Mississippi, exceeds fifty thousand dollars. The amount paid out, including what was paid by the Synod of Mississippi, exceeds forty-seven thousand dollars, leaving a balance on hand, at the close of the year, of about three thousand dollars. But little expense has been incurred in the collection of funds; the great amount of the whole has been expended in the support of missionaries. The whole amount is an increase over the last year of nearly, or quite nine thousand dollars.

The Board have also the satisfaction of being able to state, that so far as reports have been received from the missionaries, they have all been paid up, or checks to the full amount due have been sent them. In being able to make this favourable, and truly cheering report, the Board feel they have special cause for gratitude to the Head of the church. During the early part of the year, owing to causes, over which the Board could have no control, there was a lamentable remissness in the churches; the collections for this object were few and small, and the consequence was, during a considerable portion of the summer and autumn, for want of means to pay the missionaries, many of them were in great want, and the cause suffered serious loss. But God has not been unmindful of his own cause, an important change has taken place, and the cheering results have been stated.

We would however caution the churches against the impression, that in the present prosperous state of the cause, they may venture to relax or delay their efforts in this good work; such impression would be most disastrous to the cause. The present favourable state of things, while it calls forth our gratitude, should encourage and animate us to greatly increased efforts. The present is a most critical, as well as an exceedingly interesting, and important moment in the great work of Domestic missions, and it calls for vigorous, united, prompt, decided effort. The engagements of the Board for the coming year are already very large, and to meet the constantly increasing wants of our country, these engagements of necessity must be greatly increased. The prosperity and success of the cause depend essentially, on the promptness with which the Board can meet the demands made upon them, and fulfill their engagements; and much, very much depends on the churches acting in this matter at an early day, that the Board may know in season what their resources will be. The ability of our churches to furnish ample means for carrying forward this work with greatly increased vigour, cannot for a moment be doubted, what is wanted and all that is needed is, a deep, and general interest in the cause, and wise systematic and energetic measures for calling out the strength of the whole church. May God, whose cause we plead, give the ready and willing mind, and prosper his own work.

Missionary Chronicle.—During the past year, an important change has been made in the form, and price of the Missionary Chronicle; it is now published in newspaper form, and at a reduced price. This change, we believe has met with very general approbation, and the circulation of the paper has, in consequence been largely increased. We hail this as a token for good to the cause of Missions. The people need information on this subject; in very many of our Churches there is a lamentable ignorance on the whole subject of missions, and the necessary consequence is, but little interest is either felt, or manifested in the great missionary work; this is certainly a serious evil, which the pastors should have corrected with as little delay as possible. The Missionary Chronicle, which is a Presbyterian paper, and is "the vehicle of information for all the missionary operations of the Presbyterian Church," should be found in every Presbyterian family in our connexion. This, it is confidently believed, to a very great extent might be accomplished, if our pastors, and the officers in our churches would only take hold of the work in earnest. We commend this subject to the special notice, and prompt attention of the pastors and officers in all our churches.

Church Extension.—The last General Assembly committed a new work to their Board of Missions—to aid feeble churches in the erection of houses for worship.

As soon as was practicable after the adjournment of the Assembly, the Board called a special meeting, and adopted prompt and energetic measures to carry into full effect the order of the Assembly on this subject. A separate Committee on Church Extension was appointed, and a strong appeal was made to all our Presbyteries and churches. A number of the Presbyteries have taken order on the subject, and have appointed their committees. But we have to regret that the churches have almost totally failed in furnishing means for carrying forward this work. To a very few individuals, of distinguished liberality, has the Church Extension Committee been indebted for the means of doing any thing for this cause. The Committee have prosecuted their work with vigour; a vast amount of valuable information has been obtained; and in proportion to the means at command, much good has been accomplished.

The whole amount of funds received for this object during the year has been $3670 50. Of this amount, there was contributed by the churches $67 50. Appropriations have been made to aid forty congregations in the erection of church edifices. The Committee have also had prepared plans and estimates for church buildings of four different sizes.

The short experience which the Board have had in this work has been sufficient to satisfy them, that if the churches generally would take an interest in the object, and furnish the necessary means, a vast amount of good might be accomplished. Their correspondence on this subject has clearly developed this important fact, that in most sections of our country, and more especially in our new States, the growth and permanent establishment of churches depend essentially on their having convenient houses in which to assemble for the worship of God. This work, therefore, if prosecuted with vigour, cannot but be viewed as an important auxiliary to the missionary work; at the same time, it should be distinctly understood, the work cannot be prosecuted to advantage unless a much more general and a much deeper interest is taken in it by the churches. On the present plan, it is believed a vast amount of good might be accomplished, if pastors and the churches generally would engage heartily in the work; and, for the present, the plan which has been adopted is probably as good as any which could be suggested.

Conclusion.—In conclusion, we would remind the pastors in our churches, and all the friends of this cause, of their great and constantly increasing responsibility in relation to Domestic Missions. It cannot be too often repeated, that the work of supplying this country with gospel privileges is committed to American Christians; it is a special trust to the churches in this land; and for the wise and faithful discharge of this all-important trust, God will unquestionably hold us to a strict accountability. This is truly a great work, requiring all our energies and resources, and every year this work is increasing, both in magnitude and importance. Think for a moment of the vast extent of the missionary field in this land, and the immense moral wastes found in all portions of this vast country. Look at the amazing rapidity with which our population increases, and the constant spreading of that population to take possession of new lands. Ponder well the peculiar obligation resting on Christians in this land to furnish the whole population with the means of knowing the way of life. Look at the alarming spread of the most dangerous and destructive errors, which threaten to sweep away every thing that is valuable to us, both in Church and State; and bear in mind, that for these alarming evils, the gospel furnishes the only effectual remedy; and that the same gospel can alone secure to our people the invaluable blessings of civil and religious liberty here, and prepare them for a blessed immortality. Look at the great contest which is now going on, in this land, between the powers of darkness and the kingdom of light, and the peculiar interest the Presbyterian Church has in this contest. Think seriously of the present alarming crisis in our land, and of the incalculable value of the present time in the work of Domestic Missions; and in view of all these momentous considerations, with the eye of our redeeming God upon us, and the realities of the judgment before us, let each decide for himself what is expected of him in this work.

Brethren, what we do in this work must be done quickly. Every moment's delay incurs the displeasure of God, and hazards the loss of souls. Not a moment is to be lost. Now, emphatically, is our time to work; now is the day for salvation to our land.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Abstract of the Annual Report presented to the General Assembly, May 1845.

This General Assembly terminates the twenty-fifth year of the Board of Education. Since the last report, seventy-one new candidates have been received upon the funds, making the whole number aided from the beginning, just FIFTEEN HUNDRED.

The number under the care of the Board during the last year, has been FOUR HUNDRED AND ELEVEN. Of these there have been,

In their Theological course,	137
In nineteen Colleges,	162
In their Academical course,	68
Under the immediate care of Presbyteries, and stage of study not reported,	13
Teaching to procure funds,	31
Total,	411

No less than FIFTY-FIVE of these have now finished their course of studies with credit, and gone into the field of active usefulness.

The Board have steadily carried out their determination to raise the standard of requirement both as to talents and piety, so as to present to the churches for their support, only such as may be relied upon as worthy of full confidence. Thirteen young men have consequently ceased to receive aid, not because they were destitute of qualifications, but merely because they fell short of the present elevated standard. The fixed policy of the Board is to withdraw their support, and throw them upon their own resources, whenever a serious doubt is raised as to their fitness. In nearly every case where this has been done, during the last four years, the candidates had been taken up during the first stage of their studies, and generally quite early in life. It deserves to be specially remarked, 1. that the number of these is so small, that two cents out of every dollar, will cover the whole loss arising from this source: and 2, that the education thus imparted is worth far more than it costs, even where the individuals never enter the ministry at all.

In regard to the character of those who have been introduced, into the sacred office, through the agency of the Board, the report contains the following remarkable facts. 1. While they are filling some of the most commanding positions in our Church, they have furnished about two-thirds of our Foreign missionaries, and more than one-half of those who are toiling in the same service among the destitutions of our own land. 2. While they have aided in all fifteen hundred young men, and from thirty-five to fifty-five have entered the ministry annually for the last ten years, yet of all the ministers without charge in our connexion, as shown by the Minutes of the Assembly, only nine were ever aided by the Board at all; and of these nine, only two received over $200.

The amount of resources at the command of the Board during the year, as shown by the Treasurer's Report, was $34,062 61. This is exclusive of the receipts of such Presbyterial and Synodical Education Societies, as do not report through the Board. It is also exclusive of a large amount of funds raised and paid to beneficiaries by individuals and churches, over and above the allowance fixed by the rules of the Board. Besides these two items, there are scholarships for the benefit of candidates for the ministry, in connexion with several of our Institutions, which yield from four to six thousand dollars a year. These are all part and parcel of the Education scheme of the Presbyterian Church. And still further, large sums have been collected during the last year, for the endowment of Professorships in our Institutions, with a view to the same objects, viz. to bring the expenses of ministerial education within the reach of the pious and gifted among the poor. The total amount contributed during the past year for all these purposes, bearing directly upon the same object, must have exceeded one hundred thousand dollars.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Abstract of the Annual Report of the Board of Publication presented to the General Assembly, May, 1845.

During the year ending March 30, 1845, the Presbyterian Board of Publication have added to their catalogue twenty-eight new books, amounting in all to 53,000 copies, varying in size from royal-octavo to 32mo., and in price, from $4 to 4 cents. Of these works, eighteen are Sabbath School books, peculiarly suited in style, size and price, for the use of children.

They have also printed 71,500 volumes of new editions from stereotype plates.

From the above statement, the Assembly will perceive that a majority of the works issued during the year have been of the smaller kind, and designed more especially for children and youth. So great has been the demand for books of this description from the beginning, that the Board have deemed it their duty to increase the number as fast as they could obtain such as, in their opinion, were suited to this purpose.

Among their late selections for the juvenile reader, will be found some of the most attractive, as well as useful, that have appeared on their list.

The beautiful edition of Bunyan, which was announced in the last Report as then about to be issued, has been received with the highest favour by the public. Gratifying testimonials of its acceptance have been given not only by the commendation of the press, but in the ready sale of between two and three thousand copies. They have also in the press an elegant quarto edition of this popular and useful work.

At the suggestion of some friends of the Board, they published a cheaper edition of this and of several other works on their catalogue, to bring them within the reach of those whose restricted means would preclude them from obtaining books in the better and more costly form.

But the limited demand for the cheaper and inferior volumes has confirmed the Board in the opinion, that they have best consulted the taste and judgment, as well as the advantage of the church in the superior character and style of their publications, notwithstanding the small additional expense.

The amount of moneys received during the last year, including a balance in the treasury at the date of last Report, is $37,527 71.

From the report of the Treasurer, the Assembly will be happy to learn that the financial department of the Board is still managed with prudence and fidelity. Since the date of the last Report, they have leased for a term of years a large and commodious edifice in the vicinity of their former location. The fitting up of this building involved some expense, but the increasing business of the Board had made enlarged accommodations indispensable; and the new building is admirably adapted to the purposes of the Institution.

The Reports of both the Publishing Agent and the Treasurer will show that the labours of the Board have been attended with success.

By a rigid adherence to the terms of sale which were early adopted and widely circulated, while their business has greatly increased, they have been enabled to obey the injunction of a former Assembly, to preserve their funds from loss, and also to keep on hand such a capital as will enable them to manage their concerns to the greatest advantage. It is still a subject of regret, however, that a more extended and cordial obedience has not been rendered to another most important resolution of the same Assembly, namely, "That it be earnestly recommended to every Presbytery, or at least to every Synod, to establish a depository, which shall be their own property, by collecting on such a plan as they may deem best, a sufficient sum of money to fill the depository on the principle of cash purchase."

The Board would reiterate in this Report the sentiments of their last: that the only feasible mode in which the usefulness and efficiency of this Institution can be best promoted, is by systematic, vigorous, and persevering efforts in doing what this resolution commends.

The Board moreover would respectfully invite the attention of the Assembly to another subject very closely connected with the pecuniary interests of the Institution. By their want of corporate capacities they are liable to losses of money which might come into their hands, had they legal authority to recover and hold it.

They would therefore suggest to the Assembly the expediency of authorizing them to apply at such time as they may think proper to legislative authority for corporate powers, in such form as may by them be thought advisable, to receive and collect legacies bequeathed, and other gifts made to the Board.

With regard to the recommendation of the Assembly of 1843, on the subject of "publishing the Minutes of the Assembly from its first meeting in the year 1789," the Board have only to state, that the responses to their circular letter sent to all the Presbyteries requesting their opinion and cooperation, are not such as to justify them in undertaking a work which must absorb so large a portion of their funds, without any reasonable prospect of their being recovered for years to come, if at all from the product of its sale.

The Board would again take occasion to express in behalf of the church, their grateful acknowledgments to those benevolent friends by whose continued and increasing liberality, they have not only been furnished with the means of publishing many valuable works at a greatly reduced cost, but have been enabled to supply gratuitously more than twenty-three congregations with libraries, comprising the whole or a part of the books which they have hitherto issued.

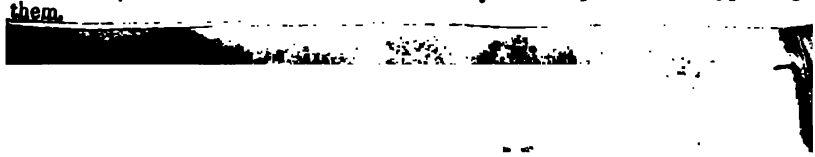
In conclusion, while the Board would recognize with gratitude the signal favour of God during another year of prosperity, they would solicit for themselves as well as for the Institution entrusted to their management, an habitual remembrance in the prayers of the Assembly.

TO STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

The Stated Clerks of Presbyteries are respectfully requested to use the requisite effort to have their Presbyterial Reports complete; to have them accompanied on the lower margin with an historical account of changes; and to have them signed by their names as Stated Clerks. It is also requested, that if they order Minutes for individuals not belonging to the Presbytery, on the same sheet with the Report, they would make the memorandum so as not to interfere with the regular table; and that all proper names and numbers should be very legibly written. It is desirable that the Statistical Reports should be transmitted by mail immediately after the spring meetings of Presbyteries, and at the latest they must arrive during the sittings of the General Assembly to insure their insertion in the Minutes.

The information in the Reports of Presbyteries should reach as nearly as possible to the time of the meeting of the Assembly. This, however, may be determined by each Presbytery or Stated Clerk establishing it as a rule that there shall be some fixed period for the close of the ecclesiastical year. Thus if a Presbytery closes their ecclesiastical year on the first of March, April, or May, let their report uniformly reach that point, and not extend beyond it, otherwise the same matters may be reported on two successive years.

The Stated Clerks of Presbyteries are reminded that the Narrative of Religion, or any other document intended for the Assembly, with the exception of the Statistical Report, should not be sent on to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly charged with postage. The Stated Clerk is authorized to pay postage only on the Statistical Reports, and it is hoped that this will hereafter be borne in mind. In several instances, the Narrative of Religion has been written on the back of the Statistical Report. Stated Clerks should be apprized that in such cases, the Narratives cannot be handed to the committee of the Assembly on that subject, and are therefore lost. It is hoped that this fact will prevent the recurrence of this practice. Notwithstanding the earnest request made last year, some of the Presbyteries have reported odd cents, subjecting the Stated Clerk of the Assembly to the very serious trouble of incorporating the cents with the dollar columns, and summing up the whole again. The order of the Assembly is that only dollars shall be reported, except in case of the Contingent Fund, and it is hoped that this order will hereafter be strictly adhered to. Where the printed blanks are not at hand, Stated Clerks will please to copy the form at the end of the Minutes, as any inversion in the order of the columns perplexes the printer, and may lead to mistakes; and to be careful not to put any columns in addition to those authorized by the Assembly. While some of the Statistical Reports are prepared with great care and accuracy, others are blotted, interlined and confused almost beyond the power of decyphering them.



TO PRESBYTERIES.

It would save much trouble and some mistakes if all Presbyteries would transmit a sufficient sum to pay for the Minutes, at the rate of fifty cents for each member. The memoranda which are sometimes sent to the Stated Clerk are defective, and leave him in doubt what members of a Presbytery are entitled to the Minutes, as a sufficient sum to supply all has not been transmitted. As the Contingent Fund is not only chargeable with the expense of printing the Minutes, but with all the contingent expenses of the Assembly, and the paying delegates to foreign bodies, the Presbyteries should see the propriety of contributing something to it, in addition to the price required for their Minutes. It is requested that Presbyteries would not report any thing under the head of Contingent Fund but what is actually paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, or the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is desirable, also, that the Presbyteries should not only see that the church Sessions furnish the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries with the necessary data for their Statistical Reports to the Assembly, but ascertain that their Stated Clerks perform their duty in a business-like manner.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods, to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

STANDING RULE.

In the Minutes of the General Assembly for the year 1821, is the following important rule, which was adopted by the Assembly. "An overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows: viz.

"Whereas the General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear, to every Christian of our denomination, to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore,

"Resolved, That this Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care, to observe, annually, the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as a season of special prayer to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations, and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of His own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong."

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES.

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837, and directed to be re-published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

"Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated."

This mortality among the Clergy is nearly double of last year.*

The whole number of Ministers now in the Presbyterian Church, is fifteen hundred and sixty-two; the whole number of Churches, two thousand two hundred and twenty-nine.

The amount collected for different benevolent objects, as far as reported, is two hundred and seventy thousand two hundred and eight dollars.

It is necessary again to state, that from the defective character of many of the reports, these several totals are only to be regarded as an approximation to the true state of the facts. Thus, as a single item, upwards of eighty thousand dollars have been received for Foreign Missions, as seen by the report of the Board, while less than fifty-two thousand are reported in the Statistical Tables of the Presbyteries.

1. Resolved, That the report of the Board of Foreign Missions be approved, and referred to the Executive Committee for publication.

2. Resolved. That this Assembly consider the work of diffusing a missionary spirit among our churches at home and the consequent spread of the church in foreign lands, as of great importance in itself, and its prosecution a great advantage to any church, and an evidence of God's Spirit among them.

3. Resolved, That while we rejoice over the indications of an increased missionary spirit in some of our churches, we feel called upon also to grieve that so many do nothing in aid of this cause, and cordially invite such of our brethren as aid the heathen through other channels, to unite with us in the great enterprise of spreading the Redeemer's kingdom, both as a means of reaching the heathen no less directly than by their present mode of operation, and also as a means of increasing the spirit of missions in the Church.

4. Resolved, That as a means of awakening a proper spirit in our churches, we recommend to every session to consult prayerfully over this matter, especially in reference to the circulation of the Missionary Chronicle and Foreign Missionary; to all our church members to observe diligently the Monthly Concert; and to the Executive Committee to hold Missionary Conventions in central points of influence, especially where the spirit of the churches is defective or declining.

5. Resolved, That in view of the fact that by the different fields now occupied, the church is brought into direct contact with three fourths of the heathen world, with large masses of Mohammedans in India, with Popery in Europe, and with the seed of Abraham, the time has fully come when the whole church should unite as one man in earnest prayer for the Divine blessing, and in furnishing the means necessary to carry forward this work.

6. Resolved, That this Assembly, entertaining no doubt of the ability of our churches to sustain this enterprise, recommend that the Board increase, as rapidly as possible, the force at each station, and follow as far as practicable the indications of Providence in opening new fields, ever remembering that the greatest ultimate success at each station will be secured by the most thorough and patient instruction of those reached by its instrumentality.

7. Resolved, That as the blessings of the gospel are yet in store for the house of Israel, it is the duty of the Church to preach Christ and him crucified to the Jews in this and foreign countries, as well as to the Gentiles; and the General Assembly believe that the time has come for them to engage in this great work, and they would again express their full conviction of the ability of the church to sustain a mission to the seed of Abraham without impeding enlarged and increased efforts for the perishing heathen.

8. Resolved, That as Texas has now become one of the States of the Union, the care of the missions in that State be transferred to the (Domestic) Board of Missions.

9. Resolved, That this Assembly express to all their missionaries their affectionate sympathy and encouragement. Whilst we exhort and charge all our brethren in the foreign field to be diligent and faithful in their great work, our daily prayer is that the Saviour may be present with them, and that the blessing of the Holy Spirit may rest upon their labours.

On motion, the consideration of the Reference from the Presbytery of Fayetteville was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning, at ten o'clock.

The Report of the Delegate to the German Reformed Synod, the Rev. James Williamson, was read, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

A resolution in reference to the Quorum question was offered, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee to whom were referred all papers relating to the joint celebration of the Lord's Supper by the two Assemblies, with instructions to bring in a minute expressive of the views of the Assembly, presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows; viz.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises having reported to this General Assembly a communication from a similar committee of the General Assembly in session at the First Presbyterian church, representing that the said Assembly has authorized its committee to confer with the committee of this Assembly in relation to a joint celebration of the Lord's Supper by the two bodies; it was ordered, that the committee respectfully acknowledge and reciprocate the courtesy of the communication, and say in reply, that while this Assembly recognizes the above mentioned body as a branch of the Church of our common Lord, and for this reason would, as individuals, under appropriate circumstances, unite with our brethren in the celebration of Divine ordinances, yet, as this Assembly has never in its corporate and official capacity united with any other ecclesiastical body in celebrating the Lord's Supper, it judges it inexpedient to institute a new usage at this time.

On motion, the Committee on Devotional Exercises were directed to communicate a copy of the above minute to the committee of the other Assembly.

From the above proceedings, Peter H. Kemper, Ruling Elder, from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, had leave to enter his dissent.

It was moved to amend the report by striking out the word "not," and the amendment was adopted.

It was then on motion,

Resolved, That a new Synod be, and hereby is erected, to be called the Synod of Memphis, and to be composed of the Presbyteries of Western District, Chickasaw, Arkansas, and Indian.

Resolved, Further, that the Synod of Memphis hold its first meeting in Memphis, on the 4th day of November, 1846, at 7 o'clock, P. M., and be opened with a sermon by the Rev. The report of the Judicial Committee, No. 3, viz., the complaint of Messrs. Tate, McIver, and others against the Presbytery of Fayetteville, in the case aforesaid, was taken up and adopted, and is as follows, viz:

A complaint of the Rev. Robert Tate, Colin McIver, and others, was put into the hands of the committee, in which they complain of a decision of the Presbytery of Fayetteville, by which they refused to reconsider certain decisions made at a former meeting of the Presbytery, touching the case of the Rev. Archibald McQueen. The committee are unanimously of the opinion, that the General Assembly cannot entertain this complaint, inasmuch as the complainants did not avail themselves of their right to complain of the aforesaid decisions within the time and in the manner specified in our Book of Discipline. The committee believe, that it was never intended that those who thus waived their right, should have the right, at a subsequent meeting of the Judicatory, on a mere motion to reconsider, to bring the whole previous action by complaint before the higher Judicatory.

The Committees on the records of the Synods of Cincinnati and Missouri, reported, recommending approval, and their reports were adopted.

The Committee on the Muhlenburg Memorial made a report, which was received and put on the docket.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Albany reported, and their report was adopted, and is as follows, viz: The committee to whom were referred the records of the Synod of Albany, report, that they have examined them, and recommend that they be approved with the following exceptions. 1. The paging is all wrong after page 217. 2. The records do not seem to have been kept with sufficient care—important words being sometimes omitted. 3. The phrase on page 124—"What but this devotion to God's work —which is the divine Spirit in us,"—appears to us incorrect and objectionable; inasmuch as it makes one of the fruits, or evidences, of the Holy Spirit being in us, to be the Spirit himself. With these exceptions we recommend that the records be approved.

The Committee on the Report of the Board of Education presented the following report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

1. Resolved, That the training up of young men for the ministry of reconciliation is a great work on which depend the general interests of religion and all our hopes of usefulness as a Church of Christ in the regeneration of the world.

2. Resolved, That the General Assembly earnestly enjoin upon the Board of Education, to exercise the utmost vigilance in maintaining the high standard of ministerial qualification in regard to piety and scholarship, so often insisted on by former Assemblies, and so urgently demanded by the wants of the Church and the age.

3. Resolved, That for the sake of guarding against an indolent, imbecile, or unacceptable ministry, the Presbyteries be enjoined, in their selection of candidates, to have a special regard not only to their piety and talents, but also to their natural disposition and habits, their promise of aptness to teach, readiness to engage in self-denying service, and their general acceptability of character. And pastors are also enjoined to make themselves personally and thoroughly acquainted with the qualifications, in these respects, of those whom they recommend to the notice of the Presbyteries.

4. Resolved, That in order more systematically to remind our churches of their responsibility in the education of the rising generation, and to invoke the blessing of God upon this work by united and special supplications, the first Sabbath of December, be set apart for the offering up of special prayer to the Lord of the harvest to send forth labourers into the harvest, and that it be recommended to every minister to preach at that time on some topic connected with the obligations of the Church to train up a pious and educated ministry.

5. Resolved, That the Annual Report of the Board of Education be committed to the Board for publication.

MONDAY MORNING, June 1.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported Overtures, Nos. 15, 16, and 17, which were disposed of as follows, viz.

Overture No. 15, on recommending some action by Presbyteries against giving missionary aid to such churches as might, by combining their efforts with those of other weak churches in their neighbourhood, support the preaching of the gospel. The committee recommended the following minute, which was adopted, viz.

In view of the small amount of funds raised for Domestic Missions, and the great need of a rigid economy in the disbursement of said funds,

Resolved, That each Presbytery in our communion be recommended to discourage the sundering of feeble churches now united in support of the gospel, and generally to combine together such feeble churches in appropriate fields of labour, that the Board of Missions may be relieved from the need of a large allowance in such cases, and, where practicable, from the need of any allowance in aid of ministerial support.

Overture No. 16. A communication from the Ladies' Temperance Union for the city and county of Philadelphia, requesting the Assembly to recommend the Sabbath preceding the 4th of July next, to be appropriated in part to a discourse on the subject of Temperance, was referred to the Committee on the Narrative on the State of Religion.

Overture No. 17. A collection of memorials and petitions on the subject of Slavery; containing an expression of opinion by the General Association of Massachusetts; seven petitions from a number ofministers, elders, and p rivate members of our church; five memorials from Presbyteries, viz., the Presbyteries of Beaver, Hocking, Blairsville, New Lisbon, and Albany; and a resolution of the Synod of Cincinnati; all requesting of the Assembly to utter additional testimony on the subject of Slavery, or at least to reaffirm or explain its former testimony. In view of these memorials and petitions, the committee recommended the adoption of the following minute; viz.

Our church has, from time to time, during a period of nearly sixty years, expressed its views on the subject of Slavery. During all this period, it has held and uttered substantially the same sentiments. Believing that this uniform testimony is true, and capable of vindication from the word of God, the Assembly is, at the same time, clearly of the opinion that it has already deliberately and solemnly spoken on this subject with sufficient fulness and clearness. Therefore,

Resolved, That no further action upon this subject is, at present, needed.

The following amendment was offered by Rev. R. M. White, and laid on the table; viz. "Except to say that the action of the General Assembly of 1845 is not understood by this Assembly to deny or rescind the testimony that has been uttered by the General Assembly previous to that date."

The question was then taken on the report, when the Ayes and Noes were called for, and are as follows:

Ayes—Backus, Huntington, Scovel, Van Tuyl, Cheeseman, Twichell, Adams, Johnston, Green, H. N. Wilson, McDonald, Krebs, Mapes, Platt, Beers, Sayres, English, Jones, McWilliam, McGee, Studdiford, Hazard,

B. McDowell, Neighbour, W. Wilson, J. McDowell, Gaston, Bradford, McKinney, Symington, Mitchell, M. Stewart, Blair, Shaw, Torrance, Painter, Fairchild, Jeffery, R. J. Breckinridge, Bracken, Shields, Baird, Hilands, Grier, James Moody, Cummings, Arthur, Barr, Coffey, Cherry, H. White, Weatherwax, S. R. Wilson, King, Kemper, Scovel, Dickson, Spilman, Stebbins, Breese, Hummer, Tryon, Woodman, Coulter, Cochran, A. H. Rodgers, Conway, W. L. Breckinridge, Ewing, Young, Forman, Henderson, Hardin, Turner, Irwin, Houston, Brown, McFarland, Dutton, W. C. Scott, Reid, Dudley, Hickman, Rand, Trimble, Gibson, Vaughan, Miller, McClanahan, Anderson, Mebane, Shaw, Freeman, Heartt, Andres, Phifer, Doak, Watt, Lindsley, Graves, Telford, Reynolds, McWhorter, Gilland, McQueen, Palmer, Calhoun, J. K. Douglass, Snowden, Talmage, Montgomery, Waddell, H. A. Smith, Kirkpatrick, Nott, Williams, Baker, J. W. Moore, Doremus—119.

Noes—Thayer, Fillmore, Anderson, Adam, Sherwood, Blauvelt, Dorrance, Morrison, Collins, Warden, Critchlow, Dickey, Kennedy, R. M. White, McCandless, Chambers, Kerr, Osborne, J. D. Smith, Brice, S. Moody, Aikin, Fullerton, Weaver, Thomas, Meeks, J. Stewart, Glover, McKee, Charlot, Hendricks, Chesnut, Shepherd—33.

So the report was adopted. Notice was given by R. M. White and others, of their intention to enter protests against the above decision of the Assembly.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported, recommending that the letter from the General Association of Connecticut be placed on file, and that nothing more be done in regard to it. The recommendation was adopted. The Committee further reported a reply to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, which was read, and put on the docket.

The Committee on Mileage presented the following report, which was adopted; viz. that there had been paid to the Treasurer, on account of the Commissioners' Fund, the sum of $824.69; that there have been 22,977 miles travelled by the commissioners who claim mileage in coming to the present Assembly; which at three cents, five mills, and three-eights of a mill per mile, will make $812.81; leaving a balance, after deducting $10 due by Mr. Smith, of $1.88 in the Commissioners' Fund this day. They therefore, recommend that the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to draw an order on their Treasurer, for $812.81; and that he be directed to pay the same to the several persons named in this report in the proportion therein stated.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Illinois, reported; and, on motion, the records were approved.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this house, the action of the General Assembly of 1845 was not intended to deny or rescind the testimony often uttered by the General Assemblies previous to that date.

On motion, it was then

The report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Publication, was read and put on the docket.

The committee to whom were referred the petitions from the Presbyteries of Washington and Greenbrier, on the subject of a new Presbytery, presented the following report; viz.

The Committee to whom were referred the petitions from the Presbyteries of Washington and Greenbrier, on the subject of a new Presbytery, to be erected out of parts of the Presbyteries of Washington, Greenbrier, and Redstone, would recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. That the prayer of the petitioners be granted.

2. That the boundary of the new Presbytery be as follows: beginning on the Ohio river at the boundary line between the counties of Wood and Jackson, and following the northern boundaries of Jackson and Gilmer counties, and the western boundary of Braxton county till it strikes Elk river, then with said river to its source, thence with the southern and eastern boundary of Randolph county to the Maryland line, and with the Maryland line to the Pennsylvania line, and with the Pennsylvania line to the south-west corner of that State, thence in a line due west to the Ohio river, and down the Ohio river to the place of beginning.

3. That this Presbytery be called the Presbytery of Monongahela, and be connected with the Synod of Wheeling; and that it be directed to hold its first meeting on the first Tuesday of September next, in Clarksburg, at 2 o'clock, P. M.: and be opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. H. Babcock, and in case of his absence, by the oldest minister present, who shall also preside till a Moderator be chosen.

The Report was, on motion, referred to the next Assembly.

The unfinished business was then resumed, viz. the report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Missions; and after debate the Assembly adjourned.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes were read and corrected.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Kentucky reported, recommending approval, and the report was adopted.

The unfinished business of the morning was then resumed, viz. the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Missions; and, on motion, the Secretary of the Board was heard in explanation of the 7th resolution. The report is as follows, viz.

The committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of (Domestic) Missions, report that they have had the same under consideration, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the said report be approved by the General Assembly, and be returned to the Board for publication; and that the Board be requested to furnish the Stated Clerk of the Assembly with an abstract of the report for publication in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. Resolved, That the General Assembly have heard with great pleasure of the increasing prosperity and usefulness of their Board of Domestic Missions, and do hereby express their gratitude to the great Head of the Church for his gracious smiles upon this precious cause.

3. Resolved, That while we rejoice at the increased interest which the churches have manifested in the work of Domestic Missions, yet, in view of the magnitude of the work, the extent of the field to be occupied, and the rapid increase of the population of our country, we earnestly exhort the churches to augment their contributions to this object, and to pray with increased earnestness for its enlarged success.

4. Resolved, That it be recommended to all the churches under our care to take up an annual collection in behalf of Domestic Missions; and it is hereby again enjoined upon such Synods and Presbyteries as have not acted in the premises, to adopt such plan as seems best suited to secure the contributions of all the church members in their own bounds with system and certainty, and to report their action in this matter to the next General Assembly.

5. Resolved, That the inquiry respecting the propriety of either enlarging the Missionary Chronicle, or issuing a separate periodical as a channel of communication with the churches on the subject of Domestic Missions, be referred to the Boards of Foreign and Domestic Missions, and that they be authorized to make any change which they may deem expedient.

6. Resolved, That it be recommended to all the churches under our care to aid, as far as practicable, in the work of Church Extension, and to take up for this important object a collection distinct from that in behalf of Domestic Missions. The General Assembly regret that so few of the churches have contributed any thing towards this object during the past year, and unless much more should be done during the present year, it would be probably better to abandon the present plan, and to leave this matter to the action of the Presbyteries. But it is believed that if the churches generally would contribute according to their ability to this object, the present plan would be found advantageous and useful. If each church would contribute only $5, the aggregate would amount to at least $10,000.

In view of the demand for greatly increased effort, which will certainly be made upon the Board during the present year, your committee feel that it is very important, not only that they should be sustained by a perfect union of all our churches in this work, but also that all obstructions, so far as practicable should be removed, and the Board, under its responsibility to the General Assembly and to the Church, should be left free to adopt such plans, as in their wisdom will most effectually accomplish the great object; and believing as we do, that the act of the last General Assembly, requiring the Board to have two distinct co-ordinate Executive Committees, must produce embarrassment, without adding any thing to the strength or efficiency of the work, the Committee submit to the Assembly the following resolution:

7. Resolved, That the resolution of the last General Assembly requiring the Board of Missions to appoint a second co-ordinate Executive Committee at Louisville, be, and the same is, hereby rescinded, and the Board are directed to make such arrangements and adopt such measures, as in their view will most effectually promote the interests of this cause, in all sections of the great missionary field.

The above report was amended and adopted, with the exception of the last resolution and its preamble, on which the ayes and noes were demanded, and are as follows; viz.

Ayes—Backus, Huntington, A. Scovel, Van Tuyl, Cheeseman, Twichell, Adams, Mapes, Beers, Sayres, Blauvelt, English, R. K. Rodgers, S. B. Jones, McGee, Studdiford, Hazard, B. McDowell, Wm. Wilson, J. McDowell, Gaston, Bradford, Musgrave, T. V. Moore, Collins, Symington, Mitchell, M. Stewart, Brewster, Shaw, Painter, Shields, Barr, Charlot, Shepard, Ogden, Dickson, Todd, Stebbins, Breese, Tryon, McFarland, Hickman, Mebane, Phifer, Waddell, Lyon—47.

Noes—Fillmore, Johnston, Green, H. N. Wilson, McDonald, Krebs, Adam, Sherwood, Platt, McWilliam, Dorrance, Neighbour, Morrison, Blair, Warden, Fairchild, Jeffery, Bracken, Critchlow, Dickey, Kennedy, Baird, Hilands, Banks, R. M. White, McCandless, Chambers, Kerr, J. Moody, Cummings, Osborn, J. D. Smith, Brice, S. Moody, Cherry, Fullerton, Weaver, S. R. Wilson, Thomas, Meeks, J. Stewart, King, Kemper, S. Scovel, McKee, Hendricks, Chesnut, Hummer, Coulter, Cochran, A. H. Rodgers, Woodman, Conway, W. L. Breckinridge, Ewing, Young, Forman, Hardin, Turner, Irwin, Houston, Brown, Dutton, W. C. Scott, Reid, Dudley, Rand, Trimble, Gibson, Vaughan, Miller, McClanahan, Anderson, Heartt, Andres, Doak, Watt, Lindsley, Graves, Telford, Reynolds, Porter, McWhorter, Palmer, Calhoun, Snowden, Talmage, H. A. Smith, Kirkpatrick, Nott, Williams, Strong, Doremus, Baker, J. W. Moore.—95.

Non Liquet—Coffey, Weatherwax—2.

And then the Assembly adjourned. Concluded with prayer.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave to Messrs. Blauvelt, Grier, Wurts, Turner, Shepard, Fairchild, Baird, Porter, Brewster, Sayres, and Cochran.

The Report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Virginia was taken up, and the following minute adopted, viz.

Resolved, That the records of the Synod of Virginia be approved; while in doing so the Assembly would be understood as expressing no opinion on the question decided by the Synod in reference to the authority of the Presbyteries of Winchester and Lexington, to appoint Commissions in the cases alluded to in the records of the Synod.

The Rev. Mr. Dickey from the Committee on the Narrative of the state of Religion, presented a report, which was read and on motion recommitted; and the Rev. S. B. Jones was substituted in the place of Dr. W. L. Breckinridge, chairman, excused from acting; and the Rev. Messrs. Kirkpatrick and T. V. Moore were added to the Committee.

The Committee appointed to answer the Protest of Dr. Musgrave and others, presented a report, which was adopted, and, together with the Protest, ordered to be inserted in the Minutes, viz.

PROTEST.

The undersigned feel it to be their duty to protest against the decision of the General Assembly by which the Rev. James W. Moore of the Presbytery of Arkansas, was admitted as a member of this House without either a commission or satisfactory evidence of his election as a Commissioner by said Presbytery.

The facts in the case are these, viz:—At a meeting of the Presbytery of Arkansas in September last, the Rev. James W. Moore was nominated as a Commissioner, the election to take place at the stated meeting of the Presbytery, to be held the following spring. At the time appointed for this meeting a quorum of the Presbytery could not be obtained. The Moderator of the Presbytery addressed a letter to the Assembly communicating the above facts and stating that, in his opinion, the Presbytery would no doubt have confirmed the nomination of Mr. Moore, and regularly appointed him as their Commissioner, if they had had an opportunity of doing so. Whereupon the Assembly resolved, in opposition to our serious and earnest remonstrance, to admit him as a member of this General Assembly. Against this decision of the General Assembly we respectfully and solemnly protest, and for the following reasons, viz.

I. Because it is, in our judgment, in violation of the Constitution of the church, and that in two respects.

1. Because the Form of Gov. Chap. XXII., Sect. 2. explicitly declares that each Commissioner, before his name shall be enrolled as a member of the Assembly shall produce from his Presbytery a commission under the hand of the Moderator and Clerk of his appointment by the Presbytery. It is admitted that the usage of the General Assembly has been to receive as members all Commissioners who furnish satisfactory evidence of their having been duly elected or appointed by their Presbyteries to be Commissioners, although they may not be able to produce their formal commissions. But in this case the Assembly was distinctly informed by the Moderator of the Presbytery, that the Presbytery had had no opportunity of acting upon the nomination made at their last fall meeting and of course that Mr. Moore had never been elected or appointed by the Presbytery to be their Commissioner. It was alleged, indeed, in the course of the discussion in the Assembly, that the nomination was a virtual appointment, and that such a method of election is customary with many of the more distant Presbyteries—in other words, that such nominations when made are understood to be virtual appointments. In reply to this, however, it was shown, that such nominations are not necessarily, nor always in fact confirmed by the Presbyteries at their subsequent meeting. In truth several of the members of this Assembly testified that their Presbyteries actually set aside the nominations which had been made last fall, and they themselves had been commissioned in preference to the previous nominees. What the Presbytery of Arkansas would have done, had they been able to meet, in regard to the nomination of the Rev. Mr. Moore, neither this Assembly nor your Protestants can know. They might have confirmed the nomination, or they might not. The admitted fact that they did not, should have been a sufficient constitutional bar to his reception as a Commissioner.

and high water courses prevented the assembling of a quorum at the time and place appointed." It was also made evident by the statements of members on the floor, that in the Presbyteries remote from the place of meeting of the General Assembly, the usual if not the uniform practice is, to select or nominate at the fall meetings such person or persons as the Presbyteries design to commission to the General Assembly at the spring meetings. Such nominations are regarded as equivalent to an election, the Presbyteries always confirming them by a formal appointment, unless some special cause prevent; and without such a practice most of these bodies would fail of representation in the Supreme Judicatory of the Church.

Since then this Assembly was certified by the written testimony of Mr. Banks, the Moderator, and the verbal testimony of Mr. Moore, the Clerk of the Presbytery of Arkansas—both of whom were personally known to members of this body—that said Presbytery had unanimously selected and nominated, and but for an imperious necessity, which prevented the meeting of that body in April last, would have formally appointed Mr. Moore a Commissioner to this Assembly; it deemed itself in possession of sufficient proof that Mr. Moore was virtually, though not formally, the chosen representative of the Presbytery of Arkansas.

The design of the constitutional rules prescribing the manner in which Commissioners should be elected to the General Assembly evidently is, that the Presbyteries shall be fairly represented by men of their own choice: provided these representatives possess such qualifications as are demanded by the Constitution. If an Assembly can satisfy itself that this design is attained, it may, as it always has done, admit members whose credentials are not technically constitutional; as is proved by the cases above cited, and by numberless others of a similar character. In admitting Mr. Moore, then, to a seat in this house, this Assembly judges, that it has not deviated from the spirit and aim of our Constitution. In form, and perhaps in the extent to which the principle is carried out, this case may differ from those which have been cited; but as to the principle involved, it is precisely the same; viz. that where the spirit of a constitutional rule is maintained, the letter may in peculiar cases be departed from.

The same argument applies to the second constitutional objection urged by the Protestants; to wit, that Mr. Moore's selection or nomination was made more than seven months prior to the meeting of the Assembly; contrary to Form of Government, Chap. XXII. Sec. 1.

It is evident from the testimony furnished to this Assembly, that the Presbytery of Arkansas designed to adhere to the very letter of our book in this respect; but was prevented from so doing by insurmountable obstacles. The defectiveness of Mr. Moore's title to a seat in this body being the result neither of deliberate design, nor of culpable neglect on the part of his Presbytery, but rather of uncontrollable hinderances, ought not, in the opinion of the Assembly to be pressed to his exclusion from a seat, nor to the deprivation of his Presbytery to a representation in this judicatory. The irregularity which consists in an appointment eight months instead of seven prior to the meeting of the Assembly, is not more decidedly at variance with the letter of the Constitution, than a commission which lacks the signature of a Moderator or of a Clerk: for our book demands both of these requisites to the validity of a commission. And if such an irregularity as this last is overlooked, when the substantial validity of the commission is made manifest, surely the irregularity as to time ought not to invalidate a title, when satisfactory evidence of the intention and wishes of a Presbytery is furnished to an Assembly.

A reference to the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1844 will show, that the Rev. William S. Rogers, a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Lodiana, in Northern India, was admitted without scruple to a seat in that body: although it is evident that his appointment must have been made beyond the limits of time prescribed by the Constitution. The peculiar circumstances of the case, no doubt, influenced, and we believe authorized that Assembly to act as they did in the premises: and the same, we believe to hold in the present instance.

That the action of this Assembly in the present case will prove a dangerous precedent, we cannot believe; certain we are, that it furnishes no fairer pretext to a departure from our Constitution, than the cases which every year occur, and which the Protestants themselves acknowledge to be in harmony with the spirit of the Constitution. This Assembly would be far from sanctioning, or in any way conniving at a manifest violation of our constitutional rules: and it can discover no fair parallel between the admission of a member on the grounds above mentioned, and the introduction of a foreign and heterogeneous element into our body; such as was done by the admission of Committee-men to a place in our supreme judicatory; the former being a mere deviation from the letter of the law; the latter in contravention of the essential spirit and organic structure of our ecclessiastical system.

Upon such grounds this Assembly feels, that it may vindicate the general principle on which its action in this particular case was based.

But it feels it due to itself to record the additional reasons which determined its action in this instance. The member admitted to a seat represents a body occupying the remote confines of our ecclesiastical territory: a body whose delegates must travel fifteen hundred miles to reach the usual place of meeting of the General Assembly; a body, too, whose meetings are liable to be interrupted by insurmountable difficulties: and in whom a technical irregularity, occasioned by such difficulties, may justly plead exemption from a rigorous application of the letter of the law. To exclude from a participation in the privileges of this body, one who had surmounted so many and such formidable obstacles to reach our place of meeting, because of an informality in his title, which does not, as this Assembly judges, violate the spirit of the Constitution, would be to subject a zealous and self-denying minister, and a whole Presbytery to a serious grievance: and to discourage the zeal of those, who of all others, most need our sympathy and fostering care. While this Assembly feels admonished by the past history of the church to maintain with strictness the order of God's house; it cannot forget, that it is the highest earthly tribunal of Him who has said, "I will have mercy and not sacrifice." It would feel its obligation to act not merely according to law, but according to equity, and where an adherence to a mere municipal regulation would conflict with the manifest claims of equity, it would endeavour to follow out the principle embodied in the declaration of the Master, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath." It believes that rules were made for judicatories, and not judicatories for rules: and hence where the maintenance of a rule would inflict a manifest wrong and injury upon Christ's cause, and defeat the very end of such a rule itself, while a deviation from it would jeopard no such interests; as a court of equity it ought to do that which is right, rather than that which merely appears right. If it be lawful and safe to violate the letter of a divine statute—like that of the Sabbath—in order to preserve the spirit of such a statute; much more is it lawful and safe to disregard a human enactment, rather than perpetrate a serious wrong.

Committee.

On motion, the Treasurer of the Assembly was directed to pay to the Rev. James W. Moore, $35 as his mileage.

And the Assembly then adjourned till half-past three o'clock this afternoon. Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes were read and approved.

The following resolution was offered, and referred to a Committee, consisting of Drs. Hodge, Lindsley, Musgrave, McFarland, and McDowell, to report to the next Assembly.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly, it is contrary to the Constitution and uniform practice of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for any ecclesiastical judicatory to appoint a commission to determine judicially any case whatever.

On motion, the decision in regard to the creation of the Synod of Memphis was reconsidered; and the whole subject was referred to the Synods of West Tennessee and Mississippi, and those Synods were directed to report to the next General Assembly.

The Committee to whom was referred the memorial of the Presbytery of Muhlenburg as to the division of the said Presbytery, and the formation of a new Synod composed of Nashville, West Tennessee, and Muhlenburg, reported, recommending that the matter of the division of that Presbytery be referred to the Synod of Kentucky to do what it may seem to them the wishes and interests of the churches concerned may require; and that that part which refers to the formation of the new Synod be referred to the Synods of Kentucky and West Tennessee and all the Presbyteries concerned, to report to the next General Assembly.

The Committee on the boundary line between the Synods of New Jersey and Philadelphia reported, recommending the reference of that subject to the consideration of those Synods, and the report was adopted.

Judicial case, No. 1, was taken up, being the complaint of Messrs. Coulter and Young against the Synod of Pittsburgh, when the Moderator read the rule reminding the members of their high character as a court of Jesus Christ, and of the solemn duty in which they were about to act. The documents in the case were then read; when, after some progress had been made, the case was recommitted to the Judicial Committee, further to examine and arrange the papers.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Indiana, Northern Indiana, and West Tennessee, reported that those records had not been put into their hands, and they were accordingly discharged. And on motion, those Synods are directed to send up their records to the next Assembly.

The Report on Parochial Schools was taken up, and adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix. In was, on motion, Resolved further, That the whole subject of the report be referred to the Board of Education, that they may, from time to time, report to the General Assembly any further action which may be needed for extending through our churches a system of Parochial Schools.

On motion,

Resolved, That in view of the present posture of our national affairs, and of the great and dreadful evils of war, it be earnestly recommended to all our churches to humble themselves before Almighty God, with confession of their own sins and of the sins of the people, and to engage in fervent and continued prayer, that as individuals and as a nation we may be forgiven; that there may be a speedy, righteous, and amicable adjustment of all existing difficulties with other nations; and that we may be permitted to enjoy, without interruption, the blessings of peace.

Resolved, That all pastors, and all others preaching statedly, be requested to bring this subject before the several churches in which they minister, on the first Sabbath of July, or as soon after as it may be convenient, and to urge upon our people, the duty pointed out in the foregoing resolution.

On motion, the reply to the Synod of Canada was taken up, and indefinitely postponed. It was Ordered, That the letter of the Synod of Canada, and the answer thereto be placed on file.

The Judicial Committee reported upon case No. 1, as follows, viz.

The Judicial Committee report, that in the case of complaint of Loyal Young and John Coulter against a decision of the Synod of Pittsburgh, the records of the Presbytery from which an appeal to the Synod in the case complained of are wanting, and they deem those records essential to a full understanding of the case; and therefore recommend that the complaint be referred to the next General Assembly, and that the Synod of Pittsburgh be directed to have all the documents duly authenticated forwarded to that Assembly, provided the complainants choose to prosecute their complaint.

The Assembly then took a recess till 8 o'clock this evening.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The Assembly met.

The report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Publication, was taken up, and after amendment was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the annual Report of the Board of Publication together with certain memorials touching the operations of said Board, beg leave to propose to the Assembly for its adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the report be approved, and returned to the Officers of the Board for publication.

2. Resolved, That the experience of each successive year has furnished increasing evidence of the high importance of this enterprise, as a means of diffusing those religious truths, which our Church holds dear, and of promoting purity of doctrine and a spirit of enlightened piety throughout our bounds. And while, in view of the encouraging success which has thus far attended the undertaking, we would thank God for the favour he has been pleased to show it; we would call on our ministers and churches to lend a more vigorous support by their patronage and their prayers to an institution which is continually sending forth streams of healthful influence, to make glad the city of our God.

3. Resolved, That we view, with much satisfaction, the pious liberality of those friends of the Board, whose contributions have enabled it to make donations of libraries to a number of ministers, destitute churches, and Sabbath schools; and we would earnestly recommend this mode of doing good to all, who have it in their power.

4. Resolved, That it affords us peculiar pleasure to find, among the works published by the Board, so large a number, specially adapted to the young, and well fitted for a place in the libraries of Sabbath schools, and that we recommend to pastors and church sessions, to take measures, for introducing these publications generally into their Sabbath schools.

5. Resolved, That in the spirit of recommendations made by former and also to establish, where it is practicable, Depositories, to be owned and managed by themselves.

Further, in reference to the alteration of works published by the Board, concerning which this Assembly has been memorialized, the Committee report, that on examination, they find but one instance stated, in which such a measure was adopted; and this consisted in the omission of a paragraph on the subject of slavery in one of the books republished by them.

Although the General Assembly have never given any explicit directions, to guide the Board in republishing foreign works, they appear to have made it a rule to themselves never to alter historical statements, never to put sentiments into an author's lips, which he did not hold.

In the case complained of, the proof reader of the Executive Committee, in revising for the press, omitted the passage, from an apprehension that, if it was retained, the Church might regard the Board as assuming the right to dictate on a much litigated subject, and that too in a way seemingly at variance with the general sentiments of the Church. He therefore concluded, that to omit the passage would be the safer course and the one least likely to give offence to any portion of the Church; for if the Board might publish sentiments on one side of this vexed question, they might also on the other. When however, the subject of this omission was brought before the Board, the passage, by their order, was restored.

In view of these facts, your Committee are of opinion that no censure, in the present instance is demanded. And to prevent any ground of blame for the future, they recommend, that it be enjoined on the Board to exercise special caution, so as to avoid any thing, which might be justly interpreted, as a mutilation of books republished by them.

The report of the Committee on the memorial of the Presbytery of Louisiana, on the power of Synods to order meetings of Presbyteries, was taken up, and referred to the next Assembly.

The report of the Committee to whom was referred overture No. 13, on the Demission of the Ministerial Office, was read and referred to the next Assembly.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Pittsburgh, presented a report recommending approval, except of those parts which refer to the case of A. L. Robinson, which has been referred to the next General Assembly, respecting which this Assembly express no opinion. The report was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on Overture No. 9, the memorial from the Synod of Alabama, requesting an additional column for coloured communicants, was taken up, pending which, the Assembly adjourned.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY Morning, June 4.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes were read and approved.

The unfinished business of last evening was resumed; and, on motion, the prayer of the Memorial of the Synod of Alabama was granted, and an additional column for coloured communicants ordered to be inserted in the Statiscal reports of Presbyteries.

The answer to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland was read, and adopted, and ordered to be signed by the Moderator and Permanent Clerk, attested by the Stated Clerk, and transmitted to said Assembly.

Mr. R. M. White, offered a Protest for himself and others, against the action of the Assembly on the subject of Slavery, which was read, and put into the hands of Messrs. Musgrave and Backus, to prepare an answer.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to pay to the Stated Clerk, the bills for incidental expenses.

On motion,

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly be tendered to the citizens of Philadelphia for their kindness and hospitality to the members of this body during the present sessions; and also to the Trustees of the Tenth Presbyterian Church for the use of their house of worship for the sessions of the Assembly.

The Committee appointed to answer the Protest of R. M. White and others, presented a Report, which was read and adopted, and, together with the Protest, ordered to be entered on the Minutes: viz.

PROTEST.

We, the undersigned, respectfully protest against the action of this Assembly in the adoption of the report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on the subject of Slavery, upon the ground that that report declares further action on this subject to be unnecessary. But as this Assembly has since taken the action we desired, by the resolution subsequently adopted, we ask that this paper be recorded as explanatory of our vote on this subject.

Robert M. White, A. T. Hendricks,
James A. McGee, Joseph H. Chambers.
Josiah D. Smith.

ANSWER TO THE PROTEST.

The Committee appointed to prepare an answer to the Protest of Robert M. White and others, in reference to the resolution adopted by the Assembly on the subject of Slavery, recommend the adoption of the following minute, viz: The Assembly did not regard the additional resolution which was adopted, as taking any further action on the subject of Slavery, but as explanatory of the true meaning and design of the resolution previously adopted.

The Committee to whom had been recommitted the Report on the Narrative of the state of Religion, presented a report, which was adopted, and was ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The roll was then called, and the following persons found to be absent without leave, viz., Messrs. Miller, Cheeseman, Shaw, Torrance, Hilands, Cummings, Barr, Coffey, Weaver, King, Houston, Barrett, Gibson, Porter, Calhoun, Dow, Strong, McGee, and A. H. Rogers.

The minutes were then read and approved.

The Assembly having finished their business, it was

Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved, and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church, in the city of Richmond, Virginia, on the third Thursday of May, 1847, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Accordingly, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly with singing, prayer, and the apostolical benediction.

ROBERT DAVIDSON, PERMANENT CLERK.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4th, 1846.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, AND ADDRESSED TO THE CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE.

DEAR BRETHREN—In presenting to you a narrative of the religious condition of our Church during the past year, we desire briefly to exhibit the most interesting and prominent facts, and to address to you a few counsels and exhortations which these suggest.

It is our painful duty to announce—what to most of you is but too well known—that the last year has been one of general spiritual drought and barrenness. From not a few of our churches the converting influences of the Spirit seem to have been wholly withdrawn: and in a large majority of those churches to which members have been added, the number is far smaller than in former years.

The mention of such facts will prepare you for the announcement of another of the same melancholy character; namely, that the professed people of God generally have evinced less of the vitality of godliness, and more of the spirit of the world. In this respect, indeed, our church is in the same condition with those branches of the Church, which are in correspondence with us. But so far from reconciling us to our present languishing state, this alarming fact should awaken a more anxious desire to know wherefore God has withdrawn to such a degree the quickening and renewing influence of his Spirit. It should lead us to a more solemn and searching scrutiny of our hearts and lives; to a deeper humiliation of ourselves under the frown of an offended God; to more importunate supplications for the visitations of his grace; and to more zealous endeavours to glorify Him with our bodies and spirits which are his.

But while "unto us belongeth confusion of face, to the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him." "He hath not dealt with us according to our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities:" but in the midst of wrath has remembered mercy. From nearly twenty of our Presbyteries we have received the grateful intelligence, that special manifestations of the Spirit's power have been enjoyed by them: and it is an additional ground for rejoicing that these revivals of God's work have been characterized by quiet, solemnity, and order: and that they have generally occurred in connexion with the use of the ordinary means of grace. The Head of the Church by thus honouring this stated and established instrumentality, has taught us that we may and ought to look for his blessing, when we diligently, humbly, and prayerfully employ such means, without adding to them measures of doubtful propriety and dangerous tendency.

It is also a ground of gratitude and of hope, that so much attention has been directed to the religious training of our youth in our Sabbath schools, and by means of Bible-class, and catechetical instruction furnished by pastors. The advantages accruing to the Church from these modes of instruction, are so manifest and abundant, that we deem it superfluous to add any thing to the testimony of preceding Assemblies in their favour. But in recommending and rejoicing in the use of these means, we ought not to lose sight of a yet more important mode of discharging our duty to the children of the Church; to wit, their private religious instruction. To train up children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, is a duty which God has imposed primarily upon parents; and which they cannot, without sin, delegate to others. No kind nor measure of public instruction should be allowed to supersede the systematic religious training of children around the domestic altar, and by those to whom God has chiefly entrusted this work, and of whom he will chiefly demand an account. This Assembly has reason to fear that a mistaken sense of duty in this matter, has led many christian parents and guardians to commit almost the whole work of catechetical and other religious training, to the hands of others; and it would earnestly exhort every Christian to remember, that Sunday school and other teachers, are but auxiliaries in the work of a pious education; while parents are, by the authority of God, appointed the principals in this matter; and should they prove delinquent in the discharge of their solemn trust, they cannot reasonably expect the Divine blessing upon any other means which may have supplanted them. It is gratifying to learn, that the efforts to promote the cause of temperance, continue to be attended with a good measure of success.

While this Assembly has ascertained with pleasure that the Sabbath is outwardly sanctified by the people composing our congregations, it has learned with regret and alarm from the reports of the Presbyteries, that the desecration of this holy day continues to be a flagrant sin in various parts of our land. Frequent, earnest, and solemn as have been the exhortations of previous Assemblies to the ministers and members of our church as to their respective duties in this matter, we cannot forbear to reiterate their testimony to the sanctity and blessedness of this institution, and the unspeakable importance of maintaining it inviolate. The Presbyterian Church has ever been recognized by the world as the uncompromising advocate and champion of the perpetuity and binding obligation of this divine ordinance. Upon the officers and members of our Church, therefore, does it in an especial manner devolve to seek by every appropriate means, and especially by their own example, to promote the universal sanctification of this day of holy rest. Among the alleged grounds for the infliction of divine judgments on ancient Israel the desecration of the Sabbath is presented with peculiar prominence, and this Assembly feels persuaded that wherever laxity of practice is tolerated or countenanced by any church, the frown of God must abide upon that church; and wherever the desecration of this ordinance becomes general among a people, the Lord of the Sabbath may be expected to vindicate the majesty of his law by visiting them with national judgments.

It is a source of sincere rejoicing and gratitude to the Head of the Church, that amidst disheartening omens of evil, we can yet discern in the state of our church some tokens of good. Among these we may mention a marked increase in the pecuniary contributions of our people to the various objects of charity claiming their support.

The reports of our Presbyteries show, that the amount contributed to the Boards of the Church, and to other charities, has decidedly increased within the year. Now while the mere donation of money is not in itself an evidence of love to Christ, yet is it one means by which we are to judge of the sincerity of a professed attachment to him. And on the other hand, where such evidence is wanting, there is too much reason to infer that these professions are but "as sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal." The spirit of Jesus Christ necessarily prompts to liberality in our benefactions: for it is the spirit of him, who "though he was rich, yet for our sakes became poor, that we through his poverty might be made rich," and who has thus taught his disciples, by example as well as by precept, that "it is more blessed to give, than to receive."

We cannot but hope that the augmentation in the amount devoted to the Lord's service by the members of our Church, is indicative of a deepening conviction of duty to serve the Master with this important talent. But increased as is the zeal of the Church in this department of its duty, it still falls immeasurably short of what it should be, and must be. We therefore, renewedly and earnestly exhort the members of all our churches, not merely to give, but to give liberally; to give upon principle and upon system to the loud and multiplied calls of benevolence. We would remind you, that it is, and ought to be esteemed a privilege not less than a duty, thus to consecrate your substance to Him, who has made you his stewards and almoners; and who does as truly claim a right to your property as to your hearts. We would address our exhortation to the poor, as well as to the rich; for to the poor equally with the rich is the promise made, "the liberal soul shall be made fat;" and "he that watereth shall be watered also himself." We would exhort you to give according as God has prospered you; and we would remind you, that there is no safety for an individual, or for a church whose wealth is increasing, except in a proportionate increase of liberality. If, while wealth is flowing in upon a church, or a church member there be not an ample outlet to that wealth, in the form of charitable benefactions, the spirit of piety will be quenched by the spirit of worldliness. And we would remind you, brethren, that as the Providence of God opens new and wider fields of usefulness to his Church, we must expect yet larger demands to be made upon our liberality; and we must promptly and cheerfully meet them.

Another cheering token in the state of our Church is the growing interest manifested in behalf of a portion of our population, which in every part of our land has been too much overlooked by Christians in their efforts to promote the Redeemer's cause. We allude to the coloured people of this country. In the Southern States especially, means more enlarged, systematic, and efficient than have ever before been employed, are now in active operation, to diffuse among them the knowledge and blessings of the great salvation. Several of our ministers devote their whole time and strength to this department of labour, and through God's blessing with most cheering success.

Nor are such efforts confined to those who devote themselves exclusively to this work; the ministers and members of our Church generally have enlisted in this work of faith and labour of love with a zeal unprecedented in any period of our Church's history, and which the Assembly hope will still increase from year to year.

There are other subjects of interest, to which, if our limits permitted, we would gladly call your attention; but for brevity's sake we must forego the pleasure; not omitting, however, to inform you, that we have received from the various ecclesiastical bodies in correspondence with the General Assembly, gratifying tokens of Christian and fraternal regard; accompanied in most instances with the pleasing intelligence, that the cause of truth and holiness is manifestly on the advance among them.

In closing this brief view of our religious state, we cannot but revert to the peculiar circumstances, in which we as a people are now placed. After a long period of peace with the nations of the earth we are once more embroiled in the horrors of a foreign war. It is not our province to inquire into the immediate causes, or the necessity of such a conflict; our duty is to look beyond the secondary causes to Him who controls and directs the destiny of nations; to inquire wherefore He has thus visited our favoured land with this destructive scourge: to confess before him those national sins, which have provoked this national judgment; and humbly to plead, that while "his judgments are abroad in the earth, the nation may learn righteousness."

We exhort you, brethren, to make daily and fervent supplications to the Sovereign Ruler of nations, that he would impart wisdom to our Rulers, so that they may guide our affairs with discretion; that he would, if consistent with his righteous will, shorten the day of trouble and rebuke; and that he may overrule this fearful calamity to the furtherance of his kingdom in this and in other lands.

Signed by order of the General Assembly.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND.

VENERABLE AND BELOVED BRETHREN—We have received, at the commencement of our present sessions in the city of Philadelphia and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, your letter dated at Dublin, on the 7th day of July, 1845; which is a duplicate of your letter of the preceding year, having prefixed to it a notice of your action touching "certain resolutions on the subject of slavery, adopted by the Belfast Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Anti-slavery Society."

The reason you assign for sending to us a duplicate of your letter of last year, is that you had not, at the date of your last letter, "been favoured with an acknowledgment" of the former one. We cannot tell how this has happened; since our Assembly of last year, about the end of the month of May, sent you an answer to that letter, which ought to have reached you before the date of your present letter; and long before it was probably despatched by your Moderator and Clerks, seeing it did not reach this continent before the month of February last. A copy of that answer, which was printed in the Appendix to our Minutes of last year, is now sent to you, and will, we hope, reach you in due season.

Any communications which you may think proper to send to us, no matter what may be their original source, will be treated by us with the consideration which your approval of them cannot fail to entitle them to, in our eyes. We are not aware of any other claim that "The British and Foreign Anti-slavery Society," or its Auxiliary at Belfast, has on the notice of this Assembly.

As it regards the general subject of human liberty, it seems to us, that nothing need be said in vindication of the ardent and hereditary devotion of all the people of the United States, and amongst the rest, and perhaps somewhat specially, of the Presbyterian people of this country, to the glorious cause of true and real liberty all over the earth. If our national annals cannot be understood, we should despair of making our sentiments intelligible. We are not aware, however, that subjects of this description are the most appropriate for a correspondence between churches of the Lord Jesus Christ, since it is their particular mission to give the blessed gospel, and not free institutions to the human race.

As it regards the subject of Negro Slavery, now tolerated in about one half of the confederated States of this Union, it is, perhaps, due to ourselves and to you, seeing the deep interest you manifest in the subject, and the obviously erroneous opinions you have formed, both of it and of our relations to it—that we should make a somewhat more distinct statement than is contained in our former letter.

The relations of negro slavery, as it exists in the States that tolerate it, are twofold. Chiefly, it is an institution purely civil, depending absolutely upon the will of the civil power in the States respectively in which it exists: secondarily, it has various aspects and relations, purely or mainly moral, in regard to which the several States permit a greater or less degree of intervention. Touching the former aspect of the subject, this General Assembly has no sort of power; any more than we should have, if we met in Great Britain, over the institution of Hereditary Monarchy, or Aristocracy, or a thousand other things, which as republicans, we unanimously condemn, but which you as loyal subjects, cordially approve. Touching the latter aspect of the subject, and especially as regards the conduct of ministers and members of our own Church, we are of course, deeply concerned: and we beg to assure you, that since the foundation of our Church on this continent to the present moment, it has always recognized and tried to discharge the duties which God, in his providence, has cast upon it, in this regard. That we have done all we could, much less all we should have done, we will no more venture to assert, than we suppose you would contend that you had fully discharged your duties, during the two past centuries, to the millions of Popish idolaters who dwell around you. What we say is, that we think we comprehend our duty, in this respect, and that, from the beginning, our Church has openly recognized it, and tried to perform it, both to the masters and to their slaves: and we add, that it seems to us wholly impossible for our brethren in foreign parts, to understand what we can do, or should do, better than we do ourselves.

As to the institution of slavery in itself considered, and founding our judgment upon the condition in which it has been exhibited, first and last, in most of the States of this Union; the Presbyterian Church in the United States, has never failed to manifest a profound interest, nor shrunk from bearing a clear and constant testimony. If we have the misfortune to differ from you in regard to any part of the subject, of course we regret it. But you can hardly expect us to change our ancient, deliberate, and settled testimony on a subject for a long time and very carefully examined; nor does it appear to us to be for edification, that our sister churches in foreign countries, should steadily and strenuously condemn us in regard to matters they cannot possibly understand as well as we do, nor possibly feel in regard to them so deep and solemn a responsibility as we do. We have, therefore, only to say that our fathers from the beginning, as we ourselves now, and the Church constantly, have held and testified, that slavery as it has long existed, and does still exist in many of the States of this Union, cannot scripturally be made a term of Christian or ministerial communion; and that, on the other hand, it is an institution which this Church never did, and does not now, set itself to defend. This is the substance, very briefly, of the testimony borne from generation to generation by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, upon this point.

As we have already said, our purpose simply is to make a statement, by which you may understand exactly how this church has always viewed this subject; you will then act as your sense of duty, and propriety, shall dictate. We have, of course, no idea of discussing at large a question of this sort with you—much less of defending, in a brief letter to you, our conduct or our faith, our Church or our country, against the calumnies of ignorant or corrupt men, either in your country or ours. It is because we love and respect you, that, under all the circumstances of the case, we feel constrained to say a word on the subject: and it is because we are fully convinced of the truth of our opinions, the righteousness of our testimony, and the propriety of our conduct, that we have felt it needful to do nothing more, than state distinctly our true position. For the rest, one thing is beyond all controversy: nothwithstanding our unworthiness, our God has smiled on us and our Fathers, ever since our standard was lifted up in this vast continent—and has so blessed and enlarged us, that in about a century and a half he has brought us from a condition so feeble that we had but a single minister of the gospel, to be perhaps, the most numerous body of orthodox Presbyterians on the face of the earth; and by his grace, we believe we are more united this day, than we ever were before, and as fully resolved, by the help of God, to go forward in the glorious work to which, as we trust, we have been divinely called.

Praying God to bless you, venerable and beloved, we remain, in the bonds of Christ's gospel, faithfully and cordially your brethren and friends.

Signed by order of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

REPORTS OF DELEGATES.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF MAINE.

Baltimore, Maryland, May 20., 1846.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

Rev. and Dear Sir,—In obedience to the Commission of the last General Assembly, I attended upon the sessions of the "General Conference of Maine," held in the town of Fryeburg, on the 24th of June, 1845.

I experienced that Christian cordiality and unaffected kindness, which bind together the different denominations in their intercourse.

From their Reports upon the state of Religion and the able and cheering Report from their Board of Domestic Missions, I was constrained to believe, that they enjoyed harmony amongst themselves, and many indubitable tokens of Divine favour. Indeed, I was highly gratified with my intercourse with the brethren of Maine.

I deprecate the hint thrown out last year, that our correspondence should cease. I am sure, it would be as unjust as it would be unkind to them. They embrace a large body, of intelligent, united, and devoted men of God, who, with slight exceptions, agree with us, in maintaining the Calvinistic Creed and sound orthordox measures to push forward the final, and universal triumph of the cross of our reigning Master. Their liberality in endowing and sustaining Bangor Seminary; their vigorous and successful missionary enterprise, in the rapidly populating towns of Maine, commend them to our hearts, and enthrone them upon our judgments, as men of like precious faith with us.

Why should we break the chain that now binds the extreme East, and South, and South-West, in one holy brotherhood? Why not strengthen it?

Their sessions are almost entirely absorbed in devotional seasons of prayer, and praise, and addresses, so that they discuss but few subjects and never at any length. It is owing to this fact, that they often pass general resolutions, without much agitation.

The subject of Slavery, was very briefly discussed. I took occasion to express my surprise to that venerable body, that they would allow themselves to review the action of our Assembly, upon a vexed question, when their Constitution prohibited them from reviewing the acts of one of their inferior Associations!

I also, briefly reminded them, that the Act of 1818, was the declaration of a principle, whilst that of 1845, was a refusal to legislate about it, as Christ had set us the example. Besides, I announced to them, the utter inutility of such interference on their part, as the matter had been put to rest for ever in our denomination.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

Dear Sir,—I attended, according to appointment of the last General Assembly, the General Association of New Hampshire, at Portsmouth, in August; and according to my instructions, called the attention of that body, particularly, to our recent action on the subject of Slavery. They did not confer with your Delegate on this subject, freely, as might have been expected, from the forward faithfulness, with which they had urged it on our consideration in their letter: and the resolutions they adopted, in reference to our late action, were by no means the result of frank and full discussion. In all other respects, however, I was treated with the utmost cordiality and kindness; and what was still more gratifying than personal regard, they manifested peculiar respect for our Communion, and increasing sympathy with our views of truth and duty. They have appointed delegates to attend the next meeting of our Assembly: and the excellent character of their ministry, as well as the interesting exercises and solemnities of their annual meeting, should incline us to cherish the existing correspondence.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF VERMONT.

Philadelphia, May 21st, 1846.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

The undersigned appointed by the Assembly of 1845, to attend as a Delegate, the meetings of the General Convention of Vermont, respectfully reports, that he attended to the duty assigned him and met the Convention at Danville in June last, to which month, he would remark for the benefit of future delegates the time of meeting, is transferred. He is happy to say that he was received with great Christian courtesy and kindness, and had his spirits refreshed by the fellowship of these worthy brethren. They evinced great interest in the statements he had the privilege of making, with reference to the movements of our church, and the actions of our Boards—much interest was excited among them by statements concerning the operation of our Publication Board, in diffusing a religious and theological literature, common to us and the descendants of the Puritans.

The Convention appointed a Delegate to represent them in this Assembly, whose name, the undersigned was pleased to hear announced by the Committee on Commissions. The sympathy which binds us, to the New England church, becomes daily, more vigorous and our church will never be unwilling to reciprocate friendly overtures, or be slow in uniting with those who so much resemble us, in the great doctrines of revelation, in the grand conflicts, which are approaching to shake terribly the earth. All which is respectfully submitted.

Yours in the fellowship of Christ Jesus.

THOMAS L. JANEWAY.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATIONS OF MASSACHUSETTS AND CONNECTICUT.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

REV. AND DEAR SIR.—The undersigned, appointed by the General Assembly for 1845, a Delegate to the General Association of the State of Connecticut and to the General Association of the State of Massachusetts, begs leave to report that he attended to the duties of his appointment. The General Association of Connecticut was held in Plainfield, on the 17th of June, and the General Association of Massachusetts met in Westminster on the 24th day of the same month.

The delegate was received in both the Associations with much Christian kindness and courtesy; and was invited to lay before them an account of the condition of the Church which he represented.

Each of the Associations, in a spirit of reciprocal courtesy, appointed Delegates to represent them in the General Assembly for the present year.

All which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE EVANGELICAL CONSOCIATION OF RHODE ISLAND.

To the General Assembly of 1846.

The undersigned reports, that agreeably to appointment of the last Assembly, he met the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, at Slatersville, in June last, and was admitted to a seat, and to a participation in the exercises and deliberations had on the occasion. It is a small but harmonious and efficient body, and seems to be contributing liberally, according to its ability, to the futherance of the Gospel. It is connected, by an exchange of delegates, with various other branches of the Church of Christ. Such connexion is seemly among brethren of the great Christian family. It is useful, also, as it tends to allay prejudice, and to prepare the way for concentrated action, on suitable occasions, for the advancement of the kingdom and glory of our common Lord and Saviour. May it long continue, and prove a blessing to all concerned! The next meeting of the Consociation is to be in Westerly, near Stonington, early in the ensuing month.

Respectfully submitted.

Philadelphia, May 22d, 1846. WILLIAM NEILL.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The undersigned, having been appointed delegate by the last Assembly to the German Reformed Synod, reports, that he attended the meeting of said Synod, which was held in the borough of York, Pennsylvania, in October last; and was received apparently with great cordiality. Your delegate, owing to peculiar circumstances at the time, was able to attend their sessions but a few days. He was, however, while present with them, highly gratified with the spirit and manner in which their deliberations were conducted. This branch of the Church of God appears to be rapidly enlarging her boundaries with increasing zeal and energy. A copy of the Minutes of the last Assembly was, by direction, presented to the Synod. In a report on these Minutes adopted by them, it will be seen how that body respectfully notice the sentiments of fraternal regard expressed by the Assembly. It speaks thus, "The kind regards cherished by the German Reformed Synod towards that highly respectable body, (the General Assembly,) appear to be cordially reciprocated, and an increasing interest is manifestly taken in all that concerns the spiritual progress and prosperity of this Church."

JAMES WILLIAMSON.

Milton, Pennsylvania, May 15th, 1846.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, MAY, 1846.

The phrase Parochial Schools must be used with a certain latitude in such a country as ours; inasmuch as, having no established church, we can have no parishes, strictly so called. At the same time, the analogy which exists between Presbyterian institutions, in the old world and the new, and the identity of wants in the two, justify us in employing these familiar terms, in reference to schools connected with congregations, and under church authority. And the question proposed, as understood by your Committee, is whether it is desirable and practicable to institute any such schools in the United States.

In the very outset, it is important to be observed, that all precedents derived from the Reformed churches in Europe must fail in several particulars, from the absence of State connexion, already noted, as well as from the differences of condition among us, arising from our recent settlement and thin population. And, still further, such is the diversity, even in our own States, between the north and the south, between older and newer settlements, and between city and country, that your Committee dare not hope to strike out a plan, which shall be equally suited to every part of the Church. It is this which, to some extent, seems to absolve them from the task, at which indeed they would tremble, of suggesting details, on a topic so new and so momentous.

It must however be acknowledged, that a public opinion has been maturing, in various parts of our communion, which favours the investigation now proposed, and that a wide spread and growing anxiety is manifested, in regard to the religious training of the infant population.

It cannot be expected of your Committee to discuss the questions of general education, or of Christian catechetical instruction: these have been ably treated at length, by other hands, under the direction of your venerable body. It is our province, to advert rather to that branch of popular education, which while it shall be carried on day by day, shall at the same time convey the knowledge of divine things.

If we are asked, whether the Presbyterian population of these United States can safely rely, for such scriptural training, on the common school systems of the several States; we must, reluctantly, but without a remaining doubt, answer in the negative. The question finds a prompt solution, when we consider, that our State schools, in their best estate, can teach no higher morals or religion, than what may be called the average of public morals and religion. So long as the majority do not receive the truths of grace, State schools, their creature, can never teach the gospel. In some States, it is already a matter of debate, whether the word of God shall be admitted, and even if this were settled to our wishes, it needs scarcely be said, our necessities demand something far higher than the bare reading of the Bible. In our State schools—Bible or no Bible—we have every assurance that Christ, and grace, and gospel liberty, cannot, by authority, be so much as named; and without these there can be no Christian education.

Equally vain is it to seek our invaluable ends, by aiming at a rateable proportion of public school-funds. Although such a separate maintenance has been sought by the Roman Catholics, and not without marked favour; we are too well instructed by our history to expect any such allowance for scruples and demands on the side of Presbyterianism. Nor have we learned that such a requisition has ever been attempted.

Nor can we accept the other horn of the dilemma, and by yielding to the latitudinary encroachments of the age, consent to have our children reared under a system of such compromise, as prevails in some States; and according to which the child's creed shall be so dilute as to be equally palatable to the Socinian, the Jew, or the Mussulman. For we hold it as a judgment common to us with our fathers, that we owe it to God and to our baptized offspring, to teach the rising race nothing less than the whole counsel of God, in regard to their salvation. Others will not do this work for us: nay others, whether Christian or unchristian, are doing the very opposite, with all their might.

If there is any period of life in which man receives deep impressions, it is the period of childhood. If there are any hours of childhood, in which permanent opinions are communicated, the hours spent in school are such. If there is any place, where it is important to inculcate the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, it is the place of daily, common, instruction. And with all our reverence and affection for Sabbath-schools, for which we bless the name of God, we are unwilling to let six days pass by, without a word of Christ, however faithfully he may be held forth to our offspring on the seventh.

In saying this, we do no more than re-assert the constant judgment of the best Reformed Churches. Calvin, and Knox, and the Melvilles, were not more zealous for the preaching of the Sabbath, than for the teaching of the week. In Scotland, the two went forward with equal step. Wherever there was a parish-church, there was a parish-school. The same Court which ordained the Pastor, appointed the schoolmaster. The same officebearers who ruled the Church, superintended the school. And Scotland rejoices, to this day, in a system which has made the daily lessons of every hamlet and mountain-glen the means of training up a generation armed at all points against religious error. On this topic, however familiar, we trust we may be allowed one or two additional statements. The British Act of 1803, (53 Geo. III. cap. 54.) is founded on the Scotch statute of 1696. This statute directs that a school shall be established in every parish. The same acts give the appointment of the teacher to the minister and certain others, called Heritors. And so stringent is the enactment, that if even four months elapse, without a supply, the vacancy is to be filled by the commissioners of the county or stewartry. The record of such election is carried by the schoolmaster to the Presbytery of the bounds: and upon the production of such record, the court takes trial of his competency, and receives the signature of the nominee to the Confession of Faith. As a necessary adjunct, these acts provide for the teacher's sustenance, by an annual salary, by a commodious school-house, by a dwelling-house and garden, and by certain fees, fixed by the minister and his associates. By the same acts, the superintendence of the schools is entrusted to the minister; the Presbytery is empowered to regulate the hours, and the vacations; and to animadvert on the incumbent, in all cases of just complaint. The judgment of the Presbytery is final, and is followed by civil consequences.

Such was the sedulous provision of the Scottish Church, and the state authority, for the continuance of Presbyterian education: and the spirit of the founders breathes in every clause, as it is felt in every family of Scotland. It forms no part of our inquiry, to determine how faithfully the Established Church discharged these trusts: under the worst abuses, the system has not failed to make the people of North Britain a people of peculiar Christian sagacity and information. But that which, perhaps more than all other things, testifies to the value set upon these institutions, is the course of action adopted by the Free Church. No sooner were the seceding brethren released from the bonds, and deprived of the endowments of the State, than they put their hands to the work, to reconstruct a system, precisely similar, except in the very points which furnish the happiest resemblance to our own condition. For being now, like ourselves, destitute of all aid from government, they have undertaken the work on the voluntary principle; and this, with a self-denial, an energy, and a success, such as may well fill us with astonishment and provoke us to emulation. Few readers of British news can be ignorant of the extraordinary labours of the Rev. Mr. McDonald, in collecting moneys for the schools of the Free Church.

It is not pretended that, in circumstances so different, we could wisely follow the example of our honoured brethren in every particular. But these facts seemed to lie too near the subject entrusted to your committee, to be altogether neglected in such a report. And they regret that they have not received in time more ample and minute information, for which an application has been made to Scotland, on their behalf. Even these hints will cause many to ponder upon the great support which some method of the kind, conformed to our usages and condition, would afford to the cause of truth and order.

In the midst of abounding error, we cannot close our eyes to the fact, that the gross defections of our day are mainly among those who have not had "line upon line" in the course of their common education. Our losses have been small indeed, compared with those of some sects, but the families in which Universalists, Socinians, Papists, ritualists, enthusiasts, and other errorists, have grown up, are notoriously families in which our catechisms have been sneered at, or at least neglected. The colour which has been washed out of the web, was never received by a deep dye into the raw material. Our children may live to see an age of conflict. The contest of our sons, it appears to some among us, is to be between Christ and Antichrist; and the forces are marshalling. The uncatechized offspring of Presbyterians are good materials for hierarchical, ritual, and at length papal structures. And the errorists of the schools last indicated, are too wise in their generation not to seize on the policy which our supineness overlooks. They know the power of schools. They found them in every part of our land. They employ them as the direct means of imbuing the youthful mind with all their most distinctive and dangerous tenets, in regard to rites, and orders, and sacraments, as opposed to Christ and his free salvation. Such being the neglect of our own body, and the zeal and diligence of our opposers, we are ready to conclude, that next to the ministry of the word, and the instruction of the family, there is nothing which, under God's blessing, promises so much for the sustentation of our covenanted truth, as schools, Presbyterian schools, thorough-paced and above-board; such schools as shall, every day in the week, direct the infant mind, not only to a meager natural religion, but to the whole round of gracious truth, as it is in Christ Jesus. The principles herein asserted are not new among us: but it is high time that we should carry our principles into action.

The ideal of such a school as is proposed already occurs to almost every reflective mind: to realize it, is, we admit, more difficult. Our desire would be for a Christian school, of respectable literary and scientific character, in every congregation. The proposal is doubtless startling: but we shall not lose by aiming high.

Even if we admit the impracticability of securing this, in such a population as ours, there is a certain approximation, which we may profitably hold up before our minds. Concessions must be made to the valid objections of respected brethren. Allowance must be had for such circumstances as forbid the attempt, in its completeness, in many, perhaps in most of our congregations; such as poverty—thin population—rural dispersion—the mingling of small groups of Presbyterians among other sects. But after all this abatement, the question is not to be hastily set aside: Is there not still something to be discreetly and hopefully attempted, in this very direction? In cities, towns, and country districts of homogeneous population, a near approach might be attained. Only grant the general principle of distinctive instruction, in common schools, under church care, as a matter to be aimed at, and a new face will begin to be put upon the whole affair of education. Wisdom will be profitable to direct, how far any given church shall go. The principle would abide firm, if several churches, or even a whole Presbytery, should unite in a school. The endeavour, under every variety of application, would be to exchange our present schools, in which the doctrines of grace are often unheard of, for institutions aiming at Education for Christ; including the nurture of ministers, ruling-elders, and godly laymen. And the church might at least authorize methods leading towards this as the proper end of every school, academy, and college.

Could we in any degree, realize the maxims of education thus expressed, in a working scheme of church-schools, we should see growing around us a host of young persons, every one of whom would have, "from a child, known the Holy Scriptures:" and who, instead of being nourished on books from which every particle of evangelical truth has been carefully filtered out by school-committees and temporizing state-directors, would have learned the same thorough doctrinal matter, which gave strength to our forefathers.

Church-schools, could such flourish among us, would immediately act upon the supply of ministers. It is vain to hope for a stronger body of leaders, unless we can make our levies from a larger number of educated youth. And here a view of the subject presents itself, as connected with education for the ministry, which is too important to be overlooked, and which has long occupied the minds of those who are solicitous for a learned and able ministry. There are difficulties in the present methods of training youth for the sacred office, which might be lessened, if not removed, by a system of parish-schools. So far as that system goes into effect, it will furnish primary instruction to all our young men of suitable capacity and promise. When such persons require aid from our Board of Education, they may receive it at an advanced stage of their training. In this there would be a double advantage. First, because the Board would thereby be absolved from the charge of elementary education, already a burden to them; and secondly, because they would be liable to fewer risks from incompetent beneficiaries. It appears from the statistics of that Board, that one-third of the applicants for aid are in this very stage of juvenile training. It further appears, that where failures have occurred, during the last six years, nine out of every ten have occurred in the case of candidates taken up during this preparatory stage. And let it be remembered, by those who are discouraged by such cases, that at so early a period of development, it is almost impossible to judge with any precision as to the real character and qualifications. And yet, however hazardous or even unwise it may be, to receive such youth, at this early stage, we cannot do without them: the Church needs them; the Church must educate them. If we leave them to struggle for themselves, one of these two results must inevitably ensue; either many will be lost to the Church and the ministry, for want of assistance, who are eminently fitted for usefulness; or else local societies will spring up, all over the Church, to impair the unity and strength of our present system. How much simpler, and how much more congenial with our polity, to have every congregation a nursery of Christian men, who may be called out, if need be, to the ministry. For it is a favourable peculiarity of the method, that the boy thus trained for the church, in a parish school, need not have extorted from him a premature engagement to preach the gospel; often a snare to himself and a mortification to his patrons. In these two respects, therefore, a scheme of parish-schools would rather relieve than embarrass our Board of Education. It would, moreover, bring forward a great body of talent which, under the present system, cannot be developed at all. And, meanwhile, the applicants for the aid of the Board would be fully tried, and that aid could be limited to young men of any desired standing, as to piety, capacity, and general influence.

It may seem chimerical, to speak of remote results, while the very inception of such a scheme is matter of doubt; but that which is ultimate in the intention, is not seldom weighty as a motive to begin. We, therefore, venture to suggest, that, if parish-schools could become part of our system, some among them, in favourable sites, might be cherished in such a manner as to become academies of high rank in the literary scale. Nor is it incredible, that in many of them, a series of classes might ascend from the youngest, each one accessible only to the more promising for talents and piety of the class below; so as to sift out the very best of the students for the service of our beloved church. Some method of this sort, even though only half executed, would do more to strengthen our ministry, than all our existing random efforts.

Whatever may be the value of these hints, touching education for the ministry, your Committee feel assured that the Assembly will admit, with them, the importance of the general topic. Our children must have such a discipline, as shall include the knowledge of salvation; and, not by snatches, at distant intervals, but by that reiteration of daily "precept upon precept," which imbues the whole mind and is the prime ingredient of common school tuition.

After all, however, that has been written above, we are painfully impressed with the difficulty and importance of what remains; namely, the indication of ways and means for the attainment of the ends proposed. Among the great number of our brethren who agree in desiring a system of religious education which shall include the vital doctrines of our covenanted testimony, there are not a few, who despair of ever securing it. It is not to be denied, that the difficulties are formidable, and that there is reason to shrink from adding a new requisition upon the liberality of our people, at a time when it is found hard even to sustain the ministry of the word. And we may, we trust, be pardoned, if, after all the meditation bestowed on this branch of the subject, we should nevertheless betray our reluctance to submit a method of supply, which shall be fitted to every portion of the Church. It is less seasonable, just now, to adjust this, than to awaken attention to the reality and greatness of our want: and it is not too much to hope, that when we shall be ready to attempt the work, we shall find some means for accomplishing that which appears so necessary to our carrying on the labours of the gospel.

That parish-schools must be to a certain portion of the community free-schools, is evident, at first sight. In a sermon of Dr. Chalmers, upon this very subject, published many years ago, but never reprinted in America, that experienced friend of education and of the poor, argues with much force, that, in every case, a part of the expense, even though it were a very small part, should be borne by the persons receiving the immediate advantage. Even where schools are entirely free, in respect to those who directly profit by them, they may, nevertheless, as is at once apparent, draw their support from the congregation, or other community, for whose benefit they are founded. It is the obtaining of this support, in an easy and equitable manner, which constitutes the difficulty of the problem now suggested, through us, by the General Assembly to the Church. Were the greatness of the benefit duly appreciated, so that our congregations should feel willing to add to the sum which sustains the pastor, the additional sum which would sustain the teacher, the problem would be solved. And whenever the experiment shall be fairly made, Christian parents will find, that they are amply repaid in the persons of their offspring, and that it is in a good degree a mere diversion of a small stream of domestic outlay from the channel of schools as now existing, to the better channel of Christian education. But it is too much to exact, that such a revolution should be attempted at once; still less, can we expect that it should be made part of a uniform church-scheme. Your Committee, therefore, have none such to offer.

The analogy of Scottish Presbyterianism, as established by law, entirely fails us here; and we are as yet, uninformed of the plans adopted by the Free Church. While we await more full instruction on this point, we may remark, that even in Scotland, the means of parish education have been sometimes aided by individual bounty. As a striking instance, may be mentioned, what is known as the "Dick Bequest, for the benefit of the Parochial Schoolmasters and Schools in the counties of Aberdeen, Banff, and Moray," now for ten years in successful operation. This bequest consists of funds bequeathed by James Dick, Esq., of Finsbury Square,

London; amounting, at present, to a capital sum of £118,787 11s. (more than half a million of dollars.)*

In our own country, examples are not entirely wanting of benevolent regard for the same object. Allusion to these may answer several valuable purposes, especially that of showing that church schools have been actually attempted in America: a fact which is perhaps new to a large number of our members. The parochial school attached to the Scotch Presbyterian Church, in the city of New York, as the result of a munificent foundation, has been long in existence, is largely attended, and is believed to be of great value. In several other churches, and more particularly in each of the new churches, founded by private liberality, parish schools are in successful progress. The limits of this report exclude detail; but, so far as the experiment has been made, both pastors and parents are disposed to regard it as promising solid advantages to the people, and peculiar additions of strength to the Church.

No inquiries of your Committee, however, have resulted in bringing to their knowledge any churches which by an original effort, in their congregational capacity, have founded schools under the care of the Sessions. The attempt, if made, must therefore be upon untried ground. Yet we are not deterred from re-asserting the opinions respectfully suggested above, and in recommending that the General Assembly give the sanction of their voice to some principles which may encourage future experiments in this most interesting field.

In conclusion, the Committee respectfully submit the following resolutions, viz:

I. Resolved, That, in the judgment of the General Assembly, any scheme of education is incomplete, which does not include instruction in the Scriptures, and in those doctrines of grace which are employed by the Holy Spirit, in the renewal and sanctification of the soul.

II. That, in consideration of the blessings derived to us, through our forefathers, from the method of mingling the doctrines of our Church with the daily teachings of the school, the Assembly earnestly desire as near an approach to this method, as may comport with the circumstances of our country.

III. That the Assembly regard with great approval the attempt of such churches as have undertaken schools under their proper direction; as well as the zeal which has led individual friends of the truth to aid the same cause.

IV. That the Assembly commends the whole subject of Parochial Education to the serious attention of the Church; counselling all concerned, to regard the maintenance of gospel faith and order, in the founding of new schools, the appointment of teachers, and the selection of places of education.

The Trustees reported to the last Assembly, that in September, 1844, a convention was held, consisting of Alumni of the Seminary, and members of the Board of Trustees, and of the Board of Directors. This convention appointed the Rev. Dr. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer an agent to raise funds fully to endow the Seminary. This agency Dr. Van Rensselaer accepted, and generously declined accepting any remuneration for his services, or travelling expenses. Dr. Van Rensselaer has since his appointment been diligently and successfully engaged in his agency.

At the present meeting of the Board, Dr. Van Rensselaer made a detailed report of his agency.

From this report, the Board beg leave to make the following extracts.

The agent reports with gratitude the success which has thus far, with God's blessing, attended the important enterprise in which he has been engaged. The entire sum subscribed is $61,255.70, of which are paid, $36,917.09. It ought to be mentioned that, from the whole sum subscribed, various deductions are to be made as follows:

1. Subscribed and paid by friends in New York, for annual expenses of Seminary,		$2500 00
2. Paid from funds collected for the same object,		1853 71
3. Subscribed for Scholarships,		2226 52
Which reduces principal to		$54,675 47

The plan of the Agent, in regard to his accounts, is to leave with the minister of every church a copy of the subscription, and of the amount paid by every church. This is a security against errors, and in the event of death, would assist in verifying the accounts where any uncertainty might happen to exist.

The Agent accounts for the sum received, $36,917.09, in the following manner:

Paid to James S. Green, for annual expenses of Seminary,	$4,353 71
Do. to J. S. Green and J. Donaldson, for permanent investment,	30,100 00
Do. to J. S. Green directly, by subscribers for do.,	526 49
Do. to J. S. Green, by J. Donaldson,	95 25
Do. Balance in hands at this date,	1,841 64
Sum total received,	$36,917 09

Some of the Subscribers prefer to retain the principal in their own hands for the present. The whole sum bearing interest at this date is $40,650.00, yielding, per annum, $2404.

This sum, according to a written statement made by Dr. Van Rensselaer, is invested as follows, viz.

In Government Stocks, (by the donors,)	$7,500, at 6	per cent.
On Bond and Mortgage,	3,500, " 7	"
Do. do.	13,500, " 6	"
Notes of hand,	3,000, " 5	"
Do.	2,600, " 6	"
Principal retained in their own hands, by subscribers,	4,000, " 5	"
Do. do. do.	6,550, " 6	"
Total,	$40,650

The Librarian has reported the following additions made to the Library through the year, viz.

One hundred and thirty-six volumes purchased. One hundred and seventy-five volumes, many of them very valuable, presented by the Rev. Robert Bigger, of Westchester, Pennsylvania, an aged and poor man, who came to this country from England a few years since.

Fifty-two volumes presented by Mr. Robert Carter, Theological Bookseller, of New York. Seventeen volumes, presented by Samuel Allinson, of Locust Hill, near Yardleyville, Pennsylvania, the same being the standard works of the Society of Friends. Several books and pamphlets, in the languages of Northern India, presented by the Rev. J. E. Freeman, missionary. Six volumes on Natural Science, published at the expense of the State of New York, and one volume for the Blind, presented by James Lenox, Esq. of New York. Pastor's Hand-book, presented by the author; and two volumes, presented by Dr. Alexander W. Mitchell, of Philadelphia. A few other books have been received on exchange.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, ALLEGHENY CITY, PA.

The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, in presenting this their first annual report, beg leave to state, that the Board was duly organized on the 19th of June, 1845, as directed by the last General Assembly, and in the manner prescribed by the Charter obtained from the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

A code of By-laws has been adopted by the Board of Trustees, as provided for by the Charter.

Various meetings have been held by the Trustees, to consult about the best means for promoting the interests of the Institution—still, but little has been accomplished as yet. It is fondly hoped that the project for founding the Professorships will be crowned with success.

The Trustees would most earnestly request the Assembly, to make the usual appropriations to meet the salaries of the Professors.

Inasmuch as the duties of the Board of Directors and those of the Trustees, have not been clearly defined; the Trustees would most respectfully refer the Ass bly to the report of the Directors, as embodying all the information worthy of b communicated at the present time.

Respectfully submitted. By order of the Board of Trustees.

Besides the ten weeks of vaca following the close of the session, the Faculty are authorized to give a recess two weeks during the session, with a view of giving those connected with Seminary an opportunity of attending the meetings of their Synods and Pre teries. The Board have lost, by death, the valuable services of their late ex lent Treasurer, Mr. James D. Wood, and have appointed Francis N. he above aggregates, except the first two, present only an approximation to actual truth. This results from the incompleteness of many of the Presbyte- Reports. Two Presbyteries have not reported at all, the past year. The e is true of a large number of churches. How much this neglect affects the eral result, is illustrated by comparing the presbyterial reports of money con- ited to the Boards, with the amount received by the Boards. Thus the amount ived by the Board of Foreign Missions alone, from the churches, exceeds the unt reported to the Assembly, for that object, by about twenty thousand dollars. vith several other items of the reports.

BOARDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Abstract of the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, presented to the General Assembly, May, 1846.

During the year ending March 31, 1846, the Presbyterian Board of Publication have added to their catalogue twenty-eight new books, amounting in all to 32,750 copies. They have also published four new tracts, in 12mo. amounting to 4000 copies, four new tracts in 18mo. of the series on Popery, amounting to 4000 copies, and two new occasional tracts, amounting to 2000 copies. Whole number of volumes of new publications 42,750. They have also printed 95,000 copies of books and tracts, of new editions from stereotype plates. Total amount of issues during the year, 137,750 copies.

Their list of books will show that the Board have not been unmindful of the numerous suggestions which they have received in relation to the young. Of the twenty-eight works that were issued during the year, not less than ten are peculiarly suited to them, and may form a part of the library for Sabbath schools. In compliance moreover with the often expressed wishes of many persons in various sections of the Church, they have adopted to some extent a cheaper, and yet substantial, style of binding, especially in the smaller works, by which they are enabled to offer them at a reduction of from 15 to 25 per cent. They have also revised the whole catalogue of their books, and have reduced the prices generally, so far as the interests of the Institution would warrant.

The elegant quarto edition of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, with Scott's Notes, announced in the last Report, as in preparation, has been published, and is highly admired as a splendid specimen of the American arts.

The Board are pleased to learn that the admirable selection of Psalms and Hymns approved by the General Assembly, is in growing favour with the churches. No less than 100,000 copies have been printed since it was first published. A new set of stereotype plates, in an improved type, has been procured for the 24mo. size.

The Presbyterian Almanac, published first in the year 1843, at the request and by the counsel of many, has been continued in each succeeding year. Besides the matter contained in the Meteorological and Astronomical departments, it is enriched with copious Statistics of the Presbyterian Church, which make it a most convenient and useful manual of information, of common interest to its members.

The Board regret that hitherto the limited sale of this Tract has evinced that its value has been inadequately appreciated.

The amount of moneys received during the last year, including a balance in the Treasury of the date of last Report, is $34,281.13.

The account of the funds and the statement of our financial condition which is here presented to the Assembly, will show that the Treasury is in a healthful state, and that its affairs have been so managed as to preserve the means of the Board, from permanent diminution, according to the injunction of a former Assembly.

As it has been from the beginning their earnest desire and purpose, to manage their concerns with strict economy, they have incurred no expenses which in their opinion the interests of the institution did not require.

And as the capital is not furnished (as in the case of the American S. S. Union and other societies) by an annual contribution of the churches, but is created by the sales of the books, it must necessarily fluctuate, as affected by the contingencies of business. Yet their resources would be ample, if the whole Church could be brought to sustain the Board by her practical co-operation.

They have been cheered with occasional "tokens for good" as evinced in the incipient action of several judicatories, both Presbyteries and Synods; but too many of them hitherto have stopped short of the recommendation of the Assembly of 1843, viz that "every Presbytery, or at least every Synod, establish a Depository which should be their own property, by collecting on such a plan as they may deem best, a sufficient sum of money, to fill the Depository on the principle of cash purchase." This the Board are persuaded is the only way in which this important institution can be so sustained, as to accomplish the good of which it is capable, and for which it was organized. Amid this too general backwardness of ecclesiastical bodies, however, it gives the Board pleasure to notice a noble exception in the Synod of North Carolina, who have entered upon the work of distributing their books with the most commendable zeal and success. They purchase the works, establish depositories, employ their own colporteurs, and assume the entire responsibility of conducting the business at their own expense.

The Synod of Albany likewise have acted with a degree of energy in this matter which is deserving of special notice.

Let these examples be imitated, and this mode of proceeding become general, and the utility and power of this agency for the diffusing of truth, will then be perceived and properly appreciated.

With a view to establish the cash principle in business, and at the same time increase the inducements of the purchaser, the Board have proposed to furnish ministers, students of divinity, churches and Sabbath schools, with books at the rate of $13.50 by the catalogue, for every $10 paid when the books are ordered —a virtual deduction, it will be perceived, of little less than twenty-six per cent. This proposal has met with general acceptance, and promises to be productive of extensive good.

The Board are happy to state that the suggestion of their last Report on the subject of donations has been favourably received. The liberality of some generous individuals and churches has enabled them to make donations of libraries to 21 ministers, churches and Sabbath schools, amounting in all to 2100 volumes, which at the catalogue price would cost $971.

They would offer it then again for the consideration of the benevolent, whether the fund for this interesting object shall not only be replenished, but be greatly increased.

In conclusion, the Board would say that they have been assisted in their responsible labours, and greatly encouraged, by numerous testimonials of their acceptance, and of the blessing with which they have been attended. The communications from pastors of feeble churches, missionaries and other representatives of the destitute in various parts of our country, contain many grateful recognitions of the exceeding value of the help which they have received. Others come with importunate applications, either for themselves or others; calling their attention to many an interesting case of spiritual destitution which might well claim assistance, but for the want of means. May the Great Head of the Church continue his favour towards this and every other department of Christian labour, in which we humbly trust we are co-workers with Him. May the enlightening Spirit impart increased wisdom to their counsels, and success to their exertions; give them more and more of the mind that was in Him; and thus make them meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Abstract of the Annual Report presented to the General Assembly, May 27th, 1846.

The Board of Education report to the General Assembly the following brief abstract of their proceedings, from May 14th, 1845, to April 30th, 1846:

The number of new candidates received during this period has been 67, making in all from the beginning 1567.

The whole number on the list of the Board during the year has been THREE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FIVE. Of these there have been,

In their Theological course,	125
In their Collegiate course,	178
In their Academical course,	51
Stage of study unknown,	4
Teaching to procure funds,	27
Total,	385

During the year, FORTY-EIGHT of our candidates have finished their course of study, nearly all of whom have entered upon the active duties of the ministry. Of this number, four have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, and expect to sail shortly for their respective fields of labour.

The total amount of receipts last year, (including a loan of $2000,) was $34,953.25. This sum was given by about one-third of our churches. An effort will be persevered in to awaken a more general interest on the subject of education for the ministry.

The whole history of the Church confirms the sentiment taught expressly in many passages of Scripture, and by implication, on every page of the New Testament, that the great agency appointed and employed of God in the work of instructing and saving men, is the living ministry of Christianity. It follows, therefore, that the whole interest and responsibility involved in that mighty work, travels back through the successive stages of instrumentality, and fixes in all its magnitude upon the primary business of furnishing and training ministers of the gospel. And this most important and vital work is precisely the one in which the Board of Education is embarked, with all its zeal and wisdom and energy. It is not merely the support of a few poor young men, struggling into the ministry:—it is to promote, by every wise means, the great cause of Christian Education; to bring the obligations and claims of the ministry before the minds of Christian parents, and to enthrone them in the hearts of the young men of our church. So far as they are successful, the effect will be to awaken new and higher views of parental responsibility, to extend and hallow the means and objects of primary Christian Education, to fill our various institutions of learning with youth either personally consecrated to the service of God, or such as may afterwards be baptized with its spirit. Such is the vast, and comprehensive and solemn scope of our agency. Every sermon that is preached, every influence that emanates from our office, is intended to exalt the work of the ministry, and to furnish the means and hasten the results of Christian instruction, not only throughout our own country, but throughout the world.

There has been a decrease for the last two years, in the number of candidates applying for the benefit of the funds of the Church; and during the last year, there has also been a decrease in the whole number on the rolls of the Board. To this significant fact, the earnest attention of the churches is solemnly invoked. If, as the Board are fully persuaded, a like decrease has occurred among those candidates for the ministry, who are not dependent upon the support of the Church, it indicates a state of things, deplorable in itself, and alarming in its future aspects. The grand reason of the diminished number of applicants for aid, is the low state of religion throughout our churches. The baptism of the Spirit has been in a great degree withheld; and the necessary result is, that very few young men, comparatively, have been brought into the Church, during the last two years; and of those who are professors of religion, comparatively few appear to be under the influence of that powerful spirit of self-sacrificing devotion, which alone can constrain young men of eminent gifts, to forego the allurements of worldly greatness, and devote themselves to such a work as the gospel ministry.

It is not simply a decrease of candidates for the ministry, that we regard with apprehension. It is the degeneration in point of talents, learning, and piety, which must result from the mournful decrease of that divine influence, which alone can call to such a service, the choicest minds, and the purest and noblest hearts among our youth. And this fearful evil, it should be observed, is to be apprehended not only in the case of the beneficiaries of the Board, but also, and equally among all our candidates for the sacred office.

In view of this object, the General Assembly has set apart the first Sabbath of December next, as a day of special supplication to the Lord of the harvest—on which occasion also our ministers have been recommended to preach upon the obligations of the Church in reference to a pious and educated ministry.

BOARD OF MISSIONS (DOMESTIC).

Abstract of the Annual Report of the Board of Missions for 1846.

The year now closed has been marked with peculiar favour to the cause of Domestic Missions in the Presbyterian Church. The whole number of missionaries in commission during the year has been three hundred and eighty-three. Of these two hundred and seventeen were in commission when the year commenced, and one hundred and sixty-six have been new appointments during the year. This is in advance of any former year. The whole number of congregations and missionary stations supplied, exceeds eleven hundred. This is largely in advance of any former period. The field of labour has been extended, and a number of new and important missionary stations have been occupied. Much itinerant labour has been performed; a large proportion of the missionaries have supplied several stations, at considerable distances from each other, and embracing wide sections of country. And the missionaries generally, in the new States and Territories, have spent less or more time in itinerant labours.

There have been added to the churches, so far as we have been able to gather from the reports received, on examination, about eighteen hundred members; on certificate, about twelve hundred, making a total of three thousand.

About fifty new churches have been organized, and more than one hundred houses of worship have been erected.

Sabbath schools and Bible classes have greatly increased, both in number and interest, and there has been, also, a very decided and encouraging advance in the attention paid to catechetical instruction. We have reported more than one thousand such schools and classes, in which the missionaries are training up the children and youth in the knowledge of God's word.

The cause of Temperance has advanced, and advanced on principles which promise to secure its onward progress.

Increased attention has been paid to pastoral family visitations; we have reported more than twenty-three thousand families to whom pastoral visits have been paid. These visits, in very many instances, have been marked with peculiar interest, and have been productive of much good, both to ministers and people. The missionaries have engaged extensively in the circulation of religious tracts, and in the distribution of Bibles and standard religious books. These tracts and books are important auxiliaries to the missionaries in their work. The general circulation of the valuable books of our own Board of Publication, is an object greatly to be desired.

Our mission churches generally have evinced a growing interest in the benevolent operations of the day, and, in proportion to their means, have given liberally to sustain the institutions of the Church. Between five and six thousand dollars have been collected for the support of missions at home and in foreign lands, and a considerable amount has been contributed to other benevolent objects.

From the reports of the missionaries there is much reason to fear, the sin of Sabbath breaking has rather increased, than lessened during the year. A prominent cause assigned for this is the great influx of foreigners, and their dispersion through all parts of our country. This is a subject of fearful import, and should arrest the attention, enlist the feelings, and call forth the prayers, and efforts of all the friends of Christ and his cause.

The reports from the missionaries, with scarcely an exception, state, that the attendance on preaching has been good; that the people hear with interest, and that there is a growing desire, in all portions of the field, to enjoy the stated ministrations of God's word, and the ordinances of his house.

In regard to the state of religion generally in our mission churches, while there are some things over which we are called to mourn, there is much, very much, to cheer our hearts, and encourage us in our work. In some few of these churches, it has been a season of coldness and barrenness, but we rejoice in being able to say, this state of things has existed in comparatively few of our mission churches. In much the larger portion of them, while there has been no special revival of religion, there has been increased attention to the means of grace, and a growing interest in God's truth. In very many of these churches there are at this time, encouraging tokens of God's special presence; and in a considerable number, there have been precious revivals of religion. The past year has been a year of increase, and unusual prosperity to the missionary cause. God has signally owned the labours of his Church in this important department of her work, and all the indications of his Providence, unite with his word, and his Spirit, in calling upon his people to pray more fervently, give more liberally and cheerfully, and labour more diligently for the advancement of the cause of Domestic Missions.

Funds.—The whole amount of funds at the disposal of the Board during the year has been fifty-five thousand eight hundred dollars. This is exclusive of what has been raised, and disbursed by the Synod of Mississippi. The balance on hand, at the close of the year, exceeds seven thousand dollars. The whole amount at the disposal of the Board the past year, exceeds that of the preceding year by about seven thousand dollars. A large amount of valuable clothing has, also, been received for the use of the missionaries and their families, for which the Board are greatly indebted to benevolent females in our churches. These boxes of clothing have been of great value to our missionaries. The Board have, also, the privilege of stating, that so far as reports have been received from the missionaries, they have been paid up; that during the year, the Board have been able to meet promptly all their payments; that no applications for appointment have been declined for want of funds, and no suitable missionary, willing to go where his services were needed, and called for, has been kept from the field a single day. For this favourable state of things, the Board feel it is but an act of justice in them, to acknowledge their indebtedness, and the indebtedness of the Church, to the noble liberality of a well-known friend of this, and every other good cause. Through favour of God, the Board are thus able to close the year, and enter on the duties and responsibilities of a new year, under peculiarly propitious circumstances. And it is fondly hoped, that God's special kindness in this matter will encourage the churches, and urge them to new and greatly increased efforts for this cause. Such efforts will be absolutely necessary to sustain the cause in its present state of prosperity, and to meet the greatly increased demands, which will certainly be made. It is the deliberate conviction of the Board, in view of facts now before them, that double the amount, ever yet contributed by our churches in a single year to this object, is a moderate estimate, of what will be absolutely needed to carry forward this work with energy, and meet the demands that will be made. And for such a cause, in which are involved the best interests of our country, and the salvation of our own countrymen, surely means will not be wanting. May God send a reviving spirit, and wake up our churches, to embark in this work with their whole strength.

Church Extension.—The Board have prosecuted this part of the work assigned them with all the energy they could command. The Church Extension Committee have met promptly all the demands made upon them. No application for aid, having the sanction of a Presbytery, has been declined. Appropriations have been made to aid thirty-eight congregations, in twelve of our States, including Texas, and one for a Presbyterian church in Monrovia, Africa.

The whole amount of funds received for this object during the year, has been six thousand, three hundred and sixty-six dollars, and sixty-one cents. The larger portion of this was from an individual donor, and most of the balance was from individual donors. The whole amount from collections in the churches for this object has been, four hundred and forty-two dollars, and sixty cents.

Another year's experience has tended to strengthen, and confirm the conviction, which the Board have before expressed, that this is an exceedingly important work, and that if the churches generally, would take an interest in this object, and by even a small collection in each, would furnish the necessary means for carrying it forward with vigour, an incalculable amount of good might be effected. The great importance of a comfortable house of worship, as a rallying point for the people, especially in our new settlements, can hardly be estimated. It has a direct and important connexion with the prosperity and success of the missionary work. We earnestly commend this object to the attention of all our churches.

Missionary Chronicle.—The circulation of the Missionary Chronicle has somewhat increased during the past year, but this increase has not been in any degree, in proportion to its great importance to the missionary cause. As the only medium of information to the churches, of what is doing in the missionary work by our own branch of the Church, it is certainly desirable, it should be found in every Presbyterian family, and the price has been put sufficiently low, to bring it within the reach of all. Many of our churches do greatly need more information on the subject of missionary operations, and especially, of these operations in our own Church, and by circulating such information among his people, a pastor, unquestionably, confers a real benefit on them, while he aids essentially the cause of Christ.

Conclusion.—"Hitherto hath the Lord helped us," "and blessed be his glorious name." In this department of her work, the Church enters on the present year, under peculiarly favourable circumstances, with a large number of valuable missionaries in the field, with funds in hand, with an increased, and we believe, increasing interest in the cause, and above all, with the approving smiles, and encouraging promises of her covenant God and Saviour. What may she not hope for, in the wise and faithful discharge of duty? The friends of Home Missions have a great work ore them, and the coming year, if we mistake not, will make a demand on all ir faith, and test the strength of their love to this cause.

Many causes are now operating in this country to increase the demand for sionaries, and for aid in their support. Constant emigration to the new States, veakening many of the churches in our older States, and throwing them on the of the Board, to keep them from sinking. And the new settlements, which forming almost daily, in different portions of our country, and especially in the t, unoccupied regions of the West, will make a large demand for ministers, l for means to sustain them. On our whole western frontier, of nearly, or te two thousand miles in extent, population is extending, and new settlements forming, and ministers of the gospel are called for. How many additional sionaries are needed, we presume not to say; we can only say, there is a loud, l pressing call for many, very many; and the Board feel under the most solemn igation, while this work is on their hands, to send into this vast field, every good nister they can obtain. They dare not refuse; God requires it. The Church ects it, the interests of souls demands it. Cost what it may, the poor and perish- in our land must have the gospel preached to them. This is the feeling, this decision of the Board; they must go forward, and meet the increasing demand, l will feel themselves bound to do so, to the full extent of the strength given m. But we have not surveyed the whole field in which the Board of Missions l be called to act. The wide domain, in which we have hitherto acted, and wants of which are so overwhelmingly great, is widening and extending; v and large additions are making. Texas, with her probably more than three ndred thousand inhabitants, has now become a Domestic field, and will make rge demand on the Board for both men and means; and far towards the setting , from the Rocky Mountains to the Pacific Ocean, as population rolls westward, cry will come up, send us the gospel "that bringeth salvation." And they st have the gospel, and that early, or guilt will be incurred, and deplorable evils l follow. What a work has the Church to do in the home department of her sionary charge! In the providence of God, we have arrived at a most interest- , momentous crisis; and the experiment is to be made, and made now, whether re is real religion enough, in the Church, to meet this crisis, as God's chosen redeemed people should meet it. The work of Domestic Missions has so swelled our hands, that all former calculations about men, and means, and all former s of increase utterly fail to meet the calls made. But if the work is great, nks to our covenant God, the resources of the Church are also great; and while work has been growing, the Church has also been extending, and increasing trength; and may we not hope her faith also is strong, and her love to the se has increased, with the growing demand made upon her prayers and efforts? will indulge the sweet, the cheering hope, that the Church will not be found ting, when her Master so plainly calls her, to embark her whole strength in glorious enterprise. We will not, we dare not indulge the unworthy suspi- t that at such a moment any church, in which the love of Christ dwells, will ound indifferent, or inactive. Relying with entire confidence on the pledged h of the Presbyterian Church in the name, and strength of the Lord, the Board "go forward."

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Abstract of the Ninth Annual Report, 1846.

After noticing the removal by death of several members of the Board, and of three missionaries, whose names will be found in another part of this Abstract, the Report proceeds to give an account of the Foreign missionary work of the Presbyterian Church, under separate heads.

FINANCES.—The receipts from all sources have been $91,764 28; the Expenditures, $89,814 93.

PUBLICATIONS.—Of the Missionary Chronicle, 8,350 copies are published; of the Foreign Missionary, 13,000.

AGENCIES.—In the Western and Southern Synods, the Rev. I. N. Candee, and the Rev. W. S. Rogers have continued in their respective agencies during the year.

NEW MISSIONARIES.—Three ministers, two teachers, and three female teachers have been sent as missionaries. Their names will appear in connexion with their missions.

TEXAS.—The Rev. Messrs. I. J. Henderson at Galveston, J. W. Miller at Houston, W. C. Blair at Victoria, and J. W. McCullough at San Antonio, the last mentioned having been appointed during the year, are engaged in the full duties of their calling, and their labours have not been in vain. The admission of Texas into the Union, will, it is anticipated, change the relations of the missionaries from the Foreign to the Domestic Board.

CHOCTAW INDIANS.—The Rev. J. B. Ramsey and his wife, and Miss Morrison, teacher, have been sent as missionaries to this tribe during the year, Mr. Ramsey having been appointed the Superintendent of Spencer Academy. This is an important institution, supported chiefly by the Choctaw nation, and designed to afford the advantages of a good education to about one hundred pupils.

CREEK AND SEMINOLE INDIANS.—The missionaries are the Rev. R. M. Loughridge, and Mr. J. Lilley, teacher, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Lilley reached the station in February. Mrs. Loughridge was taken to her rest in February last. The Rev. J. Limber has withdrawn from the mission, to enter another field of labour. The boarding school contains twenty scholars, and buildings to accommodate fifty will soon be completed. The church consists of ten members. The Seminoles are now settled in the Creek country, and missionary efforts among them ought to be commenced without delay.

Iowa and Sac Indians.—The Rev. E. McKinney and Mr. S. M. Irvin, licentiate, and their wives, Mr. P. Bloohm, teacher, and Mr. F. Irvin, farmer, are connected with this mission. The Rev. W. Hamilton and wife, for many years connected with this mission, have been constrained to withdraw from it by the continued feeble health of Mrs. Hamilton, and their return to the station is doubtful. The Rev. S. M. Coon and wife have received, at their request, a regular dismission from the service of the Board, having both suffered severely from sickness. Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, formerly of the Creek mission, and Mr. Bloohm are new appointments to this field. The buildings for the manual labour boarding school have required much attention, but are nearly completed, and have been regarded with increasing interest by the Indians. Some of the Omahas and Otoes desire to have their children admitted to this school. Portions of the Scriptures have been translated, and a synopsis of a grammar of the Iowa, Otoe, and Missouri language prepared, by Mr. Hamilton; and the press has been of service. But all the operations of the mission have been retarded by the serious sickness of its members, excepting those lately appointed; and this cause has hindered the proposed establishment of a mission among the Otoes. More than sixty of the Indians, chiefly adults, have died during the year.

Chippewa and Ottawa Indians.—The Rev. P. Dougherty and Mr. H. Bradley, teacher, and their wives, are still at the station at Grand Traverse Bay. The school contains thirty-three scholars, and the native members of the church are fourteen, three cases of discipline having occurred, and only one having been added to the church. The mission has to contend against the whisky trader and the Roman priest, the latter offering a religion to the Indian that will not seriously hinder his traffic with the former. Their influence, separate or combined, is only evil. It is gratifying, however, to add that these Indians are advancing in temporal comfort, as the influence of the mission prevails amongst them. And the report presents various considerations of a general kind, to show that missions among the Indian tribes ought to be efficiently supported by the churches.

Western Africa.—In the colony of Liberia, the Rev. J. Eden is still at Monrovia, and the Rev. T. Wilson, and a native teacher, at Sinoe, with schools under their care, and a church at the former place. Among the Kroos, the Rev. J. M. Connelly and wife and two native teachers are at Settra Kroo, the Rev. J. M. Priest and wife and a native teacher at King Will's Town, a native teacher at Kroobar, and W. McDonough, teacher, assisted by a native teacher, at Grand Sesters. Miss Mary Lepion joined this mission during the year as a teacher, but was afterwards called away by death. There are small schools at all the stations, and the boarding school at Settra Kroo is continued with much promise of good. A large force is greatly needed in this mission.

India: Lodiana Mission.—The stations connected with this mission are at Lodiana, Saharunpur, Sabathu, and Merat: the Missionaries are the Rev. Messrs. J. Newton, J. R. Campbell, J. Porter, J. M. Jamieson, L. Janvier, and J. Caldwell, with Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Janvier, and Mrs. Caldwell; Golak Nath, licentiate, and five native catechists and assistants. Mr. J. Craig and Mrs. Jamieson have been called to rest from their labours; Mrs. Craig is coming to this country with her children, not expecting to return to India. Mr. Jamieson is also returning with his children to make arrangements for their education, and then expecting to go back to his field of labour. Mr. Morris, printer, and his family have returned home on account of his health, and received a dismission in good standing from the service of the Board.

India: Allahabad Mission.—The only station is at Allahabad, and the Missionaries are the Rev. Messrs. J. Wilson, J. Warren, J. E. Freemen, J. Owen, and J. Wray, and their wives. Miss Vanderveer, teacher, is on her return home on account of impaired health. Mrs. J. Wilson is at present in this country with her children, to make arrangements for their education. The native assistants of the Furrukhabad and Allahabad Mission are not reported.

India: Furrukhabad Mission—The stations are at Futtehghur, Mynpoory, and Agra, the last formed recently; Missionaries, the Rev. Messrs. H. R. Wilson, M. D., J. L. Scott, J. C. Rankin, W. H. McAuley, Gopi Nath Nundy, and J. J. Walsh, all married men. Mr. H. R. Wilson, and family are now returning home, on account of Mrs. Wilson's continued and serious ill health.

The usual departments of missionary labour in India, have received the attention of the brethren. At all these missions there are schools, containing about 800 scholars, of whom 170 are boarding pupils. There are churches at Lodiana, Saharunpur, Futtehghur and Allahabad, to which several members were added during the year. At Lodiana and Allahabad there are printing presses, and book binderies. In the early part of the year, the Lodiana press was greatly injured by a fire, and upwards of 93,000 copies of religious works were destroyed, requiring about $10,000 to repair the pecuniary loss. Kind friends in India contributed promptly $1789, from a generous source in this country $5000 were received and $1378 from a few other liberal friends and churches, making altogether, $8167. The presses are again at work; but the delay in the progress of Christian truth, was both a severe and a mysterious calamity. The press at Allahabad printed upwards of 4,500,000 pages. Tours were extensively made for preaching the gospel, and the distribution of the Scriptures, and in short the labours of the Missionaries appear to have been abundant. We may believe that these have not been in vain, although as yet but little fruit is visible. The new station at Agra, occupied by the Rev. Messrs. J. Wilson, and J. C. Rankin, is one of great importance—that city having a large population, and having now been made the seat of government for the North Western Presidency.

Siam.—Two Missionaries have been engaged for this country, one of them a physician, and they are expected to sail for Bankok in the summer.

China: Canton Mission.—The Rev. A. P. Happer, M. D., is the only Missionary now at the lower mission, but it is expected that another will join him during the present year, China: Amoy Mission.—The Rev. Messrs. J. Lloyd and H. A. Brown, are at Amoy. Dr. J. C. Hepburn and wife, have been obliged to return to this country on account of Mrs. Hepburn's health, but they hope to go back to their field of labour.

China: Ningpo Mission.—The Rev. Messrs. W. M. Lowrie, R. Q. Way, M. D., A. W. Loomis, M. S. Culbertson; D. B. McCartee, M. D.; Mr. R. Cole, printer, and Mrs. Loomis, Mrs. Culbertson, Mrs. Way, and Mrs. Cole, are connected with this mission. Mr. and Mrs. Loomis are stationed at Chusan for the present, the others at Ningpo.

In the China missions, the brethren are all diligently prosecuting the study of the language, and cannot be expected to undertake much active labour until they become acquainted with the Chinese tongue. There are boarding schools at Macao, Ningpo, and Chusan, with fifty-seven scholars. Three natives have been admitted to the Church at Ningpo. Drs. McCartee and Hepburn met with many opportunities of benevolent medical practice, the influence of which would tend to prepare the people to regard the Missionaries with favour. The press has been removed from Macao to Ningpo, and is in successful operation. Much time was required to make this change, but 3,576,000 pages have been printed since June, 1844. Chinese scholars express much admiration at the beauty of the works printed with the metalic types. The general prospects of these missions continue to be highly interesting and encouraging.

Papal Europe.—Moneys have been remitted to the amount of $3400, to the Evangelical Society of France, and the Evangelical Society of Geneva, for the support of Evangelists and colporteurs amongst the Romanist population of France.

The Jews.—A Missionary has been engaged for the Jews, who will be ready to enter soon upon his work. It is considered highly desirable that he should be accompanied by another minister.

Concluding Remarks.—The Report concludes with some general remarks. 1. That there is cause for thankfulness to God in view of the work now in progress, and the success attending it. 2. That enlarged pecuniary means will be required in the coming year. 3. That a larger measure of Missionary intelligence ought to be disseminated among the churches. 4. That continued faith and prayer on the part of God's people, are indispensable to final success.

TO STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

The Stated Clerks of Presbyteries are respectfully requested to use the requisite effort to have their Presbyterial Reports complete; to have them accompanied on the lower margin with an historical account of changes; and to have them signed by their names as Stated Clerks. It is also requested, that if they order Minutes for individuals not belonging to the Presbytery, on the same sheet with the Report, they would make the memorandum so as not to interfere with the regular table; and that all proper names and numbers should be very legibly written. It is desirable that the Statistical Reports should be transmitted by mail immediately after the spring meetings of Presbyteries, and at the latest they must arrive during the sittings of the General Assembly to insure their insertion in the Minutes.

The information in the Reports of Presbyteries should reach as nearly as possible to the time of the meeting of the Assembly. This, however, may be determined by each Presbytery or Stated Clerk establishing it as a rule that there shall be some fixed period for the close of the ecclesiastical year. Thus if a Presbytery closes their ecclesiastical year on the first of March, April, or May, let their report uniformly reach that point, and not extend beyond it, otherwise the same matters may be reported in two successive years.

The Stated Clerks of Presbyteries are reminded that the Narrative of Religion, or any other document intended for the Assembly, with the exception of the Statistical Report, should not be sent on to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly charged with postage. The Stated Clerk is authorized to pay postage only on the Statistical Reports, and it is hoped that this will hereafter be borne in mind. In several instances, the Narrative of Religion has been written on the back of the Statistical Report. Stated Clerks should be apprized that in such cases, the Narratives cannot be handed to the committee of the Assembly on that subject, and are therefore lost. It is hoped that this fact will prevent the recurrence of this practice. Notwithstanding the earnest request made last year, some of the Presbyteries have reported odd cents, subjecting the Stated Clerk of the Assembly to the very serious trouble of incorporating the cents with the dollar columns, and summing up the whole again. The order of the Assembly is that only dollars shall be reported, except in case of the Contingent Fund, and it is hoped that this order will hereafter be strictly adhered to. Where the printed blanks are not at hand, Stated Clerks will please to copy the form at page 352 of the Minutes, as any inversion in the order of the columns perplexes the printer, and may lead to mistakes; and to be careful not to put any columns in addition to those authorized by the Assembly.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods, to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

TO PRESBYTERIES, MINISTERS, AND CHURCH SESSIONS.

The value and interest of our Statistical Reports, depend on their fulness and accuracy. To secure these, the Pastor or Session of each church, should make it a matter of duty to furnish regularly and promptly, the necessary materials, to the Stated Clerk of Presbytery. Each Presbytery also, should see that these materials are thus furnished, and that its Stated Clerk performs his duty.

STANDING RULE.

In the Minutes of the General Assembly for the year 1821, is the following important rule, which was adopted by the Assembly. "An overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows: viz.

"Whereas the General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear, to every Christian of our denomination, to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore,

"Resolved, That this Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care, to observe, annually, the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as a season of special prayer to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberatons, and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of His own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong."

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

As the Contingent Fund is not only chargeable with the expense of printing the Minutes, but with all the contingent expenses of the Assembly, and the paying Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, the Presbyteries will see the necessity of contributing something to it in addition to the price required for their Minutes. Nothing should be reported under the head of Contingent Fund, but what is actually paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, or to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. The present year, one Presbytery reports over $200 to this Fund, and other Presbyteries less sums, of which the Treasurer has received nothing. In this way, the Fund is made to appear larger than it actually is, by hundreds of dollars; and the impression is made on churches and Presbyteries, that there is no necessity for their contributing to it. This is wrong.

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES.

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837, and directed to be re-published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

"Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated."

☞ When bequests are made to the respective Boards, let the foregoing forms be carefully observed. Legacies are often lost to the cause which the testator designs to aid, by a defect in the will. When real estate or other property is to be given, let it be particularly described.

The Committee appointed to draft a minute in reference to the death of the Rev. Dr. Latta, reported the following, which was approved, viz.

"While the Assembly acknowledge the apparent loss of the church militant in the decease of the Rev. If church Sessions and Presbyteries will perform their duties in the matter, our statistics will be accurate and complete; if they will not, this desirable object cannot be attained by any method the committee can suggest. The committee, however, think it would be useful, should the Assembly direct the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, where churches omit to report the number of their communicants at any time, to insert in the Presbyterial statistics, the number in the last reports of such churches.

An account of the stocks, &c. owned by the Assembly, with a balance sheet from the ledger of the Treasurer; also a paper showing the several items which make the balance of cash on hand. Upon these documents the committee respectfully report that the Treasurer's account has been regularly audited. The whole amount received by the Treasurer from May 1st 1846 to May 1st 1847, was $10,380.80; making, together with $3,867.49, the balance on hand at the time of the last report, the sum of $14,248.29. The expenditures during the year have amounted to $13,113.58, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer at the close of the fiscal year, of $1134.71. The Treasurer's books are neatly, and so far as we can judge, correctly kept; his report above referred to is herewith returned and marked (A). The paper marked (B) is a tabular statement of the investments made by the Trustees, the par value of the several stocks, the last year's estimate of the value of each investment, and their respective value on the 1st of May inst. The estimated value of these stocks at this time is $79,887.08, showing an improvement during the year of $854.20. The several amounts of money otherwise invested upon accustomed securities are all productive of regular income, with the exception of $5000, upon the bond of Josiah Hall, which amount is in process of collection by due course of law. The income of the General Assembly from its several investments has improved during the last year; the amount of increase is $1422.11.

The paper marked (C) is a balance sheet from the ledger of the Treasurer; the paper marked (D) shows the several items making the cash balance in his hands; and the paper marked (E) is a report of income during the last year as derived from the several investments. We would recommend that the aforesaid papers, marked A, B, C, D, and E, be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Moderator solemnly reminded the Assembly of their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the important duty in which they were about to act.

The report of the Judicial committee in this case, in regard to the order to be observed, is as follows, viz.

"1. The complaint against the Synod of North Carolina. 2. The minutes of the Synod of North Carolina. 3. The complaint against the Presbytery of Fayetteville. 4. Extracts from the minutes of the Presbytery of Fayetteville. The committee recommend that if the General Assembly shall decide to take up the complaint, they should observe the constitutional rules laid down for conducting a regular appeal from a decision of an inferior court."

The reading of the papers was at this point arrested by the following resolution, viz.

Whereas the General Assembly of 1845 remitted the question of the restoration of Mr. McQueen to the privileges and responsibilities of church fellowship and the gospel ministry, to the discretion of the Fayetteville Presbytery, therefore Resolved, That the complaint of the Rev. Colin McIver against the decision of said Presbytery and the Synod of North Carolina for so doing, does not lie, and is accordingly dismissed.

After some debate, this resolution was laid on the table for the present, with a view of hearing the complaint.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had granted leave to Messrs. Cambern and Boggs.

The Judicial Committee reported as in order, case No. 4, and their report was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"The Judicial Committee report, that they have received and examined a complaint of the Rev. James Smylie, from a decision of the Presbytery of Louisiana in the case of the Rev. Dr. Scott, which has been brought in a regular manner up to this General Assembly.

The complaint was first presented to the Synod of Mississippi, who recommended the complainant, if he could not conscientiously withdraw the complaint, to carry it up to the General Assembly. Mr. Smylie, feeling it to be his duty to prosecute his complaint, has brought it up to this supreme judicature of our Church.

There are three ways in which this complaint might be disposed of.

1. The Assembly might take it up, wade through the testimony, receive the new testimony, that, it is understood, the complainant wishes to offer, to decide the case. But against this course, besides other difficulties, it may be mentioned as a very serious one, that the bare reading of the records of the Presbytery would consume four or five days.

2. Another mode might be adopted, by referring the case for reconsideration to the Presbytery of Louisiana, who might be directed to take any new testimony that should be properly offered.

3. Or the General Assembly might remand the case to the Synod of Mississippi, to hear the complaint, and dispose of it in a regular and constitutional manner. This, it is deemed, would be the wisest course.

But, were either of these modes adopted, it would require a great consumption of time, and subject the judicature that might adjudicate on the case to great inconvenience, and no inconsiderable expense; and instead of resulting in practical good, might produce great excitement and consequences injurious to the peace and edification of an important section of our Church. The testimony is so voluminous, that to form a correct judgment on it, would require a retentive memory, patient attention, diligent comparison of its several parts, as well as a discriminating mind. It is to be regretted that the Presbytery sanctioned by their authority the publication of the speeches on both sides of the question.

The committee after carefully deliberating on the subject were unanimously of the opinion, that if the case could be disposed of, consistently with the rights of Mr. Smylie, without remanding it to either of the inferior courts, and without the Assembly's adjudicating on it, all the ends of justice would be gained and the peace of the Church would be promoted. They therefore invited Mr.

Smylie to a friendly interview, in which they expressed their opinion, and he stated his views. He did not concur with the committee in regard to the probable consequences of the case being remanded to the Synod or the Presbytery; and stated that in prosecuting his complaint he was influenced by no personal feelings against Dr. Scott, but by a desire that truth might be sustained, justice done to all concerned, and the constitution of our Church upheld; but if the committee would, without his concurrence, assume the responsibility of recommending to the General Assembly to terminate the case without any further trial, and the Assembly should determine to adopt this as the wisest way of terminating it, he would submit, and feel that he had discharged a duty, which, while it was troublesome and painful, had put him to no inconsiderable expense.

It is due to the Rev. Mr. Smylie to say, that the committee believe, that in prosecuting his complaint, he has been prompted by a sense of duty and a regard to the constitution of our Church, and governed by what he deemed its purity and best interests required.

The committee recommend to the Assembly, the adoption of the following resolution,

Resolved, That in view of the representation of the case given in the above statement by the Judicial Committee, of the voluminous nature of the testimony, and of the difficulties attending the case, and believing that the interests of the Church will be best promoted by adopting the course recommended by the committee, and being willing to assume the responsibility of acting accordingly, this General Assembly do hereby terminate this unhappy case without any farther judicial trial."

The committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Missions, report that having duly considered the contents of said communication, they recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. That the report be approved, and published under the direction of the Board. Also that the Board furnish the Stated Clerk of the Assembly with an abstract to be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. That the increase, during the past year, in the amount of pecuniary contributions, in the number of Missionaries commissioned, and in the good results of their labour in various respects, has been such as the Assembly may well recognize with gratitude, and receive as an encouragement to the renewed and more vigorous prosecution of the interests of this important cause.

3. That in the judgment of this Assembly, the enterprise of Domestic Missions has never stood sufficiently high in the estimation and affection of the American churches. In its relations to the wide extent of our territory, the rapid increase of our population, the efforts that are made to scatter the seeds of error in our new settlements, and the influence which our country is to exert upon the character and destiny of the world, it is the great enterprise which should enlist the sympathies and the active co-operation of the patriot, the philanthropist, and the Christian.

4. That this Assembly reiterates the testimonies of former Assemblies to the vast importance of this object; and calls upon the Synods and Presbyteries to take such measures as may seem to them best calculated to secure the largest possible contributions to the funds of the Board which has this interest in charge.

5. That in view of the increasing importance and magnitude of this branch of our benevolent operations, a sermon be delivered on this subject at some convenient time during the sessions of each Assembly.

6. That the Assembly have heard with pleasure of what has been done by this Board in its capacity as a church extension committee; and express the hope that the funds placed at their disposal for this object, during the coming year, will be greatly increased in amount.

The committee to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, New Jersey, reported that they had examined the same, and recommended that it be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Committee on the Report of the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, presented the following report:

"The committee to whom was referred the Twentieth Annual Report of the Western Theological Seminary, beg leave to report as follows, viz.

"This Seminary was founded twenty years ago by the General Assembly, and its present location established by that body after much and protracted deliberation. Founded on the same plan with its elder and more honoured institution at Princeton, it continues to this day the only other general Theological Seminary deriving its existence directly from the Assembly, and being entirely under its jurisdiction. Those who have from time to time been called by the General Assembly to act as its Directors, the guardians of its interests, and the conservators of its funds, the pecuniary means of its subsistence and usefulness, have in these twenty years constantly entertained the hope that it would be so cherished by the General Assembly, that its paternal solicitude for its welfare would result eventually in the adoption of effective measures to ensure the substantial benefits of its fostering care. They have supposed that the time would come when, amidst its protracted and anxious deliberations in respect to its other Institutions and Boards, and amidst its broad and noble plans for doing good, it would not content itself with a mere passing notice of this; for the most part making its supervision of this object of its creation, and its connexion with it rather a calamity and an impediment than a blessing. Your committee are, however, sorry to be obliged to say that this reasonable hope has been almost entirely deferred, and of the many thousands of dollars which its wants have demanded and secured to it, almost all have been collected within what was originally the Synod of Pittsburgh and some few adjacent Presbyteries. The Assembly itself has made no call upon the Church at large, to aid in its endowment and support, nor upon the Presbyteries to adopt systematic measures to ensure coutributions to its funds. The consequences have been such as might be anticipated, where so great a burden is laid upon a mere fraction of the Church. Anxiety and embarrassment, and often great discouragement have oppressed the minds of its Directors; and their present difficulties are not small.

Your committee think that now, when the endowment of the Theological Seminary at Princeton is understood to be completed, or nearly so, the Assembly should direct its thoughts, its prayers, and its energies to the redemption of the pledge which was thus early given, and has been so long delayed, and take measures forthwith to fulfil for it the provision which has been made for Princeton, that when this is done, our Church may be ready, if need be, to go forward and endow far in the West or Southwest, a third Seminary sustaining to the Assembly the same relation. In doing this, however, your committee would not desire that the Assembly should in any wise interfere with the interests or plans of any other Theological Seminaries of our Church not under its care, or divert any funds which the Presbyteries and churches concerned may have a preference in bestowing upon them; but they think that in perfect harmony with this provision, important aid may now be obtained to complete an endowment which has been zealously undertaken by the Presbyteries in its more immediate vicinity.

Your committee would therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the Report of the Board of Directors be approved, and the same be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. Resolved, That the Board of Directors be directed to appoint one or more Agents to act under the authority of the General Assembly, in soliciting aid in the Church, for the purpose of completing the endowment of the Professorships in the said Seminary; and that it be recommended to the Presbyteries to take such measures as they may deem expedient, to facilitate the object contemplated in this resolution."

On motion, the report was accepted, and the resolutions adopted.

On motion, Resolved, That a committee be appointed on the ways and means of increasing the Commissioners' Fund, and of providing some remedy for those members of this Assembly who are, in whole or in part, dependent on this fund.

The Report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, was taken up, and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"The committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, beg leave to submit the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions be approved, and referred to the Executive Committee for publication, and distribution among the churches.

2. Resolved, That the General Assembly have abundant ground of encouragement, and devout thanksgiving to the Great Head of the Church, in the evidence of success which has attended the operations of the Board during the last ecclesiastical year.

3. Resolved, That as God in his providence is opening many and effectual doors, and spreading out before our Board of Foreign Missions many interesting and extensive fields, and inviting them to enter and take possession, it is the imperative duty of the Church, with combined and more vigorous efforts, to prosecute the work in which we have embarked.

4. Resolved, That, as there are adequate pecuniary resources in the churches under the care of this General Assembly, if called forth to meet all the engagements of the Board, it be recommended to them to extend the sphere of their operations as far as practicable in strengthening existing stations and in establishing new ones.

5. Resolved, That whilst it is our duty to labour and pray with increased energy and zeal for the conversion of the heathen, the Assembly recognizes her obligations to increase her efforts in behalf of papal Europe as well as the seed of Abraham, remembering that all the 'kingdoms of this world are to become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ.'

6. Resolved, That, whilst the Assembly learn with pleasure that there has been a considerable increase in the amount of contributions of the churches to the Board the last year, it is with painful regret, that they learn that a large proportion of our churches have contributed nothing to this important object; and that some of our churches, instead of sustaining their own Board, direct their contributions through other and foreign channels.

7. Resolved, That all the churches under the care of this General Assembly, are expected, as a matter of duty and consistency, to contribute, systematically, and annually, to the fund of this Board.

8. Resolved, That it be recommended to the Board to adopt measures to secure the object referred to in the preceding resolution, by a wise system of agency, or otherwise, and that it be earnestly recommended to the Presbyteries efficiently to co-operate in this matter.

9. Resolved, That, recognizing our dependence upon the blessing of God, and the agency of the Holy Spirit, for the success of this great enterprise for the conversion of the world, it be earnestly recommended to all the churches under our care to cultivate the spirit of prayer, and more earnestly and unitedly to seek the divine blessing upon the efforts of this Board, as well as of similar institutions, especially in the monthly concert."

On motion, the unfinished business was resumed, viz. the complaint against the Synod of North Carolina, and the Presbytery of Fayetteville, pending discussion on which the Assembly adjourned.

Concluded with prayer.

The Committee on the Memorials of the Synods of Pittsburgh, Wheeling, Virginia, upon Christian Union, reported, and their report was adopted, and is as follows; viz.

"The Committee to whom were referred the Memorials of the Synods of Pittsburgh, Wheeling, and Virginia, respecting Christian union and intercourse, have considered the subject, and submit the following report:

"It is well known that the manifestation of unity among evangelical Christians, occupies a distinguished place in the public mind at the present time. Nor can it be alleged that it deserves not the consideration which it has received.

The convention held last year in London has greatly increased the attention given to this subject among Protestants; and it is hoped the results of that meeting may be extensively and permanently beneficial. If real Christians, who hold fast the form of sound words, and feel the purifying and elevating power of truth, shall perceive more clearly their substantial agreement, love one another more fervently, and co-operate in the work of faith and labour of love more extensively and zealously, the advantage to the common cause of Christianity will be real and great.

We would by no means call in question the organization or operation of that branch of the Christian alliance which has been constituted in our country; but would rather bid those brethren God-speed in their legitimate efforts, and pray that the blessing of the God of peace may abide with them always. Still it may be inquired whether some plan of intercourse and combined effort may not be adopted, which may specifically include those denominations who hold the same faith, and the same ecclesiastical form of government and discipline, substantially and truly, which we hold, that may greatly contribute to more intimate and complete unity in sentiment, affection, and practice. If this can be accomplished in a considerable degree, in a way which will be safe, and will not interfere at all with denominational peculiarities and interests, it will be much gain to the cause of truth and charity. And thus, not only entire apostasy from true Christianity in its various forms, but errors of dangerous tendency may be more effectually resisted, and the system of salvation by free and sovereign grace may be more favourably exhibited before the Christian public.

It is to be particularly observed, however, that such a plan should bear no relation whatever to the amalgamation of those denominations who may be willing to enter into such an arrangement. This must be left to each in its own ecclesiastical capacity. Only that unity which is consistent with denominational distinction should be embraced in the plan.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the General Assembly offer for consideration to the supreme judicatories of those denominations in the United States who are of the description above mentioned, the following propositions.

1. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, the Synods of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, the Associate Presbyterian Church, the Reformed Dutch Protestant Church, and the German Reformed Church, will appoint both ministerial and lay delegates in such numbers as they shall deem proper, to meet in conference, at such time and place as shall be hereafter designated, and consult and decide respecting a suitable plan of intercourse as may be deemed profitable and safe.

2. The results of this conference shall be reported to the several bodies, and shall be regarded as adopted only so far as they shall be approved by each body.

3. This Assembly will appoint a committee who shall have the charge of previous arrangements, so far as we are concerned, and shall be authorized to communicate with the bodies above named, and confer with any committee by them appointed."

The order of the day for ten o'clock having arrived, the Report of the Board of Education was taken up, and referred to the following committee, viz. Dr. Chamberlain, Dr. Jones, and T. R. Lee.

The amount paid in for this object at the present session, is but $772, which is about $400 short of the sum that will be necessary. Accompanying this report, we submit a statement of the amount of the Contingent Fund for each year from 1841, to the present time. There are a number of Presbyteries that have sent up no money at all for this fund, and your Committee, in view of the foregoing statements, would offer the following resolution.

Resolved, That the General Assembly does hereby enjoin upon the Presbyteries within its bounds, which have not contributed their proportion to the Contingent Fund, that they do not fail to remit at an early day such amounts as they may have raised, or may be able to collect for that purpose.

Also, that in future, at their spring meetings of each year they make regular provision for the Contingent Fund of the ensuing General Assembly, and remit the same to the Treasurer as early as possible during the session. All of which is respectfully submitted.

"The Committee on leave of Absence beg leave to make a special report to the Assembly. They would state that applications for leave of absence are becoming so numerous that the Assembly is in danger of being reduced in a few days more to a very small body. The committee wish to be instructed as to the degree of strictness which they shall observe in refusing leave of absence to members."

The report was accepted, and the committee, on motion, were instructed to apply the rule rigidly.

The Committee on the Commissioners' Fund presented a report, which being amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"The committee to whom was referred the consideration of increasing the Commissioners' Fund, would respectfully report, that whereas there is great inequality in bearing the expenses of delegates in going to and returning from the Assembly, and whereas this burden rests chiefly on those who are the least able to bear it, therefore Resolved, That while the Assembly would not interfere with any arrangements that any Presbytery may choose to make to defray the expenses of its own delegates, we would enjoin on the weak Presbyteries to see to it that their churches contribute as largely as possible; and that the more able ones, and especially such as are not very remote from the place where the Assembly meets, be required to have collections taken up in their churches for a common commissioners' fund, to aid the weaker Presbyteries in defraying the expenses of their delegates."

Certain resolutions in regard to the present war, and to the establishment of a weekly paper, were read and put on the docket.

The unfinished business was resumed, and it was on motion,

Resolved, That the question on the dismissal of the case be taken not later than 12 o'clock to-day.

The hour of 12 having arrived, the question was accordingly taken, and the following was the decision of the Assembly in the case, viz.

Whereas the Rev. Archibald McQueen prosecuted a complaint before the Assembly of 1845, against the Presbytery of Fayetteville, for refusing to restore him to the exercise of the gospel ministry; and did at the same time memorialize that Assembly to decree his restoration; and whereas that Assembly did take up and judicially entertain the said complaint, and pronounced judgment in the case by authorizing and recommending the Presbytery to restore the said Archibald McQueen to the gospel ministry, provided that in the judgment of the Presbytery it was wise so to do; and whereas the Presbytery in the exercise of the discretion thus confided to them, did restore Mr. McQueen; therefore,

Resolved, That the complaint of the Rev. Colin McIver and others against the Synod of North Carolina, for having sustained the action of the Presbytery of Fayetteville in restoring the said Archibald McQueen, in accordance with the judicial decision of the Assembly of 1845, cannot be entertained by this house, and is hereby dismissed.

In making this disposition of the above mentioned complaint, this General Assembly wishes it to be distinctly understood that they do not mean either to retract or modify any judgment hitherto expressed by any Assembly respecting the offence for which Mr. McQueen was suspended from the exercise of the gospel ministry. They simply declare that his case cannot be regularly brought before them by this complaint.

1. Resolved, That this Assembly reiterate their conviction of the importance of ministerial education, in its relations to all the enterprises of the Church, and to the conversion of the world.

2. Resolved, That this Assembly solemnly recognize the sovereign grace of God, in calling the sons of the Church into the ministry; and also acknowledge the obligations of his Church to use all scriptural and proper means to increase the number of candidates, especially by prayer to the Lord of the harvest, ministerial instruction, parental consecration, Christian education, and pecuniary assistance to those who may need it.

3. Resolved, That it be specially recommended to our ministers and churches not only to pray for an increase of labourers, but also to remember in their prayers, the youth of the Church who have already commenced their preparatory studies, and who are naturally exposed to many temptations, which the Spirit of God can alone enable them to resist.

4. Resolved, That the Presbyteries be enjoined to use unceasing vigilance in the examination of candidates, and to retain a strict pastoral supervision over them throughout their entire preparatory course; and that the Board of Education be enjoined to continue the plan of personal visitation and correspondence, and to use their best endeavours to promote a high standard of ministerial qualification.

5. Resolved, That the Board of Education exercise the same pastoral care over the candidates for the ministry who are sustained by the permanent funds of the General Assembly, as over those who are sustained by the annual collections of the churches.

6. Resolved, That the Annual Report be committed to the Board for publication.

The Committee on Demission presented a report which was, after some debate, again re-committed.

The Rev. Sayrs Gazlay gave notice of his desire to enter his dissent from the vote to lay on the table the resolution warning the Presbyteries on the subject of unlawful marriages; and also of his intention to enter, on behalf of himself and others, a protest against the decision to dismiss judicial case No. 1.

On motion, it was made the order of the day immediately after reading the minutes at the next session, to take up the Report on Parochial Schools.

And then the Assembly adjourned until Monday morning at nine o'clock.

MONDAY Morning, May 31st.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported as an additional commissioner, Aaron L. Lindsley, minister, from the Presbytery of Wisconsin.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had granted leave to Messrs. Hodge, J. J. Janeway, Gray, D. McLean, Watson, Bull, Campbell, McVean, Railey, and McKeen.

On motion, the order of the day was suspended to take up the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That the General Assembly overture to the Presbyteries the following question, viz. Shall that part of the fourth section of the twenty-fourth chapter of the Confession of Faith, from 1 to 2, which says, "Nor can such incestuous marriages ever be made lawful by any law of man, or consent of parties, so as those persons may live together as man and wife," be stricken out.

The previous question being insisted on, the resolution was put to the vote, and lost.

Yeas.—Eastman, Proudfit, Chester, Buck, Reinhart, Nimmo, Evans, Carpenter, Reeve, Barton, Hudson, Dickson, Vanarsdalen, J. N. Brown, Davis, Swift, Fulton, Cook, Coulter, Montgomery, Loomis, R. Donaldson, Adams, Patterson, Hunter, M. M. Brown, Morton, H. L. Brown, Raymond, Thompson, Ferguson, Burghardt, Vaill, Greenlee, F. N. Ewing, A. A. Hogue, B. D. The Committee on the Records of the Synod of North Carolina reported, recommending their approval; and their report was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Northern Indiana, was taken up, recommending approval, with the following exceptions, viz. 1. On page 27, where a record is made of the opening sermon of Synod, it does not appear that the moderator of the previous year who prepared the sermon, was present to preach it, nor does it appear whether he was present or absent during the entire meeting. 2. On page 32, where Synod take exception to the Records of the Presbytery of Michigan as defective, Synod did not require that Presbytery to review and correct said records. 3. On page 54, the Synod censure the Presbytery of Michigan for retaining the name of Mr. Nicoll on the roll after suspending him from the gospel ministry. Your Committee are of the opinion that the name of a suspended minister should be retained on the roll of Presbytery till they proceed to the higher censure, though he be deprived of the exercise of his ministerial functions.

The report was adopted.

The Committee on Demission of the Pastoral Office, presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"The Committee to which was referred the matter concerning the demission of the pastoral office, respectfully report for the consideration of the Assembly the following statement and resolution, viz. 1. With all the care which the Presbyteries can exercise in the examination of candidates, and with all the inquiry which candidates may sincerely make after the path of duty, it has happened and will again occur that men may mistake their calling, and be introduced to the office of the ministry without those qualifications which will enable them with profit to the Church and comfort to themselves to continue to exercise its functions. 2. It is a fact that many persons do practically demit the exercise of the office, engaging entirely in secular pursuits, and yet, 3. Their names remain upon our rolls, they are accounted as ministers, and are counted in estimating the ratio of representation of the Presbyteries to which they belong, thus giving to some Presbyteries a preponderance in the General Assembly to which they are not justly entitled under the fair operation of our system. There is no reason for deposing or suspending them, they have no authority to demit the exercise of their office, nor have Presbyteries a right to permit such demission; and these worthy brethren are constrained to live on with vows resting upon them which they have neither the ability nor opportunity to perform. Therefore,

Resolved, That it be referred to the Presbyteries whether the following sections shall be added to the 15th chapter of our Form of Government, viz.

XVI. The office of a minister of the Gospel is perpetual and cannot be laid aside at pleasure. No person can be divested of it but by deposition. Yet from various causes a minister may become incapable of performing the duties of the office; or he may, though chargeable with neither heresy nor immorality, become unacceptable in his official character. In such cases he may cease to be an acting minister.

XVII. Whenever a minister from any cause, not inferring heresy or crime, shall be incapable of serving the Church to edification, the Presbytery shall take order on the subject, and state the fact, together with the reasons of it, on their records. And when any person has thus ceased to be an acting minister, he shall not be a member of any Presbytery or Synod, but shall be subject to discipline as other ministers. Provided always, that nothing of this kind shall be done without the consent of the individual in question, except by advice of the Synod."

The order of the day was then taken up, viz. the report of the committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Education on Parochial Schools. The resolutions were considered seriatim, amended, and adopted, and are as follows, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Education, beg leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the report be committed to the Board of Education in order that it may be printed and circulated among the churches.

2. Resolved, That this Assembly do hereby express their firm conviction that the interests of the Church and the glory of our Redeemer, demand that immediate and strenuous exertions should be made, so far as practicable, by every congregation to establish within its bounds one or more Primary Schools, under the care of the session of the church, in which together with the usual branches of secular learning, the truths and duties of our holy religion shall be assiduously inculcated.

3. Resolved, That this Assembly do hereby earnestly call upon all the Synods and Presbyteries under their care, to take the subject of Christian education under consideration, and to devise and execute whatever measures they may deem most appropriate for securing the establishment of Parochial and Presbyterial Schools in our bounds.

4. Resolved, That a committee consisting of one minister and one ruling elder be appointed by each Presbytery to collect information as to the number and condition of schools within the bounds of the Presbytery, the number of children under fifteen years of age belonging to their congregations; the state of public opinion in respect to education; the ability of the churches to sustain teachers and build school houses; and whatever other statistical information relating to education they may deem important; and that these committees forward their reports to the Board of Education on or before the 1st of January, 1848.

5. Resolved, That this whole subject be referred to the Board of Education, and that the Board is hereby authorized to expend whatever moneys are committed to them for that purpose in aid of the establishment of Parochial and Presbyterial Schools.

6. Resolved, That it be recommended to the Board of Publication to make inquiries on the subject of elementary school books, with a view of adapting them, as far as practicable, to a system of religious instruction; and that the Board report on this subject to the next General Assembly.

The Committee on the Memorial from the Presbytery of Baltimore, in relation to the erection of a church in Washington City, reported, and their report was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

"That, in their judgment, the object contemplated in said memorial is an important one, and justly claims, upon its merits, the charitable consideration of the friends of our Church in all parts of the country.

They are of opinion, however, that it would be highly inexpedient and of dangerous precedent for the Assembly to engage, as such, in an enterprise of this description.

They therefore recommend that the memorial, with the accompanying papers be respectfully referred back to the Presbytery of Baltimore, within the bounds of which the City of Washington lies; in the hope that, if they shall judge it expedient to take any further steps in the matter, the effort may be sustained by the liberality of the churches."

A report was read from the Rev. Benjamin H. Rice, D. D., delegate to the General Association of Massachusetts.

A communication was read from the complainants in judicial case, No. 1, acquainting the Assembly with their submission to the late decision in said case, and at the same time, inasmuch as the Synodical and Presbyterial acts, against which they had complained, had neither been reversed nor sustained by any General Assembly, with their intention to renew the complaint, should they see fit, to the next General Assembly, for final adjudication.

On motion, leave was granted said complainants to withdraw their papers.

The Assembly then went into an election of a preacher of the annual sermon on Popery; when the Rev. Alexander T. McGill, D.D., was chosen principal, and the Rev. Wm. S. Plumer, D. D., alternate.

On motion, the Clerks were appointed a special committee to recommend to the Assembly the papers suitable to be printed in the Appendix.

Judicial case No. 2, being an appeal of John Cathey from a decision of the session of Paw Creek Church, suspending him from sealing ordinances for marrying his deceased wife's sister, was dismissed, as not having come up through the inferior judicatories, and the case remitted to the Presbytery of Concord for adjudication.

The report of the committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Publication was taken up, recommending the following resolutions, which were adopted, viz.

1. Resolved, That the Report be approved, and published under the direction of the officers of the Board.

2. Resolved, That in the opinion of the Assembly the affairs of this Board have been conducted with judgment, energy, and success, calling for the continued and increased confidence of the churches in its operations, as a means of usefulness.

3. Resolved, That the Assembly cordially approves the plan proposed by the Board for circulating its books, and earnestly recommmends it to the immediate attention of the churches.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly is highly gratified that the Board has entered upon a system of colportage, as an agency for the circulation of its books; and while repeating the recommendation of former Assemblies that funds be raised by Synods and Presbyteries for the establishment of depositories, owned and managed by themselves, the Assembly would further recommend that they employ in connexion with these depositories the colporteurs appointed by the Board.

5. Resolved, That the Assembly approves of the charter obtained by the Board, and orders that, in accordance with the terms of the charter, it shall hereafter be known by the name of "The Presbyterian Board of Publication."

6. Resolved, That the Assembly also provides, in accordance with the requirements of the aforesaid charter, that at the annual meeting of the Board of Publication in the year 1848, on the day when the Board meets to reorganize and elect its officers, it shall proceed to elect, by ballot, three persons in the room of the three first named of the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, incorporated by the aforesaid charter; on the day of the annual meeting in 1849, it shall proceed in like manner to elect three persons in the room of the second three trustees named in the charter aforesaid; and on the day of the annual meeting of the Board of Publication in 1850 it shall elect in the same manner three persons in the room of the three remaining trustees of the aforesaid Board; and thenceforward annually electing three persons in the room of that class which has served three years; provided always that the same persons shall be re-eligible.

7. Resolved, That the Presbyterian Board of Publication may also, at any of its regular meetings, elect persons to fill vacancies occurring by death, resignation, or otherwise.

Overtures Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15, were taken up, and disposed of as follows, viz.

Overture No. 10. An overture from the Presbytery of Palmyra proposing that the Assembly should establish immediately a literary institution of high order in Oregon. The recommendation of the committee was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That it is not expedient for this General Assembly to grant the request.

Overture No. 11. An overture from Thomas R. Lee, a member of this house, proposing certain specific alterations in the Book of Discipline, was referred to a special committee to report to the next Assembly, viz. Rev. Mr. Cunningham, Dr. Hoge, Dr. Howe, Hon. E. A. Nisbit, and Hon. Job Johnston.

Overture No. 12. An overture from the Presbytery of Mississippi, requesting the General Assembly to recommend to the Board of Publication to issue suitable books of sermons and helps for devotion, to be used by vacant congregations; and to inquire whether ruling elders representing such congregations should be interrogated concerning the observance of the recommendations contained in chap. xxi. of the Form of Government. The recommendation of the committee was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That the former part of this overture relating to the publication of books be referred to the Board of Publication; and that the latter part be answered in the affirmative.

Overture No. 13. An overture from the Synods of Philadelphia and New Jersey, the one requesting, and the other objecting to a proposed alteration of their boundary line. The recommendation of the committee was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That as the two Synods interested in the question are not agreed in relation to it, it is inexpedient for the Assembly to make the alteration proposed by the Synod of Philadelphia.

Overture No. 14. An overture from the Presbytery of Oxford, in reference to an alleged inaccuracy in the printed Minutes of the General Assembly of 1844. The recommendation of the committee was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That this overture be referred to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly with the request that he would report to this house the facts in reference to the case referred to.

Overture No. 15. An overture from the Presbytery of Louisiana, presenting several constitutional questions for the decision of the Assembly, was referred to the same special committee to whom was referred overture No. 11, to report to the next Assembly.

The tellers appointed to collect and count the votes for Directors of the Board of Publication reported the following persons as duly elected, viz.

That the Board of Missions be directed, if it appears to them advisable, to appoint a secretary or general agent from and for the South and South-west, who shall superintend the collection of funds and the location of missionaries, and attend to the other duties of this department, in co-operation with the Presbyteries and churches in that section of country.

The Stated Clerk, to whom was referred the Memorial of the Presbytery of Oxford relating to an inaccuracy in the Minutes of 1844, as to the boundary line between the Synods of Cincinnati and Indiana, made a statement on the subject; whereupon it was Resolved, That the word "Northern" should be inserted before the word "Indiana," on page 369 of the Minutes referred to.

It was moved, that in order to meet the wants of the Church, this General Assembly recommend to the Board of Publication to prepare and publish as soon as practicable, a system of doctrinal and scriptural questions adapted to the use of Bible-classes and Sabbath-schools. It was moved, 1. That the various Boards of the Church be, and they hereby are, authorized to establish a paper to be published weekly, in which such communications as said Boards may consider valuable, may be placed before the churches. 2. The resolutions were laid on the table.

On motion,

Resolved, That in view of the continuance of the war in which we are engaged, and of the great and dreadful evils of war, it be earnestly recommended to all our churches to humble themselves before Almighty God, with confession of their own sins and of the people, and to engage in fervent and continued prayer that as individuals and as a nation we may be forgiven; that there may be a speedy, righteous, and amicable adjustment of all existing difficulties with other nations; and that we may be permitted to enjoy without interruption the blessings of peace.

Resolved, That all pastors, and all others preaching statedly, be requested to bring this subject before the several churches in which they minister, on the second Sabbath of July, or as soon after as it may be convenient, and to urge upon our people, the duty pointed out in the foregoing resolution.

The Committee appointed to answer the Protest of W. T. Berry and others, presented a report, which was read and adopted, and, together with the protest, ordered to be entered on the Minutes, as follows, viz.

PROTEST.

The undersigned protest against the decision of this Assembly on dismissing the complaint of Colin McIver and others against the Synod of North Carolina for the following reasons. 1. The action of the Assembly of 1845 on the ground of which the complaint is dismissed by this Assembly, was not a judicial determination of the case. 2. If it had been a judicial determination of the case, it was unconstitutional, and therefore void, because (1.) it thereby restored to the ministry and the privileges of the Church, one who had been convicted of an act which the Confession of Faith, chap. 24, sect. 4, declares, "that no law of man or consent of parties can ever make valid." (2.) It was not competent for the Assembly of 1845 to give the advice and recommendation which they did in this case. (3.) According to the recommendation of the Assembly itself, the action of the Presbytery was discretionary, and they were responsible for the exercise of that discretion to the higher courts.

R. T. Berry, James Kerr, W. H. Mitchell, A. O. Patterson, G. T. Snowden, A. G. McIlwaine, W. W. White, Loyal Young, P. J. Sparrow, W. T. Adams, J. L. Belville, Sayrs Gazlay, Wm. Cooper, John P. Kerr, Edward W. Wright, James Johnston.

ANSWER.

The Protestants have respectfully and honestly stated their views; but, we apprehend, have mistaken the true nature of the case; for,

1. The Assembly of 1845 declare in their records that they did act judicially on the complaint and memorial of Rev. A. McQueen; and did decide that the ends of discipline were answered in his case; and it is not competent for the Protestants or for this Assembly to declare the contrary.

2. As this case was before them in a regular manner, it is, therefore, not correct to affirm that their act was unconstitutional in this respect; or on account of the nature of their decision.

3. The constitution, in the place adduced, is to be interpreted by the Word of God, which, we apprehend, does not sustain the interpretation of the Protestants in that sense of it which they make the basis of their protest.

Further answer we conceive is made unnecessary by the terms of the resolution adopted.

The Clerks made a report upon the papers suitable to be published in the Appendix; whereupon the Stated Clerk was instructed to publish in the Appendix as follows, viz. Reports of Delegates to Corresponding Bodies; Reports of Trustees and Directors of the different Theological Seminaries; Report and accompanying documents of the Treasurer of Trustees of General Assembly; Abstracts of Reports of Boards of Domestic and Foreign Missions, Education, and Publication; Narrative of the State of Religion; and Reports of Committees on such subjects of interest and importance as the Assembly directs.

On motion, Dr. Snodgrass was added to the Special Committee to whom were referred overtures Nos. 11 and 15.

Whereas it is of great importance, for many reasons, that all the benevolent operations of the Church should be managed with the most thorough and careful economy that is consistent with the highest degree of success; therefore,

Resolved, That the following persons, viz. Dr. Plumer, Mr. Brown, Mr. Hunt, Mr. Russell, and Mr. Walker, be appointed to examine the pecuniary management of the Boards of the General Assembly; that they confer with the Boards respectively, and suggest such improvements as they may be able to devise; and that they report fully to the next General Assembly.

The roll was called, and on motion, no record made of absentees.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Assembly having completed their business, it was

Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved, and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Baltimore, on the third Thursday of May, A. D. 1848, at eleven o'clock, A. M.

Accordingly, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly with singing, prayer, and the apostolical benediction.

ROBERT DAVIDSON, Permanent Clerk.

Richmond, May 31*st*, 1847.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, AND ADDRESSED TO THE CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE.

CHRISTIAN BRETHREN—While occupied with matters pertaining to the government and discipline of the Church in her external and visible relations, we do not forget that her vital interests are those which are internal and spiritual. "As the body without the spirit is dead," so faith and government in the house of God are nothing without the presence and agency of that divine Spirit, who is the sole efficient agent in edifying the body of Christ, as well as in quickening those who are dead in trespasses and sins. The Assembly therefore turn with interest, in the course of their sessions, to the Reports of the Presbyteries on the State of Religion within their respective bounds; expecting that these communications will reveal the internal condition of the Church in some measure as it is, and serve as a guide to right sentiments and feelings in the review of the past, as well as to proper resolutions and purposes in reference to the future.

Narratives have been received during the sessions of this Assembly from eighty-four Presbyteries; and these, when collated and compared, exhibit almost all the varieties of light and shade which a moral picture could be supposed to present. They bring before our minds alternate views of dearth and fruitful showers, of barrenness and of fruitfulness, of lukewarmness and zeal, of decline and improvement. And, while this is true of Presbyteries as compared with each other, the remark is often applicable to congregations within the limits of the same Presbytery.

There is a remarkable agreement among the reports in what they communicate respecting the attendance of our people upon the public worship of God on the Sabbath. Most of the Presbyteries refer to this; and, with few exceptions, speak of the attendance, not only as equal to what it has been in former years, but as better to a degree which is highly encouraging. As faith cometh by hearing, we cannot but regard this as a token for good. It may be that we are thus furnished with a providential sign that the Lord is preparing his own way, and that the time is near when a rich harvest is to be reaped as the fruit of the seed which is thus extensively sown.

We notice also with pleasure, that a large number of the Presbyteries refer with evident satisfaction to the peace and harmony which prevail in the churches under their care. For, although the absence of disunion and contention is no certain proof that the cause of truth and piety is advancing upon the surrounding world, it is yet a good and pleasant thing for brethren to dwell together in unity. The Spirit of the Lord is the spirit of peace; and to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace is one of the great duties devolved upon professing Christians. You will rejoice therefore in the intelligence, that the churches have been so extensively preserved during the past year from all occasions of alienation and strife, and have walked together with so much agreement and good-will in the faith and fellowship of the gospel.

We are not aware that any previous Assembly has received intelligence from so many quarters, of efforts made for the liquidation of debts upon houses of worship. The evils resulting from the pressure of pecuniary claims of this description are so multiform and serious, that we cannot but rejoice in every successful effort either to remove or lighten the burden which they impose. A new interest has evidently been awakened in many of the churches on this subject. And, in cases not a few, the immediate practical result has been, the payment in full of pecuniary liabilities which had long interfered with their prosperity, and restrained their liberality towards other objects of benevolence.

Although the Assembly do not perceive any marked difference between the reports of this and several previous years in respect to the religious training of the young, they still regard the subject as too important to be dismissed without notice. The children and youth of any one generation are to form the character and give shape to the destinies of the generation which is to follow. And, for this reason, there are no efforts so full of promise to the Church and the world as those which bear upon the education of the rising race in the pure principles of the gospel of Christ. It is with reference to this end that our Sabbath-schools are collected and organized, that our Bible classes are formed, and that measures are taken to instruct the children of our congregations in the catechisms of the Church. These modes of education, although they are not intended, and cannot with safety be allowed, to take the place of parental instruction, are nevertheless to be regarded as important auxiliaries. And we are enabled to state, that during the past year, the interest of the churches in them has suffered no decline. They have been employed quite as extensively, and in many cases with more vigour and efficiency than heretofore. We also notice with pleasure that one of the Presbyteries (West Jersey) remarks, "We are beginning to inquire into the practicability of organizing Parochial Schools, in which the children of our churches may receive a Christian education; and it is expected that three or four of these will be opened in the course of the summer;" and that in the report of another Presbytery (Western District) we find it stated: "In the first church in Memphis a Parochial School has been established, and other churches have that subject under consideration." These are examples which we trust will be followed by the other Presbyteries in quick and rapid succession. It is high time that all evangelical churches were awake to the importance of securing an education on Christian principles to those who are to occupy the posts of influence when the fathers have fallen asleep.

It is our privilege to say, in view of the sources of information which have been opened to us by the Presbyteries, that our congregations have done more than in any former year, to advance the cause of Christ by their pecuniary contributions. To say nothing of the sums which have been expended in erecting new houses of worship, in supplying the famishing of other lands with the means of subsistence, and in sustaining benevolent enterprises which are not immediately under the care of our own church, we find that the Boards of Domestic and Foreign Missions, and the Board of Education, all report an increase in the amount of their funds, and speak of their fields of labour respectively, as becoming wider and more white unto the harvest. We cannot enter into particulars here; nor is it needful, as the reports of these Boards at length, will be spread before the church for their perusal and consideration. But you will allow us to say, affectionately and earnestly, that we have only begun to do our duty in the great work of raising up a learned, pious, and faithful ministry, and in sending them forth to supply the waste places both at home and abroad. The age and country in which we live, the number and resources of our church, the love of Christ, the wants of the world, and the hope of heaven, call upon us for still greater things in this department than we have yet accomplished.

We are notified by the Board of Publication, that, during the past year, they have taken a step in advance of their previous action. They have resolved on availing themselves of the colporteur system in circulating their issues among the churches, and in destitute neighbourhoods. The value of this agency has been so far exemplified in the experience of other associations, as fully to justify the expectation that if they should be enabled to employ it extensively, the results would be most happy. This however, they cannot do unless funds are placed at their disposal for this purpose. The income from the sale of books would not justify them in going forward to any considerable extent; but, having received generous donations from a few individuals, and trusting that the plan will find increasing favour, they have entered upon the work. A few agents have been appointed, who have already entered upon their respective fields, and their purpose is to increase the number as fast as the means which they may receive will warrant.

In reviewing the past, we find that notice has been taken by several previous Assemblies of the interest manifested in the religious instruction of the coloured population of our country. The reports received this year, justify the belief that this interest has greatly increased since the meeting of the last Assembly. Almost all the Presbyteries covering the ground where this portion of our population are found in the greatest numbers, refer to the subject, and speak of efforts to supply them with the means of grace, as being decidedly on the advance. The following are specimens of the communications we have received on this subject. The Presbytery of South Alabama say: "Perhaps without a solitary exception, our ministers are devoting a considerable part of their labours to the benefit of the coloured population. It is a field which we all love to cultivate; and to some, the great Head of the Church is intimating an abundant harvest." "Most of our pastors," say the Presbytery of Charleston, "devote a part of their time to the exclusive service of the blacks, and in some instances with the most pleasing success. A scheme is now in agitation, with the full consent of the Presbytery, for establishing an African church in the city of Charleston." The Presbytery of Georgia remark, in relation to one of their number who devotes his whole time to this work: "During the year he has been blessed with a revival in one part of his field of labour. Fourteen professed conversion, and were added to the church. Another brother, in another part of our bounds, reports the conversion and reception into the church to which he ministers of eight coloured persons." And the Presbytery of Hopewell speak of their churches generally, as cheerfully yielding the half of their pastor's services to this department of labour. They also express the belief that several churches will soon be erected for the exclusive accommodation of the coloured people, and that the field will be occupied as missionary ground by at least one of their number, who is deeply interested in the work. Many other Presbyteries have addressed us in substantially the same language; and we record these facts as going to encourage the hope that a better day is about to dawn upon the interests of this long neglected class of our people.

On the subject of Temperance the reports of this year are exceedingly various, and, on the whole, less encouraging than we were prepared to expect. Seventeen of the Presbyteries speak of the cause either as stationary, or retrograde in some parts of their bounds, while the number is much fewer that represent it as exhibiting tokens of decided advancement. It is true, indeed, as one of the Presbyteries remarks, that we are to distinguish between the temperance cause and temperance societies. The latter may sometimes suffer a temporary decline in numbers and efficiency, for other reasons than because the great principles of the temperance reformation are losing their hold upon the public mind. And this, we would hope, is in some measure true of the present position of things, in reference to this interest. But, however this may be, it is plain enough that intemperance is still a giant evil among the others, which are spreading desolation through the land, and one which, in many places, is increasing instead of declining in strength. Let the members of our churches and congregations be assured of this; but, instead of filling them with alarm or discouragement, let this assurance awaken them to new and more faithful exertions in endeavouring to stem the tide of this evil, and deliver the nation from its unrelenting and cruel bondage.

We learn from the Reports of twenty-one of our Presbyteries, that special awakenings, more or less extensive, have occurred within their bounds during the progress of the year. In some cases, the churches are mentioned by name, while in others, the statements are without reference to particular localities. The Presbytery of Charleston speak of their largest church as having received an addition during the year, of one hundred and twenty-two converts, who give good reasons for believing that they have been born again; and also of the presence of the Spirit as having been felt in other churches. The Presbytery of Hopewell say: "Reviving showers of Divine grace have descended on nine churches." And they refer to Franklin College, at Athens, Georgia, the University at Midway, and two schools under the care of two members of Presbytery, as participating in this spiritual bounty. The Presbytery of Flint River report five churches in which the work of God has been attended with much power and grace, and the Presbyteries of Louisville, West Hanover, and Transylvania about an equal number; the latter referring especially to the College at Danville, as having shared in the converting influences of the Spirit. One or more churches have received refreshing visitations within the bounds of the Presbyteries of Tuscaloosa, Columbia, Harmony, East Alabama, Missouri, East Hanover, Iowa, Schuyler, Brazos, Palestine, Miami, Ohio, Raritan, Newton, Elizabethtown, and New York; and, after these, there are several others which speak of an awakened state of feeling among professing Christians, where no considerable accessions have occurred from the world.

But while we record these tokens of the Divine presence and favour, with gratitude to the Head of the Church and as an encouragement to believe that God is still waiting to be gracious, we are compelled in truth and faithfulness to say that a large majority of the Presbyteries speak of the piety of the churches generally as in a low state. They mourn over the lukewarmness of professing Christians, their worldly conformity, their want of interest in meetings for prayer and Christian communion, and the consequent inefficiency of their example and influence for good. There is great reason for humiliation, repentance, and turning to the Lord on this behalf. The Spirit of the Lord is not among us as in former times; and we trust, brethren, that you will be disposed, with us, to cry aloud and spare not, until God shall return and make our Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

We are admonished by the reports which we have received of the death of both ministers and elders, that our time for prayer and labour is short, and that whatsoever our hands find to do, it becomes us to do with our might. One Presbytery records the death of no less than three of their number, as occurring in the short period of six months; and this list, if we were in possession of all the facts, might be greatly extended. We, as individuals, are to be followers of them who through faith and patience have inherited the promises in death as well as in life. The Master in whose vineyard we labour, will soon convey to us the message: "Give an account of thy stewardship; thou mayest be no longer steward." Wherefore, beloved brethren, let us arise and work while it is called to-day. Let us forget the things which are behind, and reach forth to those things which are before. Let us be steadfast and unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as we know that our labour is not in vain in the Lord."

REPORTS OF DELEGATES.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF MAINE.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The undersigned being commissioned by the last Assembly as a delegate to the General Conference of Maine, reports that in accordance with that appointment, he attended, in June last, the sessions of said Conference in Augusta, the capital of the State, and was received and treated with the kindness due to their character as Christian gentlemen, as well as the consideration due to the body by which he was commissioned.

Your commissioner was not only gratified, as a man, by the considerations of respect paid to him personally, but as a minister of the Presbyterian Church, with the evidences of piety, talents, and orthodoxy there exhibited. In all their exercises there was a uniform and unfailing character of devotedness to their Master evinced both in their personal intercourse and the high tone of their doctrinal truth.

Your delegate was permitted to recount what God was doing for and by the venerable body from which he came, and as of old, in Phenice and Samaria, it appeared to cause "great joy unto all the brethren."

Your Commissioner would further remark the great pleasure which he enjoyed in the many evidences which appeared to him, on his journey and intercourse with the brethren, of the reflex, if not direct influence in favour of the truth as it is in Christ, which has resulted to our American Zion in all its orthodox branches from the recent struggle and testimony of the Presbyterian Church.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF VERMONT.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The undersigned having been appointed by the General Assembly of 1846, a delegate to the General Convention of Vermont, respectfully reports that he attended to the duties of his appointment, and met the Convention in Middlebury, in June last.

Your delegate was received with Christian courtesy and kindness, and had his spirits refreshed by the fellowship of those worthy brethren.

They evinced much interest in the statements he had the privilege of making concerning the efforts making in the Southern portion of country, to give the gospel to the slave by our own and sister churches—and the wide and increasing field of usefulness opened to the American Church in this interesting department of Christian enterprise. The Convention, in a spirit of reciprocal courtesy, appointed a delegate to represent them in the General Assembly for the present year. All which is respectfully submitted,

ROBERT S. FINLEY.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF MASSACHUSETTS.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

DEAR SIR,—It is my duty to report to the Assembly, that I attended the General Association of the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts, which met in the town of Pepperel, in the month of June last. Dr. P. Lindsley was principal, and I attended as alternate.

There was a full and harmonious meeting of delegates, and a fraternal and conservative spirit seemed to prevail amongst them.

They gave me a very cordial reception, and manifested a disposition to maintain friendly relations with this body. A delegate was appointed to attend this Assembly as their representative. With respect and affection, yours,

B. H. RICE.

Richmond, 30th May, 1847.

P. S. This report should have been made at an earlier day, but for my peculiar circumstances.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE EVANGELICAL CONSOCIATION OF RHODE ISLAND.

Salem, N. J., May 18, 1847.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

REV. AND DEAR SIR—The undersigned respectfully reports that he attended according to appointment, the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, at Westerly, in June last; that he received a kind and fraternal welcome in the capacity of delegate from the Assembly; and was much gratified by his intercourse with the members of the Consociation. It is a small body, but pervaded by an excellent spirit, and evidently contributes materially to the cause of truth and godliness in that small but interesting State. A delegate was appointed to meet the Assembly in 1847; and the body itself convenes again at Newport, in June next, where a delegate from the Assembly will doubtless meet a cordial reception.

Respectfully, your servant in Christ,

JAMES J. HELM.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF CONNECTICUT.

Lawrenceville, N. J., May 15, 1847.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

REV. AND DEAR SIR—The undersigned, appointed by the General Assembly of 1846, to attend the General Association of Connecticut, reports that he fulfilled his appointment.

The Association met in Somers, Tolland county, on the 19th of June, and remained in session about two days.

In performing the duties of his mission, it was the object of your delegate, after tendering to the brethren of the Association an expression of your good wishes, to give a brief statement of the condition and prospects of our branch of the church.

And in doing this he did not forget to turn their attention particularly to the interest we have taken in the coloured population. The views of many of those brethren in relation to us, as connected with this subject, I am happy to say, are greatly modified. Being requested by one of the District Associations to "remonstrate" with us, touching our duty to this part of our people, the General Association appointed a committee whose report referred to our action on this subject in the kindest terms, and was unanimously adopted.

Whilst there did not appear to have been so many added to their churches as in some previous years, there was, manifestly, indicated a growing attachment to gospel truth.

Delegates were appointed to attend your present meeting.

More than ever sensible of the importance of kind, fraternal intercourse, the undersigned respectfully submits the above, expressing the hope that this disposition to a friendly correspondence on their part will continue to be reciprocated by us.

Yours, &c.

JOSEPH MARON.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

REV. AND DEAR SIR—It was my privilege to be appointed by the General Assembly of 1846, as a delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church.

That venerable body held its session in the city of Albany, and continued from the 3d to the 11th day of June.

Your delegate was received with marked kindness and Christian courtesy, and with no small degree of gratification witnessed the proceedings of that orthodox and Christian Synod. The highest degree of parliamentary order and Christian kindness prevailed, even in their most earnest discussions, and uniformly marked their deliberations.

The respected president of that body took occasion during the session, to assure your delegate on behalf of the Synod, that they feel bound to the Presbyterian Church by a close affinity, a special regard and a peculiar affection, inasmuch as we stand on the same basis of Christian faith, are animated by the same earnest zeal for the peculiar and distinguishing doctrines of grace, and contend with one accord against all the shades of error involved in the great apostacy.

He also expressed the deep interest felt by that Synod in maintaining a friendly correspondence with the General Assembly.

The Synod is a delegated body composed of an equal representation of ministers and elders from the twenty-four classes composing the two particular Synods of Albany and New York. They are prosecuting the work of Education to some extent, and that of Domestic and Foreign Missions with efficiency. They look with no ordinary degree of interest upon the example and operations of the General Assembly in these different departments of Christian enterprise. Their College and Theological Seminary appear to be in a prosperous condition.

The summary of their statistics in 1846, is as follows:

Whole number churches,	271
" ministers,	280
" candidates,	3
" students,	27
" of families,	23,301
Total of the congregations,	104,098
Received on confession,	841
" certificate,	961
Total of communicants,	32,209
Infants baptized,	132
Adults,	150
Catechumens,	6,138
Number of Sabbath schools,	356
Number of scholars,	18,303

The Synod appointed the Rev. Jacob Schoonmaker, D.D., primarius, and the Rev. Samuel A. Van Vranken, D.D., secundus, to attend the General Assembly of 1847. The next meeting of the Synod will be held in the city of New York, on the 3d day of June, 1847.

Yours, most respectfully,

HENRY G. COMINGO.

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AT PRINCETON, N. J.

The Trustees report to the General Assembly, that the following is the Report of their Treasurer, as audited by their Committee of Audit.

The committee on the Treasurer's accounts report that they have examined and compared them with the vouchers, and find them correct, leaving in his hands a balance on general account, of two thousand two hundred and thirty-four dollars and eight cents.

The Treasurer has received since the last settlement in May, 1846, on Education Fund, the sum of two thousand nine hundred and twenty-five dollars and seventy-five cents, which added to the sum of one thousand and eighty-one dollars and fifteen and a half cents, makes the sum of four thousand and six dollars and ninety and a half cents. And he has paid out of this fund, to students, on the order of Professors, the sum of two thousand nine hundred and forty-eight dollars and sixty cents; leaving a balance in his hands, due this fund, of one thousand and fifty-eight dollars and thirty and a half cents.

The Treasurer has received, since the last settlement, on the Expense Fund, one thousand and six dollars, which, added to the sum of three hundred and sixty-three dollars and seventy-four and a half cents, makes the sum of one thousand three hundred and sixty-nine dollars and seventy-four and a half cents. And he has paid out of this fund, for Secretary's salary, Treasurer's commissions, library, servants' wages, and contingent expenses, one thousand two hundred and thirty dollars and forty-eight cents, leaving a balance due this fund, of one hundred and thirty-nine dollars and twenty-six and a half cents.

The Treasurer has received since the last settlement, on the Contingent Fund, eleven thousand and forty-six dollars, and ten cents, which, added to the sum of six hundred and forty-four dollars and twelve cents, makes the sum of eleven thousand six hundred and ninety dollars and twenty-two cents; and he has paid out of this fund to Dr. Van Rensselaer, to reimburse him for money advanced by him for Professors' salaries, to Mr. Donaldson, for investment, and for Professors' salaries, ten thousand six hundred and fifty-three dollars and seventy-one cents; leaving a balance of ten hundred and thirty-six dollars and fifty-one cents.

Recapitulation.

Reuben Van Pelt, } Committee.
Nicholas Murray, }

May 18th, 1847.

The following Report was received from the Rev. Dr. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer, on the subject of his agency, viz.

The undersigned, Agent for the Theological Seminary, respectfully submits to the Trustees the following brief account of the state of the funds belonging to his agency, and of his operations during the year.

Cash received from all sources, since date of last report, $14,670 14, viz.

Through Dr. McElroy,	$2450 00
From Subscribers,	8524 79
Refunded by Trustees,	1853 71
Balance in May, 1846,	1841 64
Total,	$14,670 14

The above sum is accounted for as follows:

Paid James Donaldson for permanent investments,	$11,000 00
In hands of James S. Green, (Dr. McElroy's,)	2,450 00
do. do. (from subscribers,)	214 54
Balance in the hands of Agent at this date,	1,055 60
Total,	$14,670 14

Accompanying this Report, are the vouchers for the money paid to Mr. Donaldson. Mr. Green's vouchers will include what has passed through his hands, according to the above statement.

The total amount of cash received from the beginning of the agency, including three notes, which may be regarded as temporary investments, is $47,891 88. Of this sum, $41,100 permanently invested; $5786 28 used for contingent expenses; $1005 60 balance at this date. Total, $47, 891 88.

It ought to be mentioned that James S. Green, the Treasurer, has invested during the year, $1500, which may be regarded, as in part, reimbursing the above $5786 28. And inasmuch as $2500 of this last sum was given for contingent purposes, it leaves only $1786 28, as the entire sum thus far appropriated for contingent expenses from the agency fund. It will be remembered that the Convention, under which I act, authorized the use, for the contingent fund, of as much of the amount subscribed, as was necessary, during the interval of the complete endowment. It is gratifying to find that the amount thus used is thus far so small.

The total amount of agency funds now invested, including the above $1500, by Mr. Green, is $42,600, the interest of which is about $2500 per annum. In addition to this sum, however, the subscriptions, in the hands of subscribers, amounting to about $7000 or $8000, will yield about $400 more. A number of other subscribers will probably pay during the year, which will increase the amount invested, and of course the interest. It may be safely estimated that the income from the agency funds for the next year will be at least $3000.

The amount of new subscriptions received during the year has been about $7000. The Agent, in consequence of receiving an appointment in the Board of Education, which it was thought his duty to accept, has not been able to prosecute the agency during the year past, to the extent he anticipated. He expects, however, with the blessing of God, to bring it to a close, before another year. If too sanguine in this expectation, he will resign the agency into other hands.

CORTLANDT VAN RENSSELAER.

Princeton, May 17th, 1847.

The Librarian has reported the following additions made to the Library through the year, viz.

Dr. Hodge, thirty-nine volumes; by a Student, one volume; by Mrs. Susannah Armstrong, four volumes; by James Lenox, fourteen volumes; by Walter Lowrie, nine volumes; by Abraham Gosman, one volume; by the Rev. R. K. Rodgers, one volume; by Samuel Agnew, Philadelphia, ten volumes; by Enoch Fithian, one volume; by the Rev. G. C. Beckwith, four volumes; Board of Publication, works in continuation: by the Rev. Total, 23. Last year, 19.

The incompleteness of many of our Presbyterial Reports, still furnishes reason for regret. It will be seen from the above aggregates, that there has been a gratifying increase during the year, in the number of our Presbyteries, Candidates, Licentiates, Ministers, Churches, and Communicants. The increase, also, of the amount raised for religious purposes, it will be observed, is over Fifty-five Thousand Dollars. In reference to several of these items, complete returns would have shown still larger results.

Abstract of the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, May, 1847.

During the year ending March 31, 1847, the Presbyterian Board of Publication have added to their catalogue twenty-one new books, amounting to 23,500 copies; two new tracts, amounting to 2000 copies; and three occasional tracts, amounting to 10,500 copies. Whole number of new publications, 36,000 copies. They have also printed new editions from stereotype plates, amounting to 110,500 copies. Total number of books and tracts issued during the year, 146,500.

The books issued during the year have been chiefly of the smaller and less expensive kind. As the catalogue at the close of the last year, had extended to more than two hundred works of different descriptions, the Board were admonished of the danger of so increasing the number as to make the Congregational Library too expensive. They have also been aware, that a main object of the Institution is not to multiply good books indiscriminately, but to publish such as are adapted specially to the wants of the Church. A good proportion of those added to the list given in the last Report will answer the call, so often repeated, for books suited to children and youth.

Among the more important publications of the year, may be mentioned,

"Christ and Antichrist; or Jesus of Nazareth proved to be the Messiah, and the Papacy proved to be the Antichrist predicted in the Holy Scriptures; by the Rev. S. J. Cassels, of Virginia.—An ably written treatise, on a topic of increasing importance to the Protestant Churches of our land, among which there is an alarming apathy to the moral influence of the errors which the author so thoroughly exposes.

"An Exposition of the Confession of Faith, of the Westminster Assembly of Divines," by the Rev. Robert Shaw.—A book of moderate size, that displays much theological research, and comprises within a small space the substance of many volumes. To those who desire an instructive and luminous explanation of the Westminster summary of doctrinal truths, this work will be a most acceptable offering.

"Obligations of the World to the Bible."—A mature and carefully written book, of more than three hundred pages, by Dr. Spring, of New York; exhibiting at once the strength and the polish of his gifted and instructive pen.

"Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, from its organization, A. D. 1789 to A. D. 1820, inclusive."—A second volume of records, replete with details that are of common interest to the friends of evangelical religion, and especially to ourselves.

The Board have also in hand, among other books, the following standard practical works—Alleine's Alarm, Baxter's Call to the Unconverted, Baxter's Saint's Rest, McLaurin's Essays, in the stereotyping of which they are promised the aid of some liberal friends, to whom they have been indebted for similar favours before.

They are also preparing for publication a splendid pictorial edition of Bunyan's Holy War, (with Barder's notes,) the engravings of which are to be on wood, and and executed in the first style of the art. The means for producing this valuable work, will be a sequel to the liberality which has enabled the Board to put the Church in possession of the Pilgrim's Progress, in so splendid a style, and at so moderate a price.

They have in press "Thoughts on Family Worship," by the Rev. J. W. Alexander, D.D., a work of which it will not be too much to say, that it is worthy of the author and the subject.

They also have in press "A Manual of Devotions for Soldiers and Sailors," a work of the highest importance to those whose spiritual privileges are so few, and who so peculiarly need the instructions and consolations of religion.

The amount of moneys received during the last year, including a balance in the treasury at the date of the last report, is $36,840 50.

The condition of the treasury, as represented in the above account, furnishes evidence of the faithfulness with which the financial department of our concerns has been conducted. Acting as the Board do, under restrictions prescribed at once by their limited resources and the instructions of the General Assembly, they feel the necessity of running no unnecessary risks in business, which would expose them to losses which they could ill sustain. While they have deemed it true economy in the manufacturing of their books, to employ the best mechanics and the best materials, as their publications will show, yet their contracts have been uniformly on cash principles, and therefore on the most advantageous terms.

For the purpose of furnishing the churches with a succinct and comprehensive account of their plans and operations, they have recently published a short tract, containing a statement not only of their doings as a Board from their organization, but of the results. From this document it will be seen, that within less than seven years, since they began to publish, they have issued more than 575,000 volumes, or more than 80,000 yearly. In the same period they have published 177,000 catechisms, 37,500 almanacs, 5500 occasional tracts, 16,000 tracts on Popery, and 111,000 tracts on doctrinal subjects. Some of these tracts contain the matter of a small volume, and are many times the size of ordinary tracts. They have had executed by the best artists, on steel, copper, and wood, 337 distinct engravings, many of them of the most beautiful and costly kind. And although commencing their operations in 1840, with an available capital not exceeding $48,000, they have made sales to the amount of $145,477.

The Board have also been made the almoners of private donations, placed at their disposal by a few generous persons, to be distributed according to their judgment, by means of which $4300 have been expended, and about 10,000 volumes given to furnish libraries to Presbyterian clergymen of limited pecuniary means, to feeble churches, Sabbath-schools, benevolent and charitable institutions, and ships of war. Many thousand volumes have thus gone through the Church from their depository, of a sterling character, distinctively Presbyterian in doctrine, and eminently practical in tendency, to convince, instruct, and comfort its widely extended community.

Within a short period the Board have presumed so far upon the support of the churches, as to take some incipient steps in a system of Colportage. The value of such an agency in diffusing the books of the Board, as well as its efficiency, have been signally exemplified in the experience of other associations; but it has not been adopted by this Board for the want of means to sustain it. After mature and enlightened inquiry on the subject, they were convinced that the income from the sales would not justify the large outlay which would be required to carry on this mode of distribution to any considerable extent. The generous donations of a few individuals, however, have enabled the Board to commence the work.

Agents for circulating and colporteurs have been appointed, who have already entered their respective fields, and it is the purpose of the Board to increase their number just as fast as the means put by the Church at their disposal will warrant.

The Board would also inform the Assembly, that they have procured from the Legislature of Pennsylvania, an act of incorporation as authorized by a previous Assembly.

In conclusion, they would repeat the sentiments expressed in a former Report, that, let the Church become aroused to the importance of this institution, and to its power when fully put forth and properly directed; let them carry out the repeated recommendation of former Assemblies on the subject of co-operation, and then will its influence be felt, in giving strength as well as enlargement to our Zion.

And while the Board thus solicit the assistance and counsel of the Assembly, they would, more than all, desire and ask an unceasing interest in their prayers.

PASTORAL SUPERVISION.

During the year, the Corresponding Secretary and the Associate Secretary and General Agent have attempted to carry out a plan of pastoral visitation. They have visited almost all the institutions where the candidates are collected in any number; have prayed with the young men, conversed with them, and endeavoured publicly and privately to stir up their minds to the remembrance of the high and holy duties of the ministry. Dr. Atkinson has also discharged the same duty in various sections of the Church. So that few of the candidates are personally unknown to us.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

The Board embrace this opportunity to re-affirm before the Assembly and the Church, some of the leading facts and principles which are indissolubly connected with the advancement of the interests of ministerial education.

I. The basis of all the operations of the Board of Education is, that a pious and well qualified ministry is the great instrumentality appointed by the Head of the Church for the conversion of the world.

The work of training up ministers is therefore fundamental work in the Church of Christ.

II. The providence of God calls loudly for more men to preach the gospel. The commission to "preach the gospel" at all, requires that it should be preached "to every creature." The gospel is Christ's gospel for all the earth.

The number of ordained ministers which the Presbyterian Church sends out to teach the heathen nations is exceedingly small in comparison with the extent of the field. The Judaism of the apostolic church, displayed in an unwillingness to send the gospel to the Gentiles, still shows itself at the present day. The Church should send forth hundreds of Christian missionaries to relieve the cry of perishing millions, and to answer the importunity of an awakening world. But where are the men? "The labourers are few."

Within the bounds of our own denomination, in this favoured land, there are nearly five hundred vacant churches. If some of these have been supplied during the year, others have become destitute of the means of grace; and if many of these congregations be small, yet in the aggregate they embrace many thousands of church members.

Besides this large number of vacancies, there are hundreds of destitute places east, south, and west, where the gospel ought to be proclaimed from sanctuaries built up through the labours of Presbyterian missionaries.

In addition to our vacancies and actual destitutions, we must include the almost confounding element of the increase of our population. The developments of American statistics are the romance of political economy. It has been computed, in popular language, that the wave of population rolls westward at the rate of eighteen miles a year, sweeping away the wilderness by a living tide of active and increasing encroachment.

With an adequate supply of right-minded, devoted ministers, the number of Presbyterian churches might, in the providence of God, be speedily doubled.

III. In the midst of these enlarged demands for more men, the fact stands out upon our records that for the last three years the number of candidates in the Presbyterian Church has been diminishing. The watchman, in telling us of the night, could scarcely have alarmed Zion with a more fearful report.

The small increase of candidates this year—which is eighteen in the aggrega above the number of last year—should by no means diminish the solicitude of the Church on this vital topic. The number of candidates is far behind the wants of the Church and the age. The Free Church of Scotland, with about seven hundred ministers and congregations, has nearly the same number of theological students as our own branch of the Presbyterian Church, with seventeen hundred ministers and twenty-four hundred congregations. According to "the rule of three," which is a fearful test for us when we cypher with Scotland, our Church should have at least five hundred theological students, and one thousand candidates under the care of the Board of Education, in all stages of their studies. At our present rate of increase, it would take a generation to reach the relative numbers of Scotland, even if Scotland remained stationary during the interval. Small as our increase has been, during the year, there is danger that it will backslide again into a diminution. No subject should more anxiously engage the attention, the prayers, and the efforts of the Church than the adequate supply of her ministerial ranks.

IV. God alone can furnish the Church with ministers.

The ministerial office, which requires in the first place the regeneration of the soul, is entirely dependent upon the will of God. The grace of regeneration and sanctification is bestowed, through the cross of Christ, upon his own elect.

In addition to a saving call, the ministerial office requires the intimations of God's will by the Spirit in regard to this particular vocation. The soul is called not only to the knowledge of Christ, but to the ministry of Christ. "No man taketh this honour to himself, but he that is called of God as was Aaron."

The Presbyterian Church is clear and explicit in her standards and in her practice as to the necessity of a holy and divinely called ministry. This is a fundamental principle in all her operations.

V. The Church must use means to raise up ministers.

The command of Christ to pray to him as the "Lord of the harvest," implies the faithful efforts of his Church, with a reliance upon his blessing, to secure the object of their supplications.

The analogies of religion confirm the same idea. The conversion of the soul as well as its sanctification, consolation and providential guidance, is connected with means of every kind and degree. Christian character and hope, in the endless variety of gracious experience, depend upon the employment of divinely ordained instrumentalities. Why then should the single subject of furnishing the Church with ministers be selected as requiring no Christian effort, no anxious toil, no holy zeal, no persevering care?

The authority of the Church is concerned in this great topic. If the Church cannot use means to call the attention of her children to the ministry, what voice can she have in their ordination? The topics she propounds in the examination of candidates as to personal qualification for the ministry, embrace the substance of the inquiries which the use of means furnishes for private consideration. If the Head of the Church exclude the preliminary agency of his saints, much less have they any right to sit in judgment on the irreversible decision of His will.

Apostolic practice confirms the practice of the Church at the present time. Paul's injunctions to Timothy, such as "the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also;" "lay hands suddenly on no man;" "ordain elders in every church;" these injunctions demanded that Timothy should employ all suitable methods of testing character. It was necessary for him to use all the means which Christian prudence suggested in regard to so important a work.

The use of appropriate means for the increase of the ministry is the safest plan. To leave this great subject undiscussed and unattended to in the Church, is to hand it over to the impulses of fanaticism, and to all the misconceptions of ignorance.

This is the surest way to obtain ministers. Experience proves that when the Church uses the means of God's appointment, her candidates increase; and that when religion languishes and her efforts grow faint, their number diminishes. Providence teaches a lesson as impressive as revelation.

VI. Means to be used.

1. Prayer to "the Lord of the harvest," is among the precious, personal instructions of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Church, whose prayers ascend to "the Lord of the harvest," will receive the first fruits of his blessing in a spiritual and numerous ministry.

The Board solemnly and anxiously reiterate their convictions that the education operations of the Church cannot be successfully carried on without much prayer. The number of candidates will decrease, and their training will not be such as the Church and the age require, unless the grace of God, invoked by his people, shines around our tabernacle by day and by night.

2. Pastoral instruction is necessary for the increase of the ministry. Our young men need encouragement, counsel, watchfulness, sympathy, warning, exhortation. They need pastoral supervision with all its kindly, persuasive, authoritative instructions. They need to be appealed to from the cross, and from the throne. Every young man of piety and promise should realize that the Lord his God has bought him with a price, and that he must render an account of his profession—of the motives which led to its choice, as well as of the manner of pursuing it. Worldly influences are besetting our youth with a power that often tempts them to dishonour their religion. Their hearts become pre-engaged by merchandize and the law and the farm and medicine, and corrupting idleness and the pride of life. What shall save our youth to the Church, if our ministers slumber?

3. The parental consecration of children to Christ is an important element in increasing the supply of ministers. The children belong to God as the creations of his power, the "gracious gifts" of his Providence. Having been also dedicated to him by baptismal vows, why should parents desire to lead them off from the sanctuary path, from the most honourable, useful, and glorious employment among the occupations of men?

Scripture example stimulates parental devotion in the early dedication and training of children. Hannah, having prevailed with God to create her child, solemnly "lent him unto the Lord all the days of his life."

In all ages parental consecration has had much to do with the supplies of the ministerial ranks. The lives of Augustine, and Doddridge, and Edwards, and Davies, and Cecil, and Newton, and Mills and Payson are illustrations of the power of parental tears and prayers. The Board of Education have observed in the correspondence of their candidates a remarkable testimony to this fact. Many of them particularly mention the respect for the ministry taught and felt in childhood as having had an influence after their conversion in turning their attention to the sacred office. The redemption of the world and all the measures to secure it, are closely connected with infant training.

4. Education under the supervision of the Church at the school, at the academy, and at the college, as well as at the seminary is of supreme importance to the interests of the ministerial profession.

The neglect on the part of the Church of her baptized children and of her youth in general, at the very forming period of their character, is one of the anomalies which it is earnestly hoped will no longer tarnish our annals.

5. The increase of our ministers depends upon a system of Church co-operation, through which pecuniary aid can be rendered to the pious and indigent who feel called by the Spirit and by the voice of the Church to prosecute their studies with a view to the ministry. The duty of assisting our indigent candidates cannot be consistently denied, as long as our standards make high literary attainments an indispensible qualification for the sacred office. Evil will be the day in the Presbyterian Church when the rich can obtain an education for the ministry to the exclusion of the poor!

It has been computed that at least one half of all the ministers of our Church have been aided in receiving their theological education. God has in all ages supplied his faithful ministers chiefly from the ranks of the humble and the poor. The Church, therefore, is acting in the line both of God's Providence and grace. And she has been blessed in doing so. Her candidates are to be found in every Synod, rewarding her benevolence by arduous labours in the Redeemer's cause. A large proportion of our foreign and domestic missionaries have been both trained up and sent forth by the funds of the Church. Africa, India, and China testify that there is a blessing in the Board of Education. Many a wilderness and solitary place in our own and in heathen lands have been renewed in their long-lost hopes through devoted ministers, offered in baptism and nursed by the pious poor. The vast results of our education operations in multiplying the number of ministers and in advancing all the interests of the kingdom of the Son of God, will be known only in the day when he himself shall appear in his glory!

Abstract of the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions for 1847.

The past year has been marked with the special favour of God to the cause of Domestic Missions. This cause, in the Presbyterian Church, has silently, but steadily and surely, advanced. The whole number of missionaries in commission during the year, has been 431. Of these, 235 were in commission at the commencement of the year, and 196 have been new appointments during the year. The whole number of feeble congregations, and missionary stations supplied, has exceeded 1200. This is a large increase, both in the number of missionaries, and in the number of stations occupied, over any former period. The number of itinerant missionaries has been considerably increased, and most of the missionaries have spent a portion of their time in itinerant labours.

So far as reported, there have been added to the churches, on examination, 1900 members; by certificate, 1400; total, 3300. Not less than 70 new churches have been organized, and nearly 100 houses for worship have been erected.

The interest in Sabbath Schools and Bible Classes has greatly increased; also in catechetical instruction. This is a fact of deep interest. There is an increasing attention to the instruction of the young on the part of our missionaries, and a growing desire for such instruction on the part of the people.

The missionaries have engaged extensively in the distribution of the Bible, and in the circulation of religious tracts and standard religious books. The works of our own Board of Publication have been extensively circulated, and we trust are doing much good.

The pastoral visitation of families has been attended to with much care, and with happy effects. A few of the missionaries have made laudable efforts to introduce and circulate among their people, The Missionary Chronicle, and with good success. Their example is worthy of imitation by all our missionaries.

The monthly concert for prayer, and weekly prayer meetings, have been attended with increasing interest. There is evidently a growing interest in the benevolent operations of the day, and an increasing liberality in our mission churches. We have reported as collected for missions, Foreign and Domestic, between $6000 and $7000, and an amount, much larger than usual, has been raised for other objects.

The cause of temperance, we fear, has not advanced during the past year. In many portions of the missionary field, and especially in some parts of the west, there is fearful evidence of increasing intemperance. There is also reason to fear, that the alarming sin of Sabbath desecration has increased.

The obstacles to the progress of the gospel, in all portions of our country, during the past year, have been both numerous and powerful, and these opposing influences are felt in all their strength on missionary ground, especially in our new settlements. But notwithstanding these opposing difficulties, the progress of this work has been decided. The immediate, visible results, as we have seen, are great, and most encouraging. But in the great missionary work, we look to future and distant results.

Funds.—The whole amount of funds at the disposal of the Board during the year, has been $63,522.59. The balance on hand at the close of the year, is about $6000. The whole amount exceeds that of the preceding year by about $8000. The increase in the receipts of the year has not been large, still there has been an increase, which is in itself encouraging; and this increase has been principally in collections from the churches. This also promises well; as the cause for permanent resources must depend not on legacies, nor so much on the large donations of the few, as on the smaller contributions of the many.

In addition to the above, the Board have received in valuable clothing, to the amount of not less than from $3000 to $4000. This clothing has been distributed gratuitously among the missionaries most in want, and has been of great importance to them and their families. The Board have also received during the year, several hundred dollars' worth of valuable books and tracts for the missionaries, and for the people among whom they labour.

They are able to close the year well, and to commence a new year under propitious circumstances. For these manifest tokens of Divine favour, they desire to be sincerely and devoutly thankful; and would view the goodness and faithfulness of God as a call upon them, for greater diligence and zeal in this work. The present liabilities of the Board are very large. These are daily becoming due, and will require immediate efforts to meet. Present liabilities will of necessity be greatly increased; very large demands, for both men and means, will be made on your Board the coming year. The missionary field is not only increasing in population, it is also widening and extending on all sides. Our new territory will make heavy demands on your Board of Missions, and we are certainly not at liberty to disregard these claims. If we would be faithful to our solemn trust, they must be met, and met promptly. This will require a large increase of funds, and for these the Board must depend on the churches. They have no other resources. The work of Domestic Missions, it should never be forgotten, is a constantly increasing work. It will be much greater this year than it was the last, and it will therefore require larger resources, greater effort, and more sacrifice.

Agencies.—The Rev. Mr. Happersett has continued in the service of the Board during the year. He has visited the churches extensively in several of the Atlantic and middle States, and during the latter part of the winter and spring, he visited several of the southern States.

In the month of August, the Board appointed the Rev. Joseph M. Smith, D.D., of the Baltimore Presbytery, an agent for the Synods of Pittsburgh, Wheeling, and Ohio.

The Rev. S. Scovel, D.D., who has so long and so faithfully served the Board as their agent in the West, continued in this service until the first of November, when he retired from the agency, and accepted the presidency of the college of South Hanover, Indiana, to which he had been elected.

On the resignation of Dr. Scovel, the Rev. J. J. Bullock, a member of the Presbytery of West Lexington, and at that time pastor of the church at Frankfort, Kentucky, was appointed Corresponding Secretary for the Western Committee, and General Agent for the West. The Rev. Charles Sturdevant was also appointed an agent. Both these brethren accepted their appointments.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

During the year, appropriations have been made to aid in the building and finishing of forty-one houses of worship; and in addition to these, aid has been given to thirteen congregations to relieve them from pressing debts, and save them from absolute ruin. The whole number of churches aided has been fifty-four, in sixteen of our States, and one church in Africa. In all the cases where the appropriations have been paid, the houses have been finished, and the congregations entirely relieved from debt. It is on this principle the Committee make their appropriations: that with the aid granted, the people will pledge themselves to finish the building and leave no debt. The result thus far has been most happy. The whole amount of funds received for this object during the year, has been $4596.85. Of this amount, was received—

From one individual, ...	$3,000 00
From other individual donors, ...	551 40
From the churches, ...	1,045 45
Total,	$4,596 85

The whole amount received the present year has been somewhat less than was received the last year, while the number of churches aided has been considerably increased. The Board have repeatedly expressed their conviction of the importance of this object. Another year's experience has not weakened, but strengthened that conviction.

Abstract of the Tenth Annual Report, for 1847.

In the work of Missions, the Church is altogether dependant on the blessing of God. It is not by might, nor by power, but the Spirit of the Lord of Hosts, that the spiritual kingdom of our Lord is to be set up in the hearts of men. The Church may expect the Divine blessing in the use of lawful means; and through her benevolence, crowned with favour from on high, multitudes that are ready to perish shall rejoice in the life and immortality which are brought to light in the Gospel. The Report commences with a devout acknowledgment of these truths, and then proceeds to give a detailed statement of the condition and progress of the Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church during the last year. It is the design of this paper to present a brief Abstract of the Report.

FINANCES.—The Receipts from all sources have been $95,628, less $1,949, balance on hand from last year. It is peculiarly gratifying that the donations of the churches, which must ever be the main pecuniary support of the work, have been considerably larger than during any preceding year. From the Bible and Tract Societies, and from legacies, on the other hand, smaller sums have been received; but the whole amount is larger than the receipts of any former year. The expenditures of the year have been $95,458.

PUBLICATIONS.—Of the Missionary Chronicle upwards of 8000 copies are published, and of the Foreign Missionary nearly 13,000 copies. Besides these, 3500 copies of the Annual Report of 1846 were published, 7000 copies of Letters to Children, by the Rev. W. S. Rogers, and 2000 copies of an Address before the Synod of New York, by the Rev. W. W. Phillips, D. D.

AGENCIES.—In the Western and South-western Synods, the Rev. W. S. Rogers, and the Rev. I. N. Candee, have continued to act as agents of the Board during the year—Mr. Candee's agency ceasing at the end of the year now reported. In the Eastern and some of the Southern Synods, the Rev. H. R. Wilson, Jr., since his return from India, has presented the cause of missions to many of the churches.

NEW MISSIONARIES.—Ten ministers, two licentiate preachers—one of whom is a physician, a teacher, a steward, a carpenter, and ten females, the wives of missionaries, have been set to different fields of labour. Their names will appear in connexion with their missions.

CHOCTAW MISSION.—The Rev. J. B. Ramsey and his wife, Mr. O. P. Stark, principal teacher, Mr. H. C. Gardner, teacher, and his wife, Mr. L. Bissel, teacher, Miss E. J. Morrison, assistant, Mr. J. Lathrop, mechanic, and his wife, Mr. J. McLure, steward, and his wife, and Mr. J. S. Betz, carpenter, are now connected with Spencer Academy, a Manual Labour Boarding School, which is supported chiefly by the Choctaw nation. A serious sickness attacked many of the scholars in November last, proving fatal to three of them; and the superintendent, Mr. Ramsey, was also dangerously ill. It became necessary to suspend the duties of the institution for a season. In January, the school was re-opened, and the full number of pupils, which is limited to one hundred, has been probably completed before this time. Their conduct and improvement have been highly gratifying to the Superintendent and Trustees of the Academy. These boys, who are spoken of as highly promising, are now in training for the duties of this life and for the world to come, under very favourable religious influences. This fact will encourage the people of God to offer fervent prayers on their behalf.

CREEK AND SEMINOLE MISSION.—The Rev. R. M. Loughridge, Mr. J. Lilley, teacher, and their wives, are still connected with this mission. The school contains eighteen boys and twenty-four girls, of whom twenty-one board in the mission family. The Creeks are now so impressed with the importance of having their children educated, that the applications for admission into the school are more numerous than at any former period. Arrangements are in progress for establishing a Manual Labour Boarding School among them. The church contains fourteen native members, and more than two hundred have joined a Temperance Society.

IOWA AND SAC MISSION.—The Rev. Messrs. W. Hamilton and S. M. Irvin, and Mr. F. Irvin, farmer, with their wives, are connected with this mission, the health of Mrs. Hamilton having become so much better as to permit their return to this field of labour. The Boarding School was opened early in the summer, and thirty Iowa children admitted as scholars. The Sacs refuse to send any of their children to the school. The missionaries continue to preach the Gospel to these Indians, but meet with great discouragement from the prevalence of intemperance amongst them. The hope of saving these tribes from extinction, seems to be centred in their children, who are now for the first time placed fully under Christian influence.

OMAHAW AND OTOE MISSION.—This is a new mission commenced during the year by the Rev. E. McKinney and wife, and Mr. P. Bloohm, formerly of the Iowa mission. Their station is at Bellevue, on the Missouri, near Council Bluffs. The number of the Otoes is 1166; of the Omahaws, 1050. The latter people, particularly, are in circumstances of great destitution, which strongly appeal to the benevolence of the charitable. They are also inclined to receive with favour the instructions of the missionary. Seldom has any effort for the conversion of the Indians been undertaken, where there was a louder call for it. The Gospel alone can save these Indians, and should this mission be withdrawn, or not sufficiently supported, they will soon disappear, and their cry for help be heard no more.

CHIPPEWA AND OTTAWA MISSION.—The Rev. P. Dougherty and his wife are now the only missionaries at Grand Traverse Bay, Mr. H. Bradley having, with the consent of the Committee, given up his post as teacher. The school has an average attendance of about thirty scholars. The church numbers twenty native members; the general prospects of the mission continue to be encouraging.

WESTERN AFRICA.—There are two missions on the western coast of this dark land, one amongst the Kroo people, the other in the American colony. The Kroo Mission has three stations, at which are settled the Rev. J. M. Connelly and his wife, the Rev. J. M. Priest and his wife, Mr. W. McDonough, teacher, and R. W. Sawyer, native teacher. In the early part of the year, some opposition to the missionaries was manifested at Settra Kroo, but afterwards a better state of feeling was evinced. The pupils in the Boarding School, after having been reduced to eight scholars, were again increased to thirty. Small schools are also conducted at the other stations. Mr. Connelly has in view a journey into the interior, hoping to find an eligible place for missionary labour among the inland tribes.

In the Liberia Mission, there are two stations, one at Monrovia, where the Rev. J. Eden is settled, and the other at Sinoe, now left unoccupied by the death of the Rev. T. Wilson, who was called to his rest. The school at Monrovia has been suspended for the present, and no late accounts have been received concerning the state of the church at that place. The Rev. H. W. Ellis and family, embarked for Monrovia in January. His attainments in learning under unfavourable circumstances, and his steady and consistent piety, secured for him the confidence of the churches in Alabama and Mississippi, by whose liberality he and his family were redeemed from slavery. He was ordained by the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, and it is hoped that a life of more than ordinary influence and usefulness is before him in the land of his forefathers. He is commended to the prayers of the churches.

INDIA: LODIANA MISSION.—The stations of this mission are, Lodiana, Saharunpur, and Sabathu,—Merat having been relinquished; and the missionaries are the Rev. Messrs. J. Newton, J. R. Campbell, J. M. Jamieson, J. Porter, L. Janvier, J. Caldwell, J. H. Morrison, and Golok Nath; and Mr. A. Rudolph, a licentiate preacher; besides several native assistants. Mr. Jamieson is at present in this country, having returned to provide for the education of his children, but is expecting to go back to his field of labour during this summer. Mr. Campbell has been compelled by the failure of Mrs. Campbell's health, to leave India for a season, and is now on his return home. Mr. Morrison was formerly of the Allahabad Mission, from which he was obliged to withdraw by ill health, but he is permitted again to labour in India. Mr. Rudolph was formerly connected with a local Missionary Society in Upper India, from which he brought satisfactory recommendations. He was licensed, and Golok Nath was ordained by the Presbytery of Lodiana. Most of these missionaries are married men.

INDIA: FURRUKHABAD MISSION.—The stations of this mission are Futtehgurh, Mynpoory and Agra; and the missionaries are the Rev. Messrs. J. Wilson, H. R. Wilson, Jr., M. D., J. L. Scott, J. C. Rankin, W. H. McAuley, J. J. Walsh, and Gopee Nath Nundy, and their wives; and also the Rev. Messrs. D. Irving, and A. H. Seeley and their wives, and Mr. R. M. Munnis, a licentiate preacher, who have probably reached their field of labour, having left Calcutta in February last; besides four native assistants. The Rev. H. R. Wilson, Jr., and family have returned to this country for a season, on account of the continued ill health of Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. J. Wilson, whose return was mentioned in the last Report, expects to go back to India during this summer.

INDIA: ALLAHABAD MISSION.—The only station of this mission is the city of Allahabad, and the missionaries are the Rev. Messrs. J. Warren, J. E. Freeman, J. Owen, and J. Wray, and their wives; besides two native assistants.

The labours of the brethren at one of the stations of the Lodiana Mission were interrupted for some time by the war between the Sikhs and the British; but the Lord restrained the wrath of the wicked, and preserved his servants in safety. In the end, the field of direct labour was enlarged, and the missionaries now call loudly to the Church to occupy stations in the country west of the Sutlej, which has been opened for the visits and residence of foreigners. Besides the hindrance caused by this war to the missionary work, in some cases the routine of labour has been modified or suspended by the impaired health of members of the mission families. With these exceptions, the usual departments of missionary duty have been conducted in all the missions; and with more than ordinary encouragement. About 1,000 children and youths are in the schools, of whom 145 are boarded, and 303 more are pupils of schools in which the English language is the medium of instruction. At Allahabad, the government having relinquished the charge of the College or High School for the education of native youths in English, it was transferred to the Mission—together with the use of a valuable building. And at Furrukhabad, where a similar transfer was made some time since, the Mission acknowledge the further favour of the government in the gift of about 700 volumes of books for the use of the school. The churches contain upwards of eighty native members, of whom sixteen were admitted during the year. Two natives were ordained as ruling elders. A church and a chapel have been erected at Allahabad, chiefly by the generous donations of English friends in India. The presses have executed over 13,000,000 of pages of the Holy Scriptures and other works, in four different languages. And these have gone largely into circulation among the natives, having been distributed by the missionaries on their journeys, at the fairs, and at other times in their intercourse with the people. The station at Agra continues to awaken the hope of wide usefulness. And, in general, the seed of the Word of Life has been broadly sown in this field of labour. May the churches have faith to pray for and to expect the dews of heavenly grace to descend and water the seed sown, that it may spring up and "bear fruit, and bring forth, some an hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty."

MISSION IN SIAM.—The mission of the Board in this kingdom, which had been suspended since 1845, is now resumed; and the Rev. S. Mattoon and his wife, and S. R. House, M. D., who is also a licentiate preacher, left this country in August last, for their future station at Bangkok, the chief city in Siam. The king of this country is one of the main supporters of Buddhism; but "the king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water; he turneth it whithersoever he will." Special prayer should be offered unto the Lord for the king of Siam, that his heart may be turned unto the cross of Christ.

The brethren appointed to this mission reached Canton on their way to Bangkok, about the end of December.

CHINA: CANTON MISSION.—The Rev. Messrs. A. P. Happer, M. D., J. W French, and W. Speer and his wife, are connected with this mission, and stationed for the present at Macao—Messrs. French and Speer having arrived at that place on the 26th of December. A boarding-school of nineteen boys, under Mr. Happer's care, has given much encouragement to its superintendent. The city of Canton is regarded as the proper seat of this mission; but considerable difficulty has been found in procuring suitable houses, owing to the prejudices and violence of the people of that city against foreigners.

CHINA: AMOY MISSION.—The Rev. Messrs. J. Lloyd and H. A. Brown are stationed at Amoy. An affection of the eyes has hindered their progress in learning the language, which is still the chief occupation of the missionaries of the Board in China; but the brethren enjoyed excellent opportunities of intercourse with the people of this city and the neighbouring villages, and of distributing religious publications among them. In a house rented for a chapel, they have commenced religious services, which were well attended.

CHINA: NINGPO MISSION.—The Rev. Messrs. W. M. Lowrie, M. S. Culbertson, A. W. Loomis, R. Q. Way, and J. W. Quarterman; D. B. McCartee, M. D.; Mr. R. Cole, printer; and Mrs. Culbertson, Mrs. Loomis, Mrs. Way, and Mrs. Cole, are stationed at Ningpo, Mr. Quarterman having joined the mission during the last year. The temporary station at Tinghai, Chusan, was necessarily relinquished when that island was restored by the British to the Chinese. The missionaries, though not yet perfectly at home in the native language, have been able to impart much religious instruction to the people in their daily intercourse with them; and three stated religious services are conducted on the Lord's day, in a city where a few years ago no one was permitted to publish salvation. Two persons have been admitted to the church, which now consists of twelve members. The school contains thirty boys, who are supported chiefly at the expense of the mission, and efforts are in progress to form a school for girls. Numerous opportunities occur for medical practice among the natives, which is a valuable auxili to the missionaries in their main work, the gift of healing for their spiritual maladies. The printing press is efficiently at work. Of twelve publications, 1,210,000 pages were printed. The educated Chinese express much admiration at the beauty of the work printed with the metallic types, which only are used at this press. The missionaries make an urgent appeal for six more missionaries.

To give the gospel to the people of China is a great work, requiring efficient agencies, and a large measure of faith and of the spirit of prayer on the part of the Church. The missions of the Board in that field, now fairly commenced, are full of promise; but the harvest truly is plenteous, while the labourers are few. "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."

PAPAL EUROPE.—The work of evangelization in many parts of France and other European countries, appears to be attended with a manifest blessing from on high. The evangelists and colporteurs of the Evangelical Societies of France and of Geneva meet with great encouragement in their intercourse with the people. Many hopeful conversions are reported; and large numbers, wearied with the burdensome religion of Rome, are ready for almost any change. Under the preaching of the gospel, they would embrace the way of life. The sum of $3,002 has been remitted to the Societies above-mentioned, and the churches are entreated to take a deeper interest in the work of grace which is now in progress in those Romanist countries.

THE JEWS.—The Rev. M. R. Miller is pursuing the study of Rabbinical Hebrew and of the German language, in the city of New York, where he enjoys excellent opportunities of holding religious conversations with many Jews. Their number in this country is rapidly increasing, and thus far there appears to be an open door for missionary labour amongst them.

CONCLUDING REMARKS.—The Report concludes with stating, 1. That a larger number of labourers have been sent into the field than during any former year. 2. That it is the privilege of the Church to support the work of foreign missions, as shown by their happy influence on her own piety. 3. That great deficiency is manifest in the pecuniary support of this work, as evinced by the fact that many churches and church members have made no contribution in the year for its advancement. The Board can make no farther progress, without increased pecuniary means. 4. That without the Divine blessing, all will be in vain. "Our greatest wants are, more of the spirit of believing prayer, more humility in the sight of God, stronger faith in the Divine promises, and more of the spirit of Christ."

STANDING RULE.

In the Minutes of the General Assembly for the year 1821, is the following important rule, which was adopted by the Assembly. "An overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows: viz.

"Whereas the General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear, to every Christian of our denomination, to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore,

"Resolved, That this Synod do respectively suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care, to observe, annually, the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as a season of special prayer to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations, and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of His own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong."

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods, to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

THE STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

Are earnestly requested,

1. To make their Annual Reports, if they have no printed blanks, after the form on page 546 of these minutes;
2. To make them in fair legible writing, especially the figures;
3. To make them as full and accurate as possible;
4. To report, as the Assembly has ordered, no cents, except in the Contingent Fund;
5. To add up with care the several columns;
6. To append to the Statistical Table, a succinct account of the changes in their respective Presbyteries during the year; and
7. To transmit their Reports as early as practicable after the spring meetings of Presbyteries.

Compliance with these requests, while it will be to each Clerk of Presbytery, but a small thing, will relieve the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly from a serious amount of perplexity and labour.

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

It has become imperative that the churches should contribute more generally and liberally to this Fund. It is now more than exhausted, while some of the current expenses of the General Assembly, are unpaid. As the result, the Stated Clerk is subjected to no little embarrassment. It is neither generous nor just that it should be so. Our church has wealth enough to enable the General Assembly to meet with promptness, all its annual expenditures.

It may be thought that the amount, reported as collected for the Contingent Fund, should be sufficient for this purpose. And so it would be, or nearly so, if that amount were actually paid. But this is not the case. Small as the amount is, reported this year, it is considerably larger than has come into the Treasury, i. e. of the General Assembly. The Stated Clerk can account for this, only by supposing, that money collected for Presbyterial Contingent Funds is sometimes reported indiscriminately with that for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly. It is hoped that Churches and Presbyteries will not fail to attend to this matter. [See Minutes, p. 394.]

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES.

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837, and directed to be re-published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

"Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated."
